Dear Sir,

We appreciate your prompt action in checking information from the company on the price movement of the share and information which is natural to the business of the company.

Nature of our business to make that the Company submits the tenders to various parties to bag and execute orders for Infrastructures projects with Public and Private parties. When the projects are signed they become bidding on the party. Unless we receive any concrete information in order bagging, it is pre-mature, to disclose to stock exchanges, as it may be misleading in absence of any such information.

Further company is committed to give firsthand information, committed to transparency as mentioned in listing agreement in letter & spirit.

We don't have any concrete information in Metro III bagging, since the tenders are in the process of opening and still going on at the office Mumbai Metro Rail Coproration Limited at Bandra (E), Mumbai , once we receive the concrete information/confirmation from the official of the Mumbai Metro Rail Corporation, immediately we will disclose to the exchanges and company cannot comment on market rumours.
