Commenting on the Company's performance, Mr. Santosh Ladha, Managing Director said:

"We are pleased with our performance this quarter, reflecting the resilience of our business, continued brand development and focus on execution. During the quarter, we remain focused on accelerating Doreme's growth through strategic digital expansion, enhanced manufacturing capabilities and deeper market penetration. Our partnerships with Amazon and Myntra mark a significant step in strengthening the brand's online visibility and expanding consumer reach. The upcoming infant wear manufacturing facility will further bolster our production capacity and support our expanding product portfolio.

Additionally, our participation in the Saudi Fashion & Tex Expo marks a step towards unlocking new distribution opportunities and strengthening our footprint across the Middle East and Africa. We believe these strategic initiatives will reinforce Doreme's market positioning, unlock new growth avenues and drive sustainable, long-term value creation for all our stakeholders."
