SHG women allegedly...

DEPOSITED MONEY FOR YEARS

Eight women from Anitha Rampur village alleged they deposited Rs 150 per month for five years under an insurance-linked scheme run through the group's Bargi branch. They claimed they also paid additional charges while availing loans.

Despite repaying loans and depositing nearly Rs 15,000 each, they alleged the society neither returned their money nor provided satisfactory explanations.

LOAN TAKEN, BUT MONEY NEVER RECEIVED

Blesdwati, who submitted a complaint at Mahajuli police station, alleged a hold was placed on her bank account despite her never receiving any loan benefit. She said she learned about the alleged loan only after related documents appeared on her mobile phone.

HC upholds Telegram...

The Centre had also ordered the disabling of the app's message-editing feature till June 30, a measure that also received the Court's approval. Justice Tejas Karia, pronouncing the order, expressed satisfaction with the procedure followed under Section 69A of the Information Technology Act to restrict access to the platform, given the emergency nature of the issue.

HC seeks data on...

The petition sought the constitution of a committee to inspect nursing colleges and ensure uniformity and quality in health education, particularly nursing courses. The petition primarily focuses on the nature and manner of recognition, affiliation and no-objection certificates issued by the respondents before granting recognition to nursing colleges.

Israel, Hezbollah...

not tolerate attacks on its soldiers or its territory, and will exact a 'very heavy price' from Hezbollah for killing four soldiers in Lebanon on Thursday. 'I send heartfelt condolences to the families of the Commander of the Armored Corps Gedalia Ben-Simon, and of three heroic fighters whose names have not yet been cleared for publication, may God avenge their blood. I also wish a speedy recovery to the wounded in the exchanges of fire yesterday,' Netanyahu said, according to a statement posted by the Office of the Israeli Prime Minister on X.

Depressed aspirant...

"She had been unusually quiet since Thursday morning, refusing to eat or speak to anyone," her father said. Her father had arrived in Indore just five days prior for a training programme, tried questioning her about her anxiety, but she remained silent.

ATTIMPTED SUICIDE EARLIER, TOO: Family members said that Avantika had attempted suicide once before by consuming phenyl. On the day of the incident, she had visited her cousin and repeatedly asked to go to Tinchha Falls, but he dropped her off at home around 8:00 pm.

Guv accepts resignation...

Jain by going on an indefinite strike, accusing him of being unable to run the varsity administration in a proper manner, which a chairman denied the image of the students' student wing claimed that results for several post-graduate courses, including the MBA, remained undeclared for months, while re-evaluation results had been pending for more than one year.

The protesters also held the varsity responsible for failing to conduct the PhD entrance examination for an extended period. They alleged that his negligence disrupted the admission process of nursing colleges and raised questions over the tendering process for various university works.

SC flags 'nexus'...

This is not a single case. I am saying it is a tip of the iceberg," Upadhyay said, adding that the petitioners were seeking a probe into the nexus between banks, AECs and borrowers. The bench also observed that there was a dire need to look into the functioning of the AECs.

Right to walk on safe...

The duty bearers are the urban development authorities, municipal corporations, municipalities and other necessary, pedestrian infrastructure," the Bench said. Recognising the lack of legal protection for pedestrians, the Court called for a statutory framework to safeguard the right to walk. It directed the Registry to send a copy of the judgment to the Ministries of Housing and Urban Affairs, Rural Development, and Road Transport and Highways for consideration of a legal framework.

Yadav, Patwari lock...

Perhaps the youngster has yet to understand that, Yadav said, adding that he (Patwari) goes behind them and speaks at random, but as soon as he comes across Madhu Bhaiyaa, he remembers Bhairoji (Lord Shiv). The discord between Yadav and Patwari began after the latter called the chief minister Abhinandan Lal. Replying to Patwari's sarcastic remark, Yadav called him 'dau kaudi' (a worthless person). Yadav also called Patwari a 'Tapori' (a hoodlum) and 'Dapor Shankh' (a windbag), and he spoke against Patwari at several meetings. Patwari dashed off to Chandigarh, posting the remarks made by him, saying he raised public issues. The chief minister may hurl abuses at him, but he will not stop asking questions, Patwari said. Disagreement between the government and the opposition is part of a democratic system, but these two leaders are making personal attacks against each other. Now, the situation has come to such a pass that both leaders are not being judged on an inch.

MONSOON FURY | Bridge collapses in Darjeeling; Kolkata waterlogged
Landslides, traffic: Rains wreak havoc in Bengal

PTI KOLKATA

Heavy overnight monsoon rains that continued till Friday afternoon disrupted life in large parts of north Bengal and left several areas of Kolkata and adjoining south Bengal districts inundated, triggering traffic snarls across key roads.

Torrential rainfall in neighbouring Bhutan and Sikkim also caused rivers in north Bengal, including the Teesta and Balason, a major tributary of the Mahananda, to flow close to danger levels, officials said.

Multiple landslides were reported from areas across the Darjeeling hills, cutting off connectivity between the north Bengal town of Siliguri and various parts of the line through the NH 110 arterial road.

The India Meteorological Department (IMD) issued a red alert for heavy to very heavy rainfall, with extremely heavy showers likely in parts of Jalpaiguri and Alipurdur districts over the next few days.

Traffic barricades placed near the damaged Dudhija bridge after heavy rain washed away a section of the bridge at Dudhija on the outskirts of Siliguri, West Bengal

Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Friday said his ministry is "actively engaged" with the Supreme Court to work out a new system for reducing the pendency of cases in the apex court and high courts, and ensure timely justice for people.

Speaking at the inauguration of the All India Fineprint Conference-2026 organised by the National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB) here, Shah stressed that police and forensic experts should accurately collect evidence from the crime scene and ensure that these are "not contaminated" to secure a fast and correct conviction.

He also spoke about the three new criminal laws introduced by the Modi government to ensure timely justice. "We identified the loopholes (in the old criminal laws) and 80 per cent of the law-based ones have been addressed," he said.

"The Union home ministry is actively engaged with the Supreme Court for creating a new system to address the voluminous delays in the high courts and the Supreme Court," Shah said.

K'taka missing case: Woman, son traced to Kerala Madrassa

MADIKERI: A missing persons case involving a woman and her nine-year-old son from Kushalnagar in Madikeri district has taken a controversial turn after the duo were traced to a madrasa in Kerala's Malappuram district, leading to the arrest of two persons by the Karnataka police.

The case has sparked allegations from several Hindu organisations, which claimed that the incident is linked to an alleged "love jihad" network. They demanded a thorough investigation and stringent action against those involved, alleging that similar networks are active in the Ponnani and Manjeri regions of Malappuram district.

According to police sources, the woman, identified as Saritha, had been working at a textile shop in Kushalnagar. She reportedly went missing along with her son, prompting concern among family members.

Karnataka BJP forms 3-member panel to probe cross-voting by party

President and former minister N. Mahesh, and MLA Mahesh Tingshankari. During the Legislative Council elections held on June 18, reports emerged that some BJP MLAs have indulged in cross-voting. In this background, the committee has been directed to ascertain the facts, verify the authenticity of the allegations and submit a detailed report by June 25. Vijayendra said.

The BJP leadership has taken the issue seriously following reports that cross-voting by legislators from the BJP-JD(S) alliance may have contributed to the victory of all five Congress candidates in the fray for the Karnataka Legislative Council. The BJP secured two seats, but its NDA partner, the JD(S), lost as per the much-awaited results announced on Thursday. The announcement was made by BJP State President, B.V. Vijayendra, who said the committee has been tasked with conducting a comprehensive enquiry into the alleged cross-voting and submitting its report by June 25.

The panel comprises former BJP National General Secretary and MLC C.T. Ravi. State Vice-

Ahead of NEET-UG retest, Cong accuses BJP of turning edu into biz

Gaurav Vivek Bhatnagar NEW DELHI

Ahead of the NEET-UG re-examination scheduled for June 21, the Congress on Friday launched a sharp attack on the BJP-led Centre accusing it of eroding public trust in the education system by turning it into a "business". The party also called for the creation of an independent institution to conduct transparent examinations and reiterated its demand for a ban on the National Testing Agency (NTA).

BSP CHIEF MAYAWATI DENIES MONEY-FOR-TICKET CHARGE Says BSP candidates not chosen through cash

Biswajeet Banerjee LUCKNOW

Bahujan Samaj Party chief Mayawati on Friday strongly denied allegations that the BSP collects money from aspirants in return for election tickets, calling the claims a malicious campaign by political opponents and a section of the media to defame the party ahead of the 2027 Uttar Pradesh Assembly elections. In a statement posted on social media, Mayawati asserted that candidate selection in the BSP is not based on money but is carried out through a transparent and serious process. She said the party runs on the support and contributions of its BSP workers and supporters and not on funds from wealthy industrialists or corporate houses. The former Uttar Pradesh chief minister alleged that rival parties were deliberately spreading falsehoods to weaken the BSP's expanding organisation and support base as the party intensifies preparations for Mission 2027. She said forces driven by caste and capital were uncomfortable with the BSP's growing strength and were trying to create confusion over the party's functioning. Mayawati said state BSP president Vishwanath Pal and party workers across Uttar Pradesh were working to strengthen the organisation and urged cadres not to be misled by rumours or what she described as sponsored propaganda.
