Western Railway Launches Drive to End Plastic Pollution Ahead of World Environment Day

MUMBAI, Shrikant Khuperkar :

Over 7,800 staff and citizens participate in rallies, cleanliness drives, and awareness campaigns across divisions As part of its commitment to environmental sustainability, Western Railway is observing a special campaign leading up to World Environment Day on 5th June, with the central theme "Ending Plastic Pollution." The campaign, which began on 22nd May, is being conducted across all divisions and workshops of Western Railway and will continue until 5th June 2025.According to a press release issued by ShriVineetAbhishek, Chief Public Relations Officer, Western Railway, a special Launch and Awareness Campaign was conducted from 22nd to 24th May, featuring oath-taking ceremonies, rallies, and street plays (nukkadnataks). More than 7,800 railway staff and members of the public enthusiastically took part, pledging to fight plastic pollution and promote responsible environmental practices.The campaign included plastic waste assessment and monitoring drives, carried out with the active involvement of railway personnel and local communities. Waste segregation bins were placed at key locations, and collected plastic waste was handed over to recyclers or municipal authorities.To extend its outreach digitally, WR launched a social media campaign, along with informative displays on TV screens at stations, offices, workshops, and inside EMU coaches. Posters, pamphlets, and digital creatives highlighting the ban on Single Use Plastics (SUP) and encouraging the use of eco-friendly alternatives were widely displayed.Workshops on plastic reduction, recycling, and waste management were held, offering practical insights into minimizing plastic use in day-to-day operations. Under the initiative titled "Carry Your Own Water Bottle," both passengers and staff were urged to use reusable bottles instead of disposable ones.From 25th to 27th May, a large-scale Cleanliness Drive was observed. Platforms, offices, and railway colonies saw active cleaning efforts, supported by staff, NGOs, and local communities. Biodegradable cutlery was introduced in select areas to promote sustainable alternatives, while staff sensitization programmes were held to emphasize waste segregation and eco-conscious practices.Pamphlets outlining the harmful effects of plastic pollution and the benefits of sustainable choices were distributed to railway staff and colony residents.Through this extensive campaign, Western Railway continues to reinforce its message of environmental stewardship and a plastic-free future, setting a benchmark for green initiatives in the transport sector.
