For 2009 elections, Congress named NREGA after Gandhi, says Chouhan

Vikas Pathak
New Delhi, December 18

THE LOK Sabha Thursday passed the Viksit Bharat-Guarantee for Rozgar and Ajeevika Mission (Gramin) Bill, 2025 (VB-G RAM G), which seeks to repeal the MGNREGA, on the penultimate day of the Winter Session by a voice vote, amid uproar and strong protest from the Opposition who tore papers in the well of the House.

Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla adjourned the House for the day after the Bill was cleared.

The Bill seeks to increase the number of days of guaranteed employment from 100 to 125 in a financial year, but changes the funding pattern. Under MGNREGA, the Centre provided the entire funding for wages and three-fourth of material costs and states provided one-third of material, administrative costs, unemployment allowance and compensation. Under the new Bill, the Centre will provide 60% of all costs and states 40%. Under the new Bill, the Centre will decide state-wise normative allocation each financial year, as per PRS Legislative Research, and states will bear any excessive expenditure above the normative allocation.

The introduction of the Bill Tuesday had seen protests by the Opposition who demanded that the proposed legislation be withdrawn. On Wednesday, discussion in Lok Sabha on the Bill stretched for eight hours till 1.30 am, and Union Rural Development Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan replied to the debate Thursday as Opposition members shouted slogans and chanted MGNREGA.

Chouhan said that he was "bowing before the feet of Mahatma Gandhi" and said the BJP was following the teachings of the Father of the Nation.

"NREGA was first not named after Mahatma Gandhi. When the 2009 elections came, they (Congress) remembered Babu and added his name. But if someone implemented it properly, it was PM Narendra Modi," Chouhan said. "They do drama. The Modi government actually works," he said after the Opposition had hit out at the scheme for dropping Mahatma Gandhi's name from the scheme.

Drawing a comparison, Chouhan said expenditure on MGNREGA was about Rs

2,13,220 crore under the UPA government which was increased to Rs 8,53,810 crore under the Modi government.

The Congress, he alleged, had reduced the expenditure on MGNREGA, and did not give adequate employment.

"There were many faults with MGNREGA. We have brought a new Bill to replace it," he said.
