Palm Livelihood for Empowerment among Rural & Marginalized Communities

The project strengthened livelihoods and resilience among palm-based communities. Vocational training for 20 women artisans, MSME registration for 51 participants, and safety training and tool distribution for 51 Palmyrah climbers, along with strengthened government linkages for livelihood opportunities. 25 women completed MSME registration supporting business formalisation and market access; and 30 palm climbers enrolled under PMSBY, strengthening financial protection. These milestones advance entrepreneurship, women's economic empowerment, financial inclusion and social protection towards sustainable livelihoods.

Improved access to Education Facilities through Solar Installation in Govt. Schools, Chengalpattu & Kanchipuram:

Habitat for Humanity India's Solar SME assessed 21 project schools, conducted O&M orientation for school staff, and developed Do's & Don'ts boards in English and Tamil, reviewed by the donor for school display reinforcing safe, responsible and sustainable use of solar systems.

Improving Lives of Marginal Communities through Sustainable Livelihoods, Parvathipuram, Andhra Pradesh.

A newly constructed check dam with 75,000 Cu.M storage capacity has empowered 100+ tribal farming families to begin paddy transplantation across 136 acres in D. Muluga Village, Parvathipuram Manyam District, Andhra Pradesh. Complementing this, 2 farm ponds (3,800 Cu.M capacity each) covering 21 acres have benefited 11 farm families directly with 2 farmers generously sharing their water to support 9 others, ensuring uninterrupted cultivation for all.

Development of Sponge Park at Tambaram

The Sponge Park at Mullai Nagar, Tambaram, attracts around 300 visitors daily and acts as a water absorption space with an approximate capacity of 3–6 lakh litres during major storm events, supporting groundwater recharge and urban flood resilience.

Integrating Skill Building and Entrepreneurship Development

50 women from vulnerable backgrounds have begun their journey towards financial independence through Basic Tailoring Training and a Women-led Enterprise Unit in Ramanathapuram, promoting sustainable livelihoods and entrepreneurship.

Financial Literacy Programme Empowering Through Financial Literacy

Under CSR, the financial literacy program reached 11,835 beneficiaries in Karnataka and 13,018 in Tamil Nadu.
