Immediate release

Commitment to Food Safety and Quality Assurance a key priority

Jubilant FoodWorks, India's largest food service Company, has issued a statement pertaining to speculation regarding its food safety standards.

The Company reiterates that its food safety and quality assurance measures stand at the forefront of food safety protocols and standards within the food service industry. Quality control remains a top and absolute priority. The Company dedicates substantial resources to ensure that it implements and adheres to best practices across all its levels of business functions, right from supply-chain to restaurant operations.

Commenting on this, Company Spokesperson, Jubilant FoodWorks Limited, said, "At Jubilant FoodWorks Limited, we believe in, and adhere to, the highest quality standards and Indian food laws. We follow all processes to maintain the highest level of food safety across all our restaurants. We only use additives/ingredients duly approved under the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India Act (FSSAI) in all our preparations (across all our restaurants). The flour used by us is not treated with Potassium Bromate / Potassium Iodate. We do undertake certificate of analysis/undertaking from all our flour suppliers on no usage of Potassium Bromate/Potassium Iodate in our flour supplies. We also carry out regular assessments of the flour to ensure compliance in this regard."
