Chennai, Tamil Nadu:

Karur Vysya Bank (KVB), one of India's oldest and most trusted private sector banks, today inaugurated its 900th branch at Tondiarpet, Chennai. The branch was inaugurated by Mr. Ramesh Babu, Managing Director & CEO of Karur Vysya Bank, marking a significant milestone in the Bank's journey of growth and customer-centric banking.

The launch of the 900th branch underscores Karur Vysya Bank's continued commitment to expanding its physical footprint while remaining deeply rooted in the communities it serves. Tondiarpet, a vital and evolving part of North Chennai, is known for its strong residential base and vibrant commercial and industrial activity, including manufacturing, trade, logistics, and fishing communities. The new branch will offer a comprehensive range of banking services, including savings and current accounts, deposits, and loans. Customers will have access to tailored financial solutions across retail, MSME, and institutional banking, enabling seamless and efficient banking under one roof.

Speaking at the inauguration, Mr. Ramesh Babu, Managing Director & CEO, said that the milestone reflects Karur Vysya Bank's philosophy of balancing strong values and traditions with progress. "For over a century, Karur Vysya Bank has grown alongside generations of customers by building relationships founded on trust. Even as we embrace technology and modern banking solutions, our focus remains on being accessible, inclusive, and personally connected to the communities we serve," he said.

He added that the last five years have marked a phase of steady and purposeful growth for the Bank, supported by a stronger financial foundation, an expanded branch and digital footprint, and a continued emphasis on service excellence. "Our progress has been driven by the trust of our customers, which remains our greatest strength," he noted.

The new KVB Tondiarpet branch is designed to combine the convenience of digital banking with personalised, face-to-face service. It aims to support local businesses, entrepreneurs, and families by being a trusted financial partner in their everyday lives. The branch is located at Karur Vysya Bank, Ground Floor, No 729/2 Tiruvottiyur High Road, New Washermanpet, Chennai, 600081.
