IND SWIFT LABS BAGS FIRST ORDER FOR CONTRACT RESEARCH

Towards its goal to achieve the revenues from Contract Research and Manufacturing Services (CRAMS), Ind-Swift Labs has bagged its first contract research order from a Leading European Pharmaceutical Company. The contract is the first order bagged by the CRAMS team headed by Dr. Rajesh Naik, Head of CRAMS and R&D.

Strategically Company has decided to focus on CRAMS as it has state of the art Research and Development centre equipped with latest equipments and top class scientific talent, to handle such contracts and generate additional revenues and better profitability. For FY 2012-13, Company expect CRAMS to generate around Rs.100 millions additional revenues.
