Infosys Partners with GEFCO to Support its Digital Transformation

Paris – January 13, 2020 : Infosys (NYSE: INFY), a global leader in next-generation digital services and consulting has partnered with GEFCO, a world leader in multimodal supply chain solutions and the European leader in automotive logistics, to support its digital transformation over the next five years.

As a key business and technology partner of GEFCO, Infosys will help transform the group's next-generation business application management services. Building upon the foundation of these services, Infosys will also leverage its Live Enterprise Suite to help GEFCO evolve into a 'Digital Native' organization. This will enable new supply chain capabilities to extract and process information in real-time and generate purposeful insights with very low latency to help GEFCO respond intelligently and effectively across the value chain. The end objective is to help GEFCO create new sustainable sources of competitive advantage and continuously improve value for its customers.

Jean-Luc Galzi, CIO, GEFCO, said, "We are pleased to begin our digital transformation journey with Infosys. Digital innovation in the supply chain sector is key and our new partnership will help strengthen GEFCO's expertise and bring value to our customers."

Karmesh Vaswani, EVP and Global Head for Retail CPG & Logistics, Infosys, said, "We greatly value the trust and commitment placed by GEFCO in Infosys to partner in this digital transformation journey. We have a shared vision on the 'Art of Possible' and will apply our Live Enterprise approach to help scale new performance thresholds and further enhance the market leadership of GEFCO."
