IN TRIBUTE | Surgeon-academic Dr Snehlata Deshmukh passes away at 85; she was first woman dean of Lokmanya Tilak Hospital

MU's ex-VC leaves a blazing legacy

Musab Qazi
MUMBAI

Dr Snehlata Deshmukh, the first woman dean of Lokmanya Tilak Hospital, Sion, and one of the two women to have served as vice chancellor (VC) at the University of Mumbai (MU), passed away on Monday. She was 85 years old. She is survived by a son and a daughter and four grandchildren.

Known for her work in prenatal and neonatal care, she was instrumental in setting up paediatric surgery departments at KEM Hospital and Sion Hospital. She is also recognised for her literary contributions, especially books on pregnancy that seek to blend 'garbh sanskar' - the ancient beliefs and practices pertaining to prenatal care - with modern medical science.

Born in 1938, Deshmukh was educated at Dadar's Indian Education Society's School and Ruia College, followed by MBBS from Seth GS Medical College attached to KEM Hospital and MS from MU. Her father, Dr Shrikrishna Jogalekar, was also a renowned medical practitioner and administrator, having served as the dean of both KEM and Sion hospitals.

While at KEM Hospital in 1967, Deshmukh, along with late Dr Ramniklal Gandhi, helped establish its paediatric surgery department. Until then, the children admitted at hospital were operated in the general surgery department. After becoming dean at Sion Hospital in 1990, she set up this department there as well.

Under her leadership, the hospital also started a milk bank for the mothers who were unable to breastfeed their newborns. She also spearheaded a drive to provide folic acid supplements to pregnant women in Dharavi slums to reduce instances of spinal defects among infants

HER CONTRIBUTIONS

- One of the two women to have served as MU VC
- Set up paediatric surgery departments at KEM and Sion hospitals
- Pathbreaking books on pregnancy
- Milk bank at Sion Hospital
- Spearheaded a drive to provide folic acid supplements to pregnant women in Dharavi slums
- Introduced BMS at MU

in the area. She is also credited with strengthening the hospital's Staff and Research Society.

It was during Deshmukh's tenure as VC from 1995 to 2000 that MU began introducing specialised programmes such as Bachelor of Management Studies (BMS) alongside the traditional BA, BCom and BSc courses. Many of these courses have since overtaken the traditional programmes in popularity. She also instituted inclusion of the names of mothers of students on graduation certificates.

Deshmukh later joined the Parle Tilak Vidyalyaya Association (PTVA), a city-based education organisation, as a director. She was also a prolific writer, having authored several books and articles in periodicals on diverse topics. She also had a reputation as an eloquent and captivating orator.

Her students and colleagues fondly remember her as a soft-spoken mother figure, who was also a strict disciplinarian. "She had a personal connection with everyone from ministers to common people," said Dr Sanjay Oak, a city-based paediatric surgeon, who was first taught by Deshmukh and later became her teaching colleague.

Former MU VC Rajan Velurkar remembers Deshmukh for her love of books. "Whenever I visited her there would be a new book on her desk. Our interactions always revolved around the books we read," he said.

Swapna Trailokya, who worked with PTVA and Deshmukh for several years, said that she regularly received encouragement and compliments from Deshmukh. Sanjay Deshmukh, another ex-MU VC, said that her legacy will continue to inspire future generations of medical professionals and educators. "Dr Deshmukh's unwavering commitment to improving healthcare and her innovative approach to medical education and administration have set a high standard for all who follow in her footsteps," he said.

Acquitted in Gulshan case, man held with drugs

NK Gupta
THANE

The Mumbra police have arrested a 48-year-old man for possessing 60gm of narcotic substance mephedrone worth Rs1 lakh. He has been identified as Imtiyaz Dawood Marchant, who was a co-accused in the Gulshan Kumar murder case and was subsequently acquitted.

A prime accused in Kumar's murder, Abdul Rauf Merchant, is Imtiyaz's brother. The police said Imtiyaz is also a co-accused in the Jainuddin Chaugule murder case in 2000. In that case, he was released on bail and trial is yet to begin.

Raju Pachore, an investigation officer at Mumbra police station, said, "Based on a tip-off that a man would come to Mumbra to sell drugs, we formed a team and laid a trap to arrest Imtiyaz." Senior police inspector Anil Shinde said the drive has been initiated to eliminate drug peddlers in the area and that it has been a success to a large extent. He said, "A total of 390 cases of consuming drugs and 15 cases of possession were registered in this drive."

Three unidentified robbers broke into a jewellery shop on Sunday night and made away with 236gm of gold ornaments worth Rs11.80 lakh. The trio, wearing raincoats and helmets, barged into Ekram Heritage at sector 35 in Kharghar at around 10 pm brandishing a revolver. They made the staff take out the ornaments at gunpoint and fled on a two-wheeler within minutes.

The CCTV footage of the crime went viral on Monday morning. A parallel investigation is also being conducted by the crime branch and the footage is being analysed for leads. "We are trying to trace the route of the accused by following the CCTV trail," a police officer from the crime branch said.

The shop owner, Radheshyam Gujar, was also present at the time of the incident. The CCTV footage shows that a shop attendant tried to raise an alarm but was hit by the accused. Gujar has claimed that bangles, necklaces and other gold ornaments were robbed.

Being a Sunday, there was a significant crowd on the road but no customers inside the shop. Realising that the crowd could try to stop them, they fired a round but luckily no one was injured. They did not use the firearm inside the shop.

A police officer said, "They opened fire in the air to scare the shoppers to make sure none of them tried to stop them or follow them. The crowd had by then started shouting and screaming and there was chaos but nobody was injured. The two-wheeler used is suspected to be a scooty and there was no number plate on it."

The Kharghar police have registered a case on the complaint of Gujar under sections 311 and 109 of the Bharatiya Nayaya Sanhita and relevant sections of the Arms Act. "We have registered a case against three unknown people and are further investigating the matter. Teams have been formed to trace the accused," Deputy Commissioner of Police (Zone II) Vivek Pansare said.

Chief Minister Eknath Shinde called a meeting with senior citizen groups on Monday to know the issues faced by them. The CM also asked the state's chief secretary to make provisions to implement the State Policy of Senior Citizens 2018.

Various senior citizens groups had prepared a manifesto of their demands prior to the Lok Sabha elections. However, they had expressed strong resentment against the recent Union budget alleging that it has missed out on providing any substantial help to them.

The meeting was held with 11 senior citizen groups and 19 government departments. Shinde assured the groups of special provisions to be undertaken by the state government. He also promised a special section in government hospitals, old age homes, adult vaccination, establishment of elder self-help groups, a special help desk at police stations and creating a Commissionerate for grievances.

The CM also said that the safety of the elderly is priority and would be looked into.

₹12.01 cr-scam in MMRCL tree scheme

Bhalchandra Chorghade
MUMBAI

The Mumbai Metro Rail Corporation Ltd (MMRCL) claims to have spent Rs12.01 crore on tree plantation along the route of Metro 3 (Aqua Line; Colaba-Bandra-Seeppz) but has failed to provide the details of actual trees planted. This was revealed in a reply to the Right to Information (RTI) application filed by the Founder of Watchdog Foundation, Godfrey Pimenta, on June 26.

In its reply to the RTI application, MMRCL said that it awarded tenders for supply, delivery, plantation and maintenance (for three years) of advanced nursery growing trees. While the Tree Package 19 (Dharavi to SEEPZ) totalling 10 metro stations is worth nearly Rs3.39 crore, the Tree Package 20 (Mumbai Central to Shitaladevi; eight metro stations) is close to Rs3.37 crore. Similarly, the Tree Package 21 (Cuffe Parade to Grant Road) totalling six metro stations is around Rs4.94 crore.

Pimenta said they also enquired about the number of trees planted till June 23, and the MMRCL said the location-wise information is attached as an annexure, but it didn't attach it and thereby failed to give a proper reply.

According to MMRCL, it planted 23,523 new trees and the cost of planting each tree is Rs5,108. "However, the maximum cost reportedly should not be more than Rs200 per tree, inclusive of earth moving and soil preparation. The BMC has fixed Rs800 per tree as the price for this activity, said Pimenta. He has demanded that MMRCL comes clean on the numbers as it is a major criteria while getting environmental approvals for any infrastructure project.

MMRCL's Claim

- It planted 23,523 new trees
- Each costing ₹5,108
- Cost Limit Per Tree ₹200
- BMC's Limit ₹800

"Even under green initiatives being implemented by MMRCL on its website, there is no mention of the planting of trees, which is an act of deceiving people who are concerned about sustainable practices being followed while executing any project," Pimenta said.

MMRCL had earlier said that the project will affect 5,012 trees, of which 1,331 will be cut and the remaining 3,681 will be re-planted in other parts of the city. As per the terms of the contracts awarded to various consortia, they are in-charge of transplanting affected trees and planting new ones to make up for those axed.

MMRCL also announced in February, 2017 that it would donate 25,000 saplings to housing societies, hospitals, and schools located along the metro line.
