CASE OF OBSTRUCTING POLICE FROM ARRESTING MAN

AAP MLA Amanatullah gets interim protection from arrest

NIRBHAY THAKUR & UPASIKA SINGHAL
NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 13

Amanatullah Khan

A DELHI court Thursday granted AAP Okhla MLA Amanatullah Khan interim protection from arrest in connection with an FIR registered against him on Monday for allegedly obstructing police from arresting a proclaimed offender.

Special Judge Jitendra Singh of the Rouse Avenue Court asked the Delhi Police why they had gone to arrest Shavez Khan — who police said was the proclaimed offender — when he was out on anticipatory bail. “If Shavez Khan was on anticipatory bail, was the police right in going to arrest the accused... was this in discharge of their duty?” the judge asked.

“The allegation of the police team that the applicant was instrumental in facilitating the escape of accused Shavez Khan does not seem to carry weight as he (Shavez Khan) was already on anticipatory bail in the case in which allegedly police had gone to arrest him,” he said in the order.

Police alleged the MLA “pushed and manhandled” officers, threatening that action would be taken against them.

Judge Singh asked the police if they had any CCTV footage of the MLA’s alleged intervention in preventing Shavez’s arrest. “Is there any footage? Let the court know what happened,” the judge said.

“Light udd gayi thi (there was no electricity),” came the response from Additional Public Prosecutor (APP) Atul Kumar Srivastava.

“We have phones these days... police record every little thing on Amanatullah was questioned by the police for over two-and-a-half hours.

Police sources told The Indian Express that they are trying to verify whether Shavez received anticipatory bail. On the court’s observation that police could have used their phones to record the incident, a source said, “Officers were overwhelmed by 20-25 people attacking them. It was the last thing on their mind to pull out their phones and begin recording... nearby CCTV cameras were not working at that time.”

The MLA and his supporters have been booked under sections 221 (obstruction of public servants while they are performing their duties), 132 (criminal force or assault against a public servant while they are performing their duties), 121 (voluntarily causing hurt or grievous hurt to deter public servant from his duty), 191 (rioting), 190 (unlawful assembly), 263 (resistance or obstruction to lawful apprehension of another person), 351 (criminal intimidation), and 111 (organised crime) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita.

In 2018, Shavez Khan and his associates allegedly attacked a group of men near Batla House. As per the FIR in the case, Shavez and a person named Shabbu approached the victims at an empty plot along with four other men. Shavez allegedly fired at the men, who were also attacked with rods.

Police sources said Shavez was arrested but granted conditional bail by a court in 2018, following which he stopped responding to court summonses, prompting the court to declare him a proclaimed offender.

Waqf Board case: HC seeks response from Khan, wife

SOHINI GHOSH
NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 13

THE DELHI High Court Thursday issued notice to AAP MLA Amanatullah Khan and his wife Maryam Siddiqui on a plea filed by the Enforcement Directorate, challenging a trial court’s refusal to take cognisance of the central agency’s chargesheet against the two in the Delhi Waqf Board money laundering case.

Justice Vikas Mahajan sought a response from the couple and directed the trial court — the special court hearing Prevention of Money Laundering Act cases — to defer hearing the other co-accused till March 21. The HC also sought the accused’s response by then.

On November 14, 2024, citing a lack of prior prosecution sanction against Khan, the trial court released him on bail. Khan and Siddiqui were implicated in a supplementary prosecution complaint, which is equivalent to a supplementary chargesheet, by the ED on October 29, 2024.

Khan has been accused of misusing his position as chairperson of the Delhi Waqf Board, including illegally leasing out Waqf properties and allegedly making appointments in exchange for illegal gratification.

Impounded vehicles to be claimed within a month, no more safe custody for 90 days

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 12

A REGISTERED vehicle, which has been impounded by authorities in the Capital, will be put up for auction if not claimed by the owner within a month as compared to the 90-day window earlier, the Delhi Transport department has said in its latest notification. The move comes in the wake of a shortage of space for safekeeping of such vehicles, said officials.

According to a notification issued by the department on Monday, if a registered vehicle is not claimed within 30 days, the owner will receive a final notice with an additional seven-day deadline to retrieve it. If not claimed before the deadline, it will be put up for auction.

The department has made changes in the Delhi Parking and Management Rules 2019, stating that if such a vehicle is kept for more than seven days, the safe custody charges will be doubled.

At present, the authorities concerned tow away vehicles parked illegally in a no-parking zone and keep them in a safe pit. To get the vehicle released, the owner has to pay towing charges, which range between Rs 200 to Rs 1,500 (depending on the category of vehicles). In case it is not released within a period

If a vehicle is not claimed within 30 days, the owner will receive a final notice with an additional seven-day deadline to retrieve it of 90 days, a notice of 15 days is issued to the owner. If the registered owner fails to get the vehicle released within the period of notice, such vehicle is put up for public auction by the agency concerned.

“But due to the 90-day period, vehicles were piling up at the pit and there is also a space issue... So, keeping this in mind, now, the department has made changes, according to which the window period has been reduced from 90 days to 30 days,” said an official.

For unregistered or de-registered vehicles (used to carry goods or passengers), a 10-day window is set with an additional deadline of seven days. If not claimed within the stipulated time, it will be put up for public auction or for scrapping units.

On average, 50 e-rickshaws are seized daily. There are parking spaces for seized vehicles at three places in Delhi and the towing charges are between Rs 200-1500.

Man shot dead in Dwarka by brother over property dispute

New Delhi: A man allegedly shot dead his 35-year-old brother over a property dispute in Dwarka, police said on Thursday. The accused was identified as Ravinder Dalal.

According to police, the incident occurred on Monday in Matiala village. They received a PCR call around 10 pm about the murder of Dhaminder Dalal behind his house. Police arrived at the scene and found that the victim had been shot twice, they said.

During the initial investigation, police found that the brothers had been involved in the rental property business and had ongoing conflicts over property division and rental income.

On Monday, an argument broke out between them and Ravinder allegedly killed Dhaminder. Ravinder, along with his associates — Satinder, Zahid, and Amneesh — was arrested. During questioning, they admitted to committing the crime, police said. PTI

Strong criticism may have devastating impact on officers: HC expunges remarks against Delhi Police’s Crime Branch

SOHINI GHOSH
NEW DELHI, FEBRUARY 13

ACCEPTING THAT the “anguish” of trial court orders is “not without reason”, the Delhi High Court has, however, ruled in favour of Delhi Police while directing the expunging of critical remarks made by the trial court against the Crime Branch and its officers in three cases.

Justice Amit Mahajan, in a February 7 order, recorded that “strong criticism, vituperative remarks, may have a devastating impact on the reputation and career of officials involved in the case”.

The Crime Branch, in a bunch of petitions filed in 2022 and 2023, had sought that the remarks, observations and strictures made by the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate of Northeast district’s Karkardooma court, in nine orders in 2022 — ranging from July until October — in relation to three FIRs, be expunged

These include one from 2007 (for offences of forgery under IPC) and two others from 2020 — one for offences under Emblems and Name (Prevention of Improper Use) Act, 1950) and another for offences under Arms Act. In these orders, the trial court had ruled the non-compliance of directions issued by the court to Crime Branch officers.

Justice Mahajan recorded that while it was apparent the trial court’s remarks were “made in regard to the failure on the part of the investigating agency to carry out the investigation in a proper manner,” he said, “the anguish of the learned trial court is not without reason, yet use of disparaging remarks that tend to lower the credibility of the investigating authority ought to be avoided”.

“If the learned trial court was concerned with the manner of the conduction of investigation, the court could simply have recorded the fact. However, use of castigating remarks, showcase notices to the Commissioner of Police seeking action taken against the officers, manner of enquiry, etcetera, in the opinion of this court, cannot be sustained... It is not in doubt that the orders of the court must be obeyed and complied with. Further, no individual shall be allowed to diminish the authority and majesty of the court. However, scathing remarks tend to have lasting consequences. It cannot be overlooked that every word that forms part of the record/judicial order gains permanence,” Justice Mahajan recorded.

Dummy schools can’t replace educational experience offered by full-fledged school system: CBSE

New Delhi: Success in competitive exams should not come at the cost of quality education and overall development, the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) said in a statement Thursday, warning against the rise of dummy schools — institutions where students are enrolled on paper but skip regular schooling to focus on private coaching.

The Indian Express had reported on Thursday that Harsh Jha (17), a student, had scored 100 in Paper 1 of the Joint Entrance Examination (JEE) Main after enrolling in FIITJEE’s coaching programme while attending a dummy school in Nangloi.

In a statement, the CBSE said that Jha had enrolled at S G N Public School in Nangloi, an institution that was disaffiliated last year after a surprise inspection found it was sponsoring non-attending students, besides violating multiple other Board norms.

The statement asserted that while coaching institutes may aid preparation, “they cannot replace the comprehensive educational experience offered by a full-fledged school system”. ENS
