Prices of edible oils
easing: GovtPRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, June 3

THE GOVERNMENT ON Thursday said prices of cooking oils, which rose abnormally in the last one year, have started to soften due to fall in global rates and lower domestic demand.

Addressing a virtual press conference, Union food secretary Sudhanshu Pandey said there is a declining trend in edible oil prices, according to the futures market rates till December.

Replying to a query whether the government was considering reduction in import duty of edible oils, Pandey said: "Prices are softening every week. There is a declining trend. Even the futures market prices are showing declining trend."

He said the demand for cooking oils has come down by 15-20% because of the pandemic.

An inter-ministerial committee reviews prices of essential items every week, he added.
