'FAILURE TO OBSERVE DUE PROCEDURES' Showcase notices to IndiGo, MIAL for passenger trouble

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, January 16

THE BUREAU OF Civil Aviation Security (BCAS) on Tuesday issued showcase notices to IndiGo and Mumbai airport operator, MIAL over the incident of passengers having food on the airport tarmac on Sunday.

Many passengers rushed out of an IndiGo aircraft at the Mumbai airport, sat on the tarmac, and some were also seen having food there as soon as their diverted Goa-Delhi flight landed after a long delay on Sunday.

Both IndiGo and MIAL were not proactive in anticipating the situation and making the appropriate facilitation arrangements for passengers at the airport, as per the notices issued by the BCAS.

The notices have been sent for passenger mistreatment.

Sources said the aircraft was allotted a remote bay C-33 instead of a Contact Stand, an aircraft parking stand that is suitable for walking passengers to and from an aircraft from an allocated boarding gate.

This further added to passenger woes and deprived them the opportunity to avail basic facilities like rest rooms and refreshments at the terminal.

Such a situation, the sources said, resulted in an unfavourable, unacceptable experience for the tired and harassed passengers.

The notice has been issued to IndiGo because the airline failed to observe due aviation security procedures in respect of the flight 6E 2195, which landed at the Mumbai airport at 23.21 pm on Sun-

Nagal first Indian to beat seeded player in Grand Slam since 1989

NAMIT KUMAR
New Delhi, January 16

LATE LAST YEAR, India's top-ranked singles player Sumit Nagal had highlighted the financial uncertainty of many journeymen professional tennis players ranked outside the top 100. "If I look at my bank balance, I have what I had at the beginning of the year. It is 900 Euros (about ₹80,000)," he had said.

On Tuesday, after becoming the first Indian since Ramesh Krishnan in 1989 to beat a seeded player in the singles main draw of a Grand Slam, Nagal was looking at a windfall.

Going ahead, even if he loses his next match, after beating 27th seed Kazakh Alexander Bublik 6-4, 6-2, 7-6 (5) in the first round of the 2024 Australian Open, the 26-year-old will walk away with Aus$ 180,000 (about ₹98 lakh).

For Nagal, it was an emotional moment. "Obviously, I'm not crying right now, but of course, at the same time it hasn't completely sunk in yet," he said after his upset win. "Last year was probably one of my best years... but I still had 900 Euros. I wasn't able to get into tournaments, relying on wild cards to finish as World No. 130 again. What I have done, is not an incredible record-breaking thing, (but) from where I started, I was pretty proud of myself to be able to give myself another chance to be here, to qualify and now to play the second round. It's a good feeling."

Nagal, a solid baseliner who builds his game around a big forehand and his athleticism and footspeed, was up against a streaky opponent.

Despite some nervous moments, he kept his cool, especially at the finish. He stayed focused through it all, winning without dropping a set, just as he did in all three rounds of qualifying.

Sumit Nagal beat Kazakhstan's Alexander Bublik (27th seed) in first round of Australian Open in Melbourne Tuesday

Nagal took the lead and stayed ahead in a tense first set with many trades of serve, and asserted his position in the second, where he began dominating with his forehand and rode all of Bublik's mistakes, which included 17 unforced errors.

After fashioning a lead in the third, Nagal retreated into himself with the finish line in sight, failing to convert while serving for the match, but, aided by Bublik's two double faults in the tiebreaker, got over the line.

The son of a primary school teacher in Jhajjar, Haryana, Nagal did not enjoy the kind of financial stability that has been required of Indians attempting to succeed in a sport where there is little institutional support from a national federation or established setup.

Those who have had any success before Nagal have done so entirely on their own. Nagal's modest prize money earnings playing on the Challenger tour — one rung below ATP — and his salary as an Indian Oil employee could only do so much to sustain him, making his most recent result a huge shot in the arm for both his stability and confidence.

This, however, is not uncharted territory for Nagal. He reached the second round of the 2020 US Open when he bowed out to eventual champion Dominic Thiem.

A year earlier, he had taken a set off Roger Federer in the opening round in New York.

But a string of injuries derailed his last few years, and he had to grind his way back to the ranking of World No. 122 after spending considerable time outside of the top 500. He won two titles in four Challenger finals in 2023.

For Indian tennis as well, this represents a boost during a particularly barren run. Eleven Majors and three years have gone by since India had any representation in the singles main draw at all. Before Nagal's two appearances in the last four years in the second round, the last player to do so was his friend and mentor Somdev Devvarman in 2013.

Nagal came into the match the hard way, winning three matches in qualifying. There was potentially a route to get in with a wildcard reserved for players from the Asia-Pacific region, as he had done in Australia in 2021. But the All India Tennis Association (AITA) refused to nominate him after his standoff with the federation over his refusal to play India's Davis Cup World Group 1 playoff tie in Pakistan next month.

Given the year he has had, coming back from injuries and facing uncertainty, this would be the biggest victory of Nagal's career.

He has earned himself a winnable second round against either World No. 140 Juncheng Shang, following which there is a potential third round against World No. 2 Carlos Alcaraz.

In 1989, moments after watching Krishnan leap into the air with both arms aloft, the then defending champion of Australian Open and World No.1 Mats Wilander would say, "Against some players you could get away with it, but against Ramesh, you won't get away with it playing short."

Thirty-five years later, a Kazakh can say the same about another Indian.

Property prices grow 19% annually in Oct-Dec 2023

PROPERTY PRICES ROSE 19% annually during the October-December period, according to a report by real estate platform Magicbricks.

Property prices across 13 prime cities increased 18.8% year-on-year and 3.97% quarter-on-quarter during October-December 2023, the report released on Tuesday said.

Gurugram (32.1%), Greater Noida (31%), Noida (26.1%), and Hyderabad (15.8%) exhibited the highest appreciation during this period, it added.

Based on the data of over 20 million customers within the primary (first-time sale) and secondary (resale) residential real estate market on the Magicbricks platform, the report indicated that while demand (searches) increased 2%, it decreased 16.9%, primarily due to rising property prices.
