PRESS RELEASE

Navi Mumbai, Maharashtra, September 7, 2026

Jyoti Global Plast Limited Secures Orders Worth ₹8.63 Crore from Paras Defence and Space Technologies Limited, Strengthening its Defence and Aerospace Portfolio

Orders reinforce the Company's growing precision-engineering capability for the defence and aerospace sector.

Navi Mumbai, Maharashtra, September 7, 2026: Jyoti Global Plast Limited (NSE: JYOTIGLOBL), an ISO 9001:2015 certified manufacturer of plastic and FRP (Fibre-Reinforced Polymer) moulded products with a growing precision-components business for the defence & aerospace sector, today announced that it has received purchase orders from Paras Defence and Space Technologies Limited for the supply of precision components used in advanced imaging and sensor systems, aggregating to ₹8,62,66,015/- (approx. ₹8.63 crore).

These orders add to the Company's expanding order book in its defence and aerospace vertical, which the Company has been building alongside its existing FMCG, pharmaceutical, automotive and childcare businesses.

Key Highlights

Customer	Paras Defence and Space Technologies Limited
Order Value	₹8,62,66,015/- (approx. ₹8.63 crore)
Nature of Supply	Precision components for defence & aerospace imaging and sensor applications
Business Vertical	Defence & Aerospace

These orders are expected to contribute to the Company's revenue and further diversify its customer base within the defence and aerospace ecosystem, consistent with the Company's stated strategy of scaling this vertical.

Commenting on the development, Mr. Deven Bhawanji Shah, Whole-Time Director & Chief Executive Officer of Jyoti Global Plast Limited, said:

“These orders are an important validation of our capabilities in precision engineering for the defence and aerospace sector. They strengthen our order book in this vertical and reflect the trust our customers place in our engineering and manufacturing quality. We remain committed to scaling this business as part of our broader growth strategy.”

This development is part of the Company's continuing effort to diversify and strengthen its defence and aerospace vertical alongside its other business segments.
