letters@htlive.com

KANPUR: Seventeen MBBS students at Government Medical College in Orai, Jalaun, have been suspended for three months and fined Rs 25,000 each for ragging. The college described it as its biggest action so far against the practice.

The students will not be allowed to attend classes, stay in the hostel or perform clinical duties during the suspension, principal Dr Arvind Trivedi said.

The action follows the circulation of a video showing ragging of junior students from the 2025 batch. Initially, seven senior students were suspended for a week and fined Rs 1,000 each.

Following an outcry, the college management widened the scope of the inquiry, which found 10 more students guilty, taking the total to 17.

The principal had also

KANPUR: A school van driver has been arrested for allegedly molesting a 14-year-old girl during her daily commute and extorting Rs 10 lakh from her by threatening to kill her father.

The Class 10 student, too frightened to tell anyone, handed over Rs 5 lakh each on Thursday and Friday (October 22 and 23), according to a complaint filed by her father on Monday.

SHO Kotwali Chandrakant Mishra said the accused, Sonu Nigam, a resident of Gandhinagar, has been arrested against Nigam and Umang Singh Chauhan, described as the head of a group of van drivers, under charges including molestation and provisions of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act.

The girl is the daughter of a plained to Chauhan twice about Nigam's behaviour. But he did not act.

According to the family, Nigam repeatedly touched her inappropriately during the journey. When she objected, he allegedly threatened to kill her father and demanded Rs 10 lakh, saying the money was needed to save his life.

He also warned her to keep quiet, claiming he knew the entire family and that she would face consequences if she spoke. The matter came to light on Sunday, when her father could not find the cash at home and questioned her. She stayed silent at first but later confided in her maternal aunt, after which the family learnt of the alleged extortion and abuse.

The family then went to Nigam's house, where an argument broke out. Police arrived on information and took him into custody.

The complaint also names Chauhan, alleging that a private school and police arrived on information and took him into custody.
