PRESS RELEASE

JET AIRWAYS AWARDED
"AIRLINE WITH BEST BUSINESS CLASS SERVICE IN THE WORLD"
AT BUSINESS TRAVELLER AWARDS 2010

Mumbai, December 15, 2010: Jet Airways, India's premier international airline, was declared the 'AIRLINE WITH BEST BUSINESS CLASS SERVICE IN THE WORLD' at the Business Traveller Awards 2010 in Los Angeles.

The 'Best in Business Travel' Awards was presented at a glittering ceremony in Los Angeles, in front of several luminaries from the travel and trade industry. Renowned for the warmth and hospitality of its acclaimed in-flight service, a reflection of the high standards of the airline's rigorous in-flight training procedures, Jet Airways emerged victorious from amongst a field comprising several of the world's leading airlines.

The airline offers its Premiere (Business Class) guests a world-class in-flight product, including unique, herringbone-configured 180 degree-flat seats, superb in-flight entertainment, fine wines and an overwhelming selection of Indian and international cuisine.

These Awards, based on an exhaustive readers response study conducted across cities, seek to recognize and honour the best in business travel, based on an objective study conducted by Business Traveller Magazine.

Mr Sudheer Raghavan, Chief Commercial Officer, Jet Airways, said: "The Business Traveller Awards 2010 are widely respected across the tourism and trade industry and we are delighted to receive this honour. At Jet Airways, we are committed to offering our guests the very best travel experience in the skies, and awards such as these stand testimony to the quality of our services and encourage us to further raise the bar in customer service excellence."

Business Traveler, with a circulation 150,000, is the No. 1 source for business travelers. Geared towards high-income executives who spend a great deal on domestic and international travel, each issue brings the world of the traveling executives into focus, with guides to cities and doing business around the world, the latest travel news, and the best deals for airfare, hotels and more.
