Infotech Enterprises wins Golden Peacock Award for Demonstrated Excellence in Corporate Governance

London, 12th October – Infotech Enterprises, a leading global engineering services company has won the prestigious Golden Peacock Award for Excellence in Corporate Governance for the year 2012, recognizing the quality of transparency and governance practices that the group has adopted.

Established by the Institute of Directors in 1992, the Golden Peacock Awards are regarded as the 'Holy Grail' of corporate excellence and best practices worldwide. Eric Pickles MP, Secretary of State for Communities and Local Govt. UK and Ola Ullsten, Former Prime Minister of Sweden and Co-Chair of the World Commission on Forests and Sustainable Development presented the award at the third 'Global Conference on Sustainability' at Lords in London on 11th October 2012.

Infotech was recognized for its initiatives such as voluntary secretarial audit, undertaking shareholder satisfaction survey, compliance with secretarial standards issued by ICSI (Institute of Company Secretaries of India), and adherence to elaborate board procedures to facilitate effective decision making. In addition, the company was appreciated for its open door policy, fair and open communication and its robust internal processes to ensure customer's IP security, quality of solution and on-time delivery.

Dr. B.V.R. Mohan Reddy, Founder and Chairman, Infotech Enterprises received the award on behalf of the company. Commenting on the occasion, he said, "We're honored to be recognized for our corporate governance practices. It is our Values FIRST (Fairness, Integrity, Respect, Sincerity and Transparency) that guides us in our interaction with our stakeholders (customers, investors, associates and society) and enables us to balance their needs, thereby building a sustainable business. Infotech believes that good corporate governance is an intrinsic part of its fiduciary responsibility as a responsible citizen and has thereby laid strong emphasis on the transparency of its operations."

The award was given based on the recommendations of the Jury headed by Justice PN Bhagawati, Former Chief Justice of India and Member, UN Human Rights Commission.
