Rickelton, Mulder hit centuries as SA set Australia 288 for victory

Ryan Rickelton. AP
Associated Press
Cape Town, October 30

CENTURIES BY Ryan Rickelton and Wiaan Mulder lifted South Africa back into series contention against Australia on a day of batting domination in the deciding Newlands cricket test on Friday. South Africa began day four only 40 runs ahead and four wickets down. But a compelling fightback led by wicketkeeper Rickelton, 101 off 219 balls, and allrounder Mulder, 115 off 221 balls, earned them a lead of 287. Mulder's dismissal in the day's last over ended South Africa's second innings at 387, setting Australia the entire fifth day to score 288 to win the three-test series which is tied at 1-1. Australia has the record at Newlands for the highest successful fourth innings chase: 331 in 2002. But world champion South Africa has the advantage of an increasingly turning last-day pitch and an attack featuring rested and in-form off-spinner Simon Harmer. South Africa scored 329 in its first innings and Australia replied with 429, taking a 100-run lead. The host ended day three at 140-4 and scored 247-6 through three sessions, with Rickelton and Mulder batting together for nearly 54 overs, scoring 154 runs for the sixth wicket. They frustrated Australia into trying eight bowlers during the day with Matthew Breetzke, who was the only batter to be dismissed in the morning session - caught at fine leg off Pat Cummins, who ended a wicket drought of more than 62 overs since the first test in Durban. South Africa crawled to 202-5 at lunch but Rickelton and Mulder then batted out the second session, scoring 92 runs. Rickelton reached 50 off 105 balls while Mulder was unbeaten on 46 at tea. Their 100-run stand came off 193 balls. Australia squeezed, conceding only 13 runs in 10 overs after tea. But South Africa crossed 300 and Rickelton scored his third test hundred off 219 balls. He hit 12 fours overall.

Zverev finally takes his place at the summit of men's tennis

Reuters
October 30

ALEXANDER ZVEREV, who spent years waiting for his moment to reach the summit of his sport only for a new golden generation to surge past him, has claimed the honour that long eluded him by climbing to the top of the world rankings. Zverev had long been one of the brightest talents to emerge in the 2010s, but his path, like that of his peers, was largely blocked by the enduring dominance of Roger Federer, Rafa Nadal, Novak Djokovic and Andy Murray. Despite winning two ATP Finals titles on either side of an Olympic gold medal in 2021, Zverev struggled to make a similar impact at the Grand Slams as Jannik Sinner and Carlos Alcaraz formed a new roadblock when the greats began to decline. All that changed this year, however, as Zverev, 29, capitalised on injuries to his major rivals and found another level to claim the French Open and US Open titles. "It's incredibly special," said Zverev, who will take over from Sinner on Monday and become the 30th man to top the world rankings since they were introduced in 1973.

NEW ZEALAND VS INDIA: FOURTH T20I

Phillips sheds light on holes, shows India aren't invincible

Blistering century from big hitter and stunning assault in middle overs allow NZ to get off the mark in T20I series

Sandip G
New Delhi, October 30

ONE BAD match doesn't define a series, least of all a dead-rubber game. India had already sewn up the series against New Zealand, emphasised their supremacy as the two-time defending world champions, their defiance in pulling games from their brink and their supreme knack of elevating a routine win into a victory march. But the 87-run defeat in the failed pursuit of 260, inconsequential though in the context of the series, was a tear on their cloak of invincibility. T20 nights are prone to such wild fluctuations, but the manner they unravelled would hurt them. Some passages would stick out like a lurid fever nightmare when the series ends on Sunday. Like their abject helplessness during the assault of Glenn Phillips and Michael Bracewell. Six overs that bled 113 runs, nine sixes and eight fours, was one of the most horrible passages in the country's T20 history. The chase fell apart in the first over itself, when India lost the wickets of Sanju Samson and Ishan Kishan. Jacob Duffy could laugh at the sport's inherent irony. In Wellington, his first over cost 26 runs; in Auckland he grabbed two wickets for five runs and ended the night with commendable figures of 4-0-23-4. That's T20 in a nutshell, but the philosophy-sprinkled lines wouldn't comfort India's captain Shreyas Iyer. Everything that could have gone wrong went horribly wrong. Bowling was hideous,

- Where match was lost
 - Overs 12 to 17 bled 113 runs, powering New Zealand to their highest-ever T20I total of 259 for 7
 - Jacob Duffy snared Sanju Samson and Ishan Kishan in the first over of India's chase
 - Abhishek Sharma and captain Shreyas Iyer departed in the space of six balls as the visitors were four down in the Powerplay bowling changes were awry, and field settings were as timid as reactive. Iyer can't be blamed for all, he could only marshal the men he has, but he would agree that his team lacks a genuine middle-over enforcer, the shape-shifting genius that could adapt to varying conditions and still ensure that batsmen remain quiet. The death and power-play overs are anyway bound to leak runs, but tight middle overs could ensure that the runs don't blow out of proportion. Little wonder then that Hardik Pandya and Jasprit Bumrah are missed. Those six overs reduced the chase into an impossible act, despite the high-grade explosives in India's granary. It began with Bracewell, often wasted down the order but endowed with a sweet swing of the blade, in the twelfth over. He pulled Naman Dhir's second for the first of his two overs. He struck a six and four to hammer 16 runs in the over. Dhir was an injudiciously defensive choice, a ploy to squeeze in an over or two when a new batsman was at the crease. Bracewell had arrived in the previous over, after Mayank Yadav had hustled Bevon Jacobs into a miscued pull shot. The over had cost only four runs and brought India back into the game. But the next over overturned the momentum. The refuge in Dhir betrayed India's sparse alternatives in the middle overs. Axar Patel is a diminished force; Mayank had already exhausted three of his four overs; Prince Yadav is proficient at the death and start, but still apprenticing the middle-over act. Nonetheless, Iyer dialled Prince to cruel outcome. Eighteen runs ensued. Yadav strove the fuller length, which on a ground with shorter straight boundaries was suicidal. The extra bounce was ideal for hard length, and it was no coincidence that Mayank Yadav was India's most penetrative bowler. But few others found the length comfortable. The worst was yet to be. Iyer furiously waved at Axar. He is not as precise with his length or shrewd with his designs as he once used to be. Bracewell pillaged him for 18 runs in his four balls. Dhir shelled Phillips's catch to aggravate Axar's angst. Iyer immediately summoned Arshdeep Singh, who momentarily applied the brakes with a seven-run burst. Iyer searched for faces. It fell on the still-callow Nitish Reddy. All Iyer watched were rockets fizzing along the Eden Park skyline. Four sixes flew from Phillips' pounding bat. He skimmed 90 from 42 balls, but had to wait for his hundred until the 19th over. The free-flowing Bracewell hoarded all the strike in the next over. He ensured he didn't waste it, as he crunched the tearaway for 20 runs, including three monstrous sixes. The first was a gorgeous lapped maximum over long-leg, the second was bunted over the keeper, hunkering down on his knees, and the third was glided past fine-leg in a breathless exhibition on improvised batsmanship. He perished in the next over, but the Kiwis had rocketed to 227 in 17.2 overs. In moments like these, India missed a group of bowlers with the expertise to bowl into the pitch, slip in the cutters and bowl with a scrambled seam, tricks that New Zealand's seamers employed cleverly. They also pounded out the short-length ball, angling it away from the left-hander or into the body of the right-handers to cramp them for room. Matthew Fisher bowled an excellent heavy ball to induce a spliced slash from Abhishek Sharma, India's last beacon of hope. A clutch of twenties and Tilak Varma's 35 lent some respectability to India's total. After the hosts wrapped up the game, Iyer dwelled on the need to introspect. "It is important to retrospect. We have to see how to bounce back. We have to go back to the drawing board and execute [our plan]," he said. It could be convenient to brush away the game as an aberration, but in sport there is always a cause and effect. The causes for the defeat would hurt India as much as the effect they produced. BRIEF SCORES: NZ 259/7 (Phillips 107; Mayank 3/48) beat India 172/9 (Tilak 35; Duffy 4/23) by 87 runs.

Rohit likely to return as MI captain in 2027

Devendra Pandey
Mumbai, October 30

MUMBAI INDIANS are likely to hand over captaincy to Rohit Sharma for their forthcoming IPL season 2027, The Indian Express understands. The decision doesn't come as a surprise especially after the five-time champions have gone through a complete overhaul of the support staff over the past week. It is learnt that Mumbai wanted Rohit to take over the franchise captaincy from Hardik Pandya midway through the last IPL when the franchise was struggling. As previously reported by this newspaper, the franchise had already made up its mind on moving on from Pandya as captain, but the question remained who they would turn to. Under Pandya's reign, MI had lost 10 of 14 games, finished ninth, and extended their title drought to six years. With the likes of Suryakumar Yadav and Jasprit Bumrah part of the setup for a while, there was an option to install a new face. Even Tilak Varma, who is seen as strong leadership material, was an option, should the franchise want to build for the future. Instead, the franchise has turned to Rohit, who has captained them to five IPL titles — the joint-highest alongside MS Dhoni. "Rohit initially had suggested Tilak Varma's name but the franchise has requested him to take over captaincy which he has now agreed. There were series of talks that had happened before him flying to New Zealand and Rohit's suggestions were sought during appointment of new coaches as well," a source told The Indian Express. Last week, when asked about the possibility of Rohit captaining the team for next season, an MI source said, "This is speculation. Until we don't finish trade window and retention we will not decide this. "And why do you say for one season He's still playing and will keep playing for MI till he wants to play." The source added that a call on the captain will be taken along with the coach when auction-related decisions take place. Now with retention deadline around the corner, MI have made the big decision. With Rohit set to take over as captain, all eyes are on the future of Pandya at the franchise. Since last season, the all-rounder has been linked with other franchises in a trade deal. If Pandya's trade doesn't take place, it is learnt that the player has agreed to play under Rohit's captaincy. The franchise received a lot of criticism after they decided to go with Pandya as their captain following an all-cash trade from Gujarat Titans ahead of the 2024 season. The Wankhede crowd repeatedly booed Pandya in their home fixtures. Having already announced that Kieron Pollard will take over as the head coach, replacing Mahela Jayawardene, the franchise announced the rest of the support staff on Friday. Robin Uthappa, Mitchell McClenaghan and Dhawal Kul-karni return to the franchise they had once represented in the tournament. While Uthappa was appointed as the batting coach, former New Zealand pacer McClenaghan will take over as the bowling coach. Former India fielding coach T Dilip was named as the new fielding coach, while Kul-karni was named the new development bowling coach.

Rohit Sharma. BCCI

Saina, Dravid on 2030 CWG Organising Company Board

Mihir Vasavda
Mumbai, October 30

OLYMPIC MEDALLIST Saina Nehwal and former India cricket captain and coach Rahul Dravid have been nominated as directors on the 2030 Commonwealth Games Organising Company (OC) Board, in a move that will bring two prominent sporting figures into the governance structure of the event.

The Indian Express has learnt that the union sports ministry officially nominated Nehwal and Dravid earlier this week as the two representatives from the sporting fraternity. Indian Premier League franchise Gujarat Titans owner Jinal Mehta, who is also the managing director of Torrent Power, and Ananya Birla have been nominated as the two representatives from the private sector. The organising company is likely to be chaired by Gujarat Deputy Chief Minister Harsh Sanghavi. Union sports secretary Hari Ranjan Rao and PT Usha, the Indian Olympic Association president who also heads the Commonwealth Games Association of India, are set to be the vice-chairpersons. Senior bureaucrat M Thennarasana, a principal secretary in the Gujarat government, has been appointed chief executive officer.

100th edition

Ahmedabad will host the centenary edition of the Commonwealth Games in 2030, with the programme expected to feature 17 sports. The Games will mark the return of the multi-sport event to India for the first time since the controversial 2010 edition in New Delhi. The inclusion of athletes and private-sector representatives on the organising company's board is seen as an attempt to bring greater sporting experience and corporate expertise into the planning and delivery of the event. "The idea is to get good, credible names in the governance structure," a source said.

The inclusion of athletes on the organising company's board is seen as an attempt to bring greater sporting experience into the planning of the event

"Rahul and Saina come with impeccable credibility. Their inclusion will bring athletes' voice to the planning and delivery phase." The Indian Express reached out to Dravid and Nehwal, asking if they had accepted the nomination and the scope of their role, but neither responded.

Break from the past

The 2010 Commonwealth Games did not have any athletes or private-sector representatives in its Organising Committee, which was headed by late Congress leader Suresh Kalmadi. The edition was marred by allegations of corruption and financial irregularities, with the organisation and delivery of the Games coming under intense scrutiny. Nehwal's appointment extends a significant connection with the Commonwealth Games. She was one of the biggest stars of the 2010 edition, winning the women's singles badminton gold medal in front of a home crowd at the Siri Fort

Her victory helped the hosts finish second in the overall standings, with 101 medals, their best-ever Commonwealth Games performance at the time. Nehwal became the first Indian to win the CWG women's singles badminton title.

Nehwal, who joined the BJP in 2020, is also contesting under the "Sportspersons of Outstanding Merit" (SOM) roster for the Indian Olympic Association elections on November 3. Dravid, meanwhile, has been associated with the development of India's Olympic and Paralympic athletes beyond cricket. In 2014, he joined the Board of Advisors of GoSports Foundation, a sports non-profit organisation, and launched the Rahul Dravid Athlete Mentorship Programme.

Pilot, five pilgrims killed as helicopter returning from Badrinath crashes

Initial reports suggest adverse weather conditions in Hathi Parvat area led to crash; probe to find exact circumstances

Vidheesha Kuntamalla
Dehradun, October 30

ALL SIX people on board a civilian helicopter, including the pilot, were killed after it crashed near Hathi Parvat in Uttarakhand's Chamoli district on Friday afternoon, with the state government grounding the entire fleet of the operator, Trans Bharat Aviation, as a precautionary measure.

The helicopter, carrying five passengers and a pilot, was travelling from Shri Badrinath Dham towards the Sahasradhara helipad in Dehradun when it crashed near Sthan Marwadi, close to Hathi Parvat in Joshimath tehsil, at around 2 pm.

The deceased have been identified as Arun Salunke, a police inspector with the technical cell of the Bengaluru CCB; Prathapa Bachihally Ningaraju, a businessman from Hassan with links to the Congress; advocates Sudheer K and Shankargowda VB; and H S Nataraj from Tumakuru.

Chamoli District Magistrate Gaurav Kumar confirmed the deaths.

The incident came amid adverse weather conditions in the region.

The India Meteorological Department had issued an orange alert for Chamoli on October 30, warning of thunderstorms accompanied by lightning, hail and gusty winds of 40-50 kmph in isolated areas. It had also forecast light to moderate rainfall along the district.

The precise circumstances that led to the crash are under investigation.

According to the Action Taken Report by the Chamoli district administration in Uttarakhand, the helicopter took off from the Sahasradhara helipad in Dehradun and was headed towards Badrinath Dham.

While returning, it encountered "adverse weather conditions in the Hathi Parvat area and crashed while descending towards a lower altitude".

The Army team reached the accident site and located all six bodies. However, dense forest cover and wildlife activity in the surrounding area posed challenges to the recovery operation. The search and rescue operation is scheduled to resume at 5 am on Saturday, the report said.

Secretary, Disaster Management and Rehabilitation, Vinod Kumar Suman, said the Chamoli District Disaster Management Officer first informed authorities around 2 pm that the civilian helicopter had met with an accident.

Suman said an Army Signal Centre team spotted smoke rising from the helicopter in the area and saw it rapidly descending.

Uttarakhand Civil Aviation Development Authority (UCADA) Chief Executive Officer Prateek Jain said, "The helicopter departed from Badrinath for the Sahasradhara heliport at 1:14 pm. We were unable to trace the helicopter's location since it was passing through the vicinity of the Joshimath valley. Upon receiving this information, we mobilised the Chamoli district administration, the SDRF (State Disaster Response Force), and an Army unit to the area near the incident site to prepare for a proper rescue operation. As a precautionary measure, the entire fleet of helicopters belonging to Trans Bharat Aviation has been grounded."

Friends of the five deceased told The Indian Express that the group shared a close bond and had planned the Char Dham pilgrimage together.

Maresh, a cooperative society secretary in Tumakuru, said he was friends with Shankargowda and H S Nataraj and had also been invited to join the trip, but couldn't because of work.

He said the group regularly shared photographs and updates on social media during their trips.

However, this time, they had not posted any such updates. He said the families are awaiting further details.

They often travelled together: 5 friends from Karnataka die in Badrinath chopper crash

Atiya Firdos
Bengaluru, October 30

FIVE FRIENDS from Karnataka, including a police inspector posted with the Central Crime Branch in Bengaluru, were among the six people killed in a helicopter crash in Uttarakhand's Chamoli district, Friday.

The sixth victim was the pilot, Capt. Himanshu, from Delhi.

The five victims from Karnataka have been identified as inspector Arun Salunke, Prathapa Bachihally Ningaraju, a businessman from Hassan with links to the Congress, Sudheer K and Shankargowda VB, advocates from Bengaluru and H S Nataraj, from Tumakuru. They were part of a group of friends who had travelled to Uttarakhand for the Char Dham pilgrimage.

According to a press release issued by the Karnataka State Disaster Management Authority, the civil helicopter operated by Trans Bharat Aviation and carrying the five passengers crashed around 2 pm in the hilly terrain of the Hathi Parvat area while flying from Badrinath to Dehradun.

Uttarakhand disaster management authorities immediately mobilised teams from the Army, State Disaster Response Force (SDRF), Indo-Tibetan Border Police (ITBP), police, health department and district disaster management authorities to carry out search and rescue operations.

"The rescue teams recovered the mortal remains of all six persons, including the pilot. The mortal remains are being brought to Joshimath for post-mortem examination," the press release said.

The Karnataka Chief Minister's Office and the Relief Commissioner are coordinating with their counterparts in Uttarakhand to facilitate the transportation of the bodies to Karnataka at the earliest.

Friends of the five victims told The Indian Express that the group shared a close bond and had planned the Char Dham pilgrimage together. Maresh, a co-operative society secretary in Tumakuru, said he was friends with Shankargowda and H S Nataraj and had also been invited to join the trip. He said he declined due to work commitments. "They left three days ago. I was expecting them to return tomorrow (Saturday). I spoke to Shankargowda yesterday (Thursday). He told me he was busy with some work and that we would speak once he returned," Maresh said.

He said the group regularly shared photographs and updates on social media during their trips. However, this time, they did not post any photographs or status updates. Maresh said the families had been informed about the crash and they were awaiting more details.

trict. He was associated with a poultry-related business; his family also runs a community hall in the village. Nataraj is survived by two children, one of whom is a doctor, while the other is pursuing an LLB.

Another friend, Manjunath, said Sudheer frequently travelled to his native place and often organised trips with his close circle of friends. The group was supposed to return to Karnataka from the pilgrimage on October 28, but bad weather disrupted their plans.

Ningaraju hailed from Bachehalli in Hassan district. After completing an ITI course, he moved to Bengaluru, where he initially worked with a contractor before venturing into real estate. He later developed an interest in real estate, infrastructure and the cargo sector and was also associated with the Congress in Hassan. "He was always willing to help people. He would assist families with marriage arrangements and medical needs," Manjunath said.

Prathap is survived by his wife and two children. "Prathap was keen on pursuing a political career and had plans to visit villages in connection with the upcoming local body elections after he returned from the trip..."

Somnath non-veg ban reinstated hrs after allowing plea

Aditi Raja
Vadodara, October 30

THE GUJARAT High Court on Friday (October 30) struck down the prohibition on the sale of non-vegetarian food in the vicinity of the Somnath Temple in Prabhas Patan, Veraval, only to reverse its order within hours and restore the ban imposed by the state government.

About four hours after a single judge of the HC had allowed petitions by six restaurant owners challenging the restrictions, a Division Bench of the court stayed the order, acting on an urgent appeal moved by the government even before the written judgment of the single judge was made available.

The owners of six restaurants, including J M Restaurant, Khwaja Hindustan Restaurant, New Gulab, Kismat Restaurant, and Taj Restaurant, had challenged the restrictions on the sale, storage, distribution, and preparation of non-veg food along designated roads leading to and within a 500-metre radius of the temple.

Around 3 pm, immediately after Justice Nisha M Thakore pronounced the order in open court allowing the petition, the state sought time to challenge it before a Division Bench.

Government Pleader G H Virk submitted that nothing had changed on the ground since the final notification was issued on August 10 and requested that the operation of the order be kept in abeyance for seven days.

He subsequently pressed for five working days to enable the state to prefer an appeal. "...We are requesting exactly five working days. Seven days means five working days, so that we can prefer the LPA (Letters Patent Appeal). That's the only request," he told the court.

Somnath Temple is in Prabhas Patan, Veraval

However, the judge declined to stay the order. The oral dictation recorded: "The request for stay is not accepted."

The state then moved an urgent appeal before a Division Bench comprising Acting Chief Justice Manash Ranjan Pathak and Justice Nirzar S Desai. Virk submitted in open court: "The judgment has not been published but the pronouncement made in the court was that the petitions had been allowed."

By 6.45 pm, the Division Bench had stayed the operation of the single judge order, and kept the restrictions on non-veg food along the notified Somnath pilgrimage routes in force.

During an earlier hearing on October 21, the state had strongly defended the restrictions, submitting that the religious significance and very high footfall at the temple justified regulating the sale of non-vegetarian food along routes taken by pilgrims.

Virk had submitted before Justice Thakore that approximately 1.2 crore devotees had visited Somnath in 2026. He had cited judicial rulings and restrictions at other pilgrimage centres such as Rishikesh, Haridwar, Amritsar, and Mathura-Vrindavan, and argued that Somnath could not be treated as an ordinary commercial centre.

President Murmu to attend Nashik Kumbh today

Zeeshan Shaikh
Mumbai, October 30

PRESIDENT DROUPADI Murmu will attend the Dhwarajahan (flag hoisting) ceremony at Nashik and Trimbakeshwar on Saturday (October 31), formally marking the beginning of the Simhastha Kumbh period.

The main influx of pilgrims is expected around the auspicious bathing dates, or Amrut Snans, in August and September 2027.

The Kumbh Mela is a major Hindu religious congregation traditionally held at four locations: Prayagraj, Haridwar, Ujjain and Nashik-Trimbakeshwar. The Nashik congregation is called Simhastha.

The Nashik-Trimbakeshwar Kumbh is held once every 12 years. The previous congregation took place in 2015-16.

The religious significance of the festival is also associated with the legend of Samudra Manthan, or the churning of the ocean.

The Dhwarajahan ceremony marks the beginning of the Simhastha period associated with the Kumbh and the start of the religious and administrative activities leading up to the main congregation.

The festival is scheduled to continue until July 2028, when the flags will be lowered in ceremonies at Trimbakeshwar and Nashik. Ritual bathing is the central religious activity of the Kumbh, and the largest influx of pilgrims is expected around the designated bathing days in 2027.

SURESH N PATEL, CHAIRMAN, HIGH-LEVEL COMMITTEE ON BANKING FOR VIKSIT BHARAT

Lender, watchdog, now reformer

FE BUREAU

FOR SURESH N Patel, the latest assignment marks a return to familiar territory, though from a different vantage point. The former Central Vigilance Commissioner, who spent most of his professional life in commercial banking before moving into institutional oversight, will chair the government's high-level committee on banking reforms.

Few bankers have travelled quite the same professional arc. Patel has sat on the lending side of the table, managed a public sector bank, examined governance failures and grappled with the delicate question of accountability when financial decisions go wrong. That combination makes his appointment particularly interesting at a time when Indian banks are being asked to grow bigger, lend more and remain financially sound.

His association with banking stretches back more than four decades. He began his career at Allahabad Bank before moving to Dena Bank, where he rose to become general manager, handling areas ranging from rural lending to institutional coordination.

He later became executive director of Oriental Bank of Commerce before taking over as managing director and chief executive of Andhra Bank in 2015. That placed him at the helm of a public sector lender during a difficult period, when stressed assets, provisioning pressures and questions over lending practices dominated the industry's agenda. It was a hands-on lesson in what happens when lending decisions go wrong.

His experience extended beyond running banks. Patel served on the management committee of the Indian Banks' Association and was associated with NABARD's Bankers' Institute of Rural Development. He also headed the State Level Bankers' Committee in Andhra Pradesh and the Bankers' Institute of Rural and Entrepreneurship Development. These roles exposed him to the challenges of extending formal credit beyond metropolitan centres, particularly to agriculture, small enterprises and underserved borrowers.

He was also a permanent invitee to the Reserve Bank of India's Board for Regulation and Supervision of Payment and Settlement Systems, adding another dimension to his understanding of the financial system.

The more unusual chapter of his career began in April 2020, when he took oath as Vigilance Commissioner. With Covid restrictions in place, the oath was administered by then Central Vigilance Commissioner Sanjay Kothari via video link. Patel later rose to the top job himself.

The move was more than a change of office. It placed him on the other side of decisions that bankers routinely confront: when does a commercial judgement become a matter for investigation, and how should institutions distinguish genuine business failure from wrongdoing?

That distinction has long troubled public sector banks.

ing. Excessive scrutiny can make officials reluctant to take legitimate lending risks, while inadequate accountability can allow misconduct to flourish. Patel's experience spans both sides of that tension.

He was associated with the Advisory Board for Banking and Financial Frauds even before joining the vigilance commission, and was subsequently appointed its chairman, with a further appointment in 2025. The role kept him closely engaged with questions of fraud, responsibility and institutional safeguards.

His new assignment brings those strands together. Indian banking has emerged from a prolonged clean-up with healthier balance sheets and improved profitability. The next phase, however, will demand stronger institutions, technological adaptability and a willingness to finance economic expansion without repeating past mistakes.

Patel's advantage lies in having seen the system from several perspectives. He understands the pressures of running a bank, the realities of extending credit and the consequences when governance breaks down. That breadth could prove especially useful as the committee weighs growth against discipline.

The challenge now is to translate that experience into reforms that encourage prudent risk-taking without weakening accountability. For a sector prone to swinging between caution and excess, balance matters.

SURESH N PATEL, CHAIRMAN, HIGH-LEVEL COMMITTEE ON BANKING FOR VIKSIT BHARAT

Lender, watchdog, now reformer

FROM RUNNING BANKS TO SCRUTINISING FINANCIAL FRAUD, PATEL BRINGS DECADES OF LENDING, GOVERNANCE AND OVERSIGHT EXPERIENCE TO INDIA'S BANKING REFORMS

FE BUREAU

FOR SURESH N Patel, the latest assignment marks a return to familiar territory, though from a different vantage point. The former Central Vigilance Commissioner, who spent most of his professional life in commercial banking before moving into institutional oversight, will chair the government's high-level committee on banking reforms.

Few bankers have travelled quite the same professional arc. Patel has sat on the lending side of the table, managed a public sector bank, examined governance failures and grappled with the delicate question of accountability when financial decisions go wrong. That combination makes his appointment particularly interesting at a time when Indian banks are being asked to grow bigger, lend more and remain financially sound.

His association with banking stretches back more than four decades. He began his career at Allahabad Bank before moving to Dena Bank, where he rose to become general manager, handling areas ranging from rural lending to institutional coordination.

He later became executive director of Oriental Bank of Commerce before taking over as managing director and chief executive of Andhra Bank in 2015. That placed him at the helm of a public sector lender during a difficult period, when stressed assets, provisioning pressures and questions over lending practices dominated the industry's agenda. It was a hands-on lesson in what happens when lending decisions go wrong.

His experience extended beyond running banks. Patel served on the management committee of the Indian Banks' Association and was associated with NABARD's Bankers' Institute of Rural Development. He also headed the State Level Bankers' Committee in Andhra Pradesh and the Bankers' Institute of Rural and Entrepreneurship Development. These roles exposed him to the challenges of extending formal credit beyond metropolitan centres, particularly to agriculture, small enterprises and underserved borrowers.

He was also a permanent invitee to the Reserve Bank of India's Board for Regulation and Supervision of Payment and Settlement Systems, adding another dimension to his understanding of the financial system.

The more unusual chapter of his career began in April 2020, when he took oath as Vigilance Commissioner. With Covid restrictions in place, the oath was administered by then Central Vigilance Commissioner Sanjay Kothari via video link. Patel later rose to the top job himself.

The move was more than a change of office. It placed him on the other side of decisions that bankers routinely confront: when does a commercial judgement become a matter for investigation, and how should institutions distinguish genuine business failure from wrongdoing?

That distinction has long troubled public sector banking. Excessive scrutiny can make officials reluctant to take legitimate lending risks, while inadequate accountability can allow misconduct to flourish. Patel's experience spans both sides of that tension.

He was associated with the Advisory Board for Banking and Financial Frauds even before joining the vigilance commission, and was subsequently appointed its chairman, with a further appointment in 2025. The role kept him closely engaged with questions of fraud, responsibility and institutional safeguards.

His new assignment brings those strands together. Indian banking has emerged from a prolonged cleanup with healthier balance sheets and improved profitability. The next phase, however, will demand stronger institutions, technological adaptability and a willingness to finance economic expansion without repeating past mistakes.

Patel's advantage lies in having seen the system from several perspectives. He understands the pressures of running a bank, the realities of extending credit and the consequences when governance breaks down. That breadth could prove especially useful as the committee weighs growth against discipline.

The challenge now is to translate that experience into reforms that encourage prudent risk-taking without weakening accountability. For a sector prone to swinging between caution and excess, balance matters.

हांगकांग इंटरनेशनल में पाकिस्तान से चार विकेट से हारा भारत

कोवलून, 30 अक्टूबर (भाषा)।

भारत को हांगकांग इंटरनेशनल सिक्सेस के मैच में शुक्रवार को पाकिस्तान ने चार विकेट से हराया। पहले बल्लेबाजी के लिए भेजे जाने पर भारत छह ओवर में पांच विकेट पर 88 रन ही बना सका। शशांक सिंह ने 11 गेंद में 40 रन बनाए। जवाब में पाकिस्तान ने 3.5 ओवर में दो विकेट पर 92 रन बनाए। सलामी बल्लेबाज ख्वाजा नफे (12 गेंद में 41) और अब्बास अफरीदी (आठ गेंद में 35) ने 13 गेंद में 59 रन की साझेदारी की। अफरीदी ने पहले ही ओवर में कृणाल पांड्या को पांच छक्के लगाए। इससे पहले भारत को राहुल त्रिपाठी (नौ) और नीतिश राणा (19) अच्छी शुरुआत नहीं दे सके। कप्तान पांड्या और राहुल तेंवतिया भी नाकाम रहे।

कुश्ती विश्व चैंपियनशिप

स्वर्ण जीतने वाली पहली भारतीय महिला बनीं मनीषा भानवाला

अस्ताना, 30 अक्टूबर (भाषा)।

मनीषा भानवाला ने शुक्रवार को विश्व चैंपियनशिप के महिला 59 किग्रा वर्ग के फाइनल में अमेरिका की अबीगेल नेट्टे को 8-6 से हराकर भारतीय कुश्ती में महिला विश्व चैंपियन का इंतजार खत्म कर दिया। वह मुकाबले में एक समय छह अंक से पिछड़ रही थीं, लेकिन शानदार वापसी करते हुए उन्होंने स्वर्ण पदक अपने नाम कर इतिहास रच दिया।

मनीषा विश्व चैंपियनशिप में स्वर्ण पदक जीतने वाली पहली भारतीय महिला पहलवान बन गई हैं। वह दिग्गज सुशील कुमार के बाद विश्व चैंपियनशिप का खिताब जीतने वाली दूसरी भारतीय पहलवान हैं।

सुशील ने 2010 में पुरुषों के 66 किग्रा वर्ग में स्वर्ण पदक जीता था। उन्नतीस वर्षीय मनीषा की इस जीत के साथ भारतीय कुश्ती का विश्व चैंपियन बनने का लंबा इंतजार खत्म हो गया। इसके साथ ही उन्होंने भारतीय महिला टीम के लिए भी विश्व चैंपियनशिप के इस संस्करण को ऐतिहासिक बना दिया। पहली बार एक ही विश्व चैंपियनशिप में भारत की तीन महिला पहलवानों ने स्वर्ण पदक के मुकाबलों में जगह बनाई। नीलम सिरौही (50 किग्रा) और काजल श्रोक (76 किग्रा) को गुरुवार को अपने-अपने फाइनल में हार के बाद रजत पदक से संतोष करना पड़ा था। हालांकि, मनीषा ने स्वर्ण पदक जीतकर यह सुनिश्चित किया कि भारतीय टीम इस प्रतियोगिता से बिना किसी स्वर्ण के नहीं लौटेगी। फाइनल में मनीषा के कौशल के साथ-साथ धैर्य और जुझारूपन की भी परीक्षा हुई। मुकाबले में नेट्टे ने शुरुआत से ही आक्रामक रख अपनाते हुए दाएं पैर पर हमला कर मनीषा पर मजबूत पकड़ बना लिया। उन्होंने मनीषा का पैर उठाकर मुकाबले पर नियंत्रण बना लिया।

मनीषा ने करीब 30 सेकेंड तक खुद को बचाने की कोशिश की, लेकिन अंततः उन्हें मैट के किनारे से उठाकर पटक दिया गया। इस दांव से अमेरिकी पहलवान को चार अंक मिले। मनीषा के खिलाफ इस फैसले को चुनौती दी गई, लेकिन वीडियो समीक्षा का फैसला भारत के

ऐतिहासिक पल

कजाकिस्तान के अस्ताना में शुक्रवार को कुश्ती विश्व चैंपियनशिप में जीत के बाद मनीषा भानवाला।

स्वर्णिम जीत : पिता का सपना बेटी ने पूरा किया

विश्व कुश्ती चैंपियनशिप में स्वर्ण पदक जीतने के बाद जब मनीषा भानवाला ने अपने माता-पिता की तस्वीरों वाली सफेद टी-शर्ट निकालकर दर्शकों को गर्व के साथ दिखाई तो यह सिर्फ ऐतिहासिक जीत का जश्न नहीं था। यह उस बेटी की ओर से अपने दिवंगत पिता को श्रद्धांजलि थी जिसने वर्षों तक उनके सपने को अपने दिल में संजोकर रखा था। भारत की पहली महिला कुश्ती विश्व चैंपियन मनीषा के लिए यह स्वर्ण पदक उनके करिअर की सबसे बड़ी उपलब्धि भर नहीं था, बल्कि उनके परिवार के सपने के पूरे होने का पल भी था। खासकर उनके पिता सुरेश का सपना, जिनका 2022 में मनीषा के एशियाई चैंपियनशिप के लिए रवाना होने वाले दिन निधन हो गया था। हरियाणा के जींद की रहने वाली मनीषा एक किसान परिवार से आती हैं जहां खेल का माहौल हमेशा से रहा है। उनके भाई रिकू कबड्डी खिलाड़ी हैं जबकि भाभी ममता सिहाग भी पहलवान हैं। रिकू ने एंजंसी से कहा, 'हमारे परिवार में सभी खेलों से जुड़े रहे हैं। वह मुझे गांव में कबड्डी खेलते हुए देखती थी और वहीं से उसे प्रेरणा मिली।

खिलाफ गया। समीक्षा में पुष्टि हुई कि मनीषा खतरनाक स्थिति में मैट पर गिरी थीं। चुनौती नाकाम रहने के कारण अमेरिका की पहलवान को एक अतिरिक्त अंक भी मिल गया। मनीषा ने इसके बाद अपनी प्रतिद्वंद्वी को मैट से बाहर धकेलकर एक अंक हासिल करने की कोशिश

की लेकिन नेट्टे ने चतुराई से खुद को बचा लिया। इसके बाद मनीषा को चेतावनी मिली और नेट्टे की बढ़त 6-0 हो गई। पहले दौर के समाप्त होने से पहले मनीषा ने एक अंक हासिल किया, लेकिन मुकाबले पर अमेरिकी पहलवान का दबदबा बना हुआ था।

फिलिप्स का शतक, न्यूजीलैंड ने भारत को 87 रनों से हराया

आकलैंड, 30 अक्टूबर (भाषा)।

ग्लेन फिलिप्स के तुफानी शतक और तेज गेंदबाज जैकब डफी की घातक गेंदबाजी की बदौलत न्यूजीलैंड ने पांच मैचों की टी20 अंतरराष्ट्रीय श्रृंखला के चौथे मुकाबले में शुक्रवार को यहां भारत को 87 रन से करारी शिकस्त दी। भारतीय टीम शुरुआती तीन मुकाबले जीतकर पहले ही श्रृंखला अपने नाम कर चुकी है। इस जीत के साथ न्यूजीलैंड ने श्रृंखला में हार का अंतर 1-3 कर दिया।

प्लेयर आफ द मैच फिलिप्स ने 49 गेंदों में 107 रन की विस्फोटक पारी खेली, जबकि माइकल ब्रेसवेल ने महज 25 गेंदों में 65 रन बनाए। दोनों ने पांचवें विकेट के लिए सिर्फ 41 गेंदों में 115 रन की साझेदारी कर न्यूजीलैंड को सात विकेट पर 259 रन के विशाल स्कोर तक पहुंचाया। यह टी20

अंतरराष्ट्रीय क्रिकेट में भारत के खिलाफ किसी भी टीम का सर्वोच्च स्कोर है। इसके जवाब में भारतीय टीम अतिरिक्त उछाल वाली पिच पर नौ विकेट पर 172 रन ही बना सकी।

लक्ष्य का पीछा करने उतरी भारतीय टीम को अच्छी शुरुआत की दरकार थी, लेकिन तेज गेंदबाज डफी ने पहले ही ओवर में संजू सेमसन (चार) और ईशान किशन (शून्य) को आउट कर उसकी उम्मीदों पर पानी फेर दिया। भारत ने पहले ओवर के बाद दो विकेट पर महज चार रन बनाए थे। इस शुरुआती झटके से टीम अंत तक नहीं उबर सकी। भारत की ओर से तीसरे विकेट के लिए कप्तान श्रेयस अय्यर (22) और अभिषेक शर्मा (27) के बीच 46 रन की साझेदारी सबसे बड़ी रही। यह भारतीय बल्लेबाजी की नाकामी को बयां करने के लिए काफी थी।

मुंबई इंडियंस की कोचिंग में फेरबदल, बल्लेबाजी कोच बने राबिन उथप्पा

नई दिल्ली, 30 अक्टूबर (भाषा)।

पांच बार की चैंपियन मुंबई इंडियंस ने इंडियन प्रीमियर लीग (आईपीएल) के 2027 के सत्र से पहले शुक्रवार को अपने कोचिंग स्टाफ में व्यापक फेरबदल करते हुए पूर्व भारतीय बल्लेबाज रोबिन उथप्पा को अपना बल्लेबाजी कोच नियुक्त किया।

उथप्पा के अलावा न्यूजीलैंड के मिशेल मैक्लेनाघन को गेंदबाजी कोच, जबकि पूर्व भारतीय क्षेत्ररक्षण कोच टी दिलीप को इसी भूमिका में नियुक्त किया गया है। फ्रेंचाइजी ने धवल कुलकर्णी को विकास गेंदबाजी कोच नियुक्त किया है। इस तरह से उथप्पा, मैक्लेनाघन और कुलकर्णी की मुंबई इंडियंस की टीम में वापसी हो रही है, जो पहले खिलाड़ी के तौर पर इस फ्रेंचाइजी का हिस्सा रह चुके हैं। यह तीनों नवनियुक्त मुख्य कोच कीरीन पोलाड के साथ मिलकर नए कोचिंग स्टाफ का हिस्सा बनेंगे। मुंबई इंडियंस ने आईपीएल

में अपना आखिरी खिताब 2020 में जीता था। पिछले सत्र में उसकी टीम नौवें स्थान पर रही थी। उथप्पा 2007 में पुरुष टी20 विश्व कप जीतने वाली भारतीय टीम का हिस्सा थे। यह 40 वर्षीय खिलाड़ी आईपीएल के पहले सत्र में मुंबई इंडियंस की तरफ से खेला था।

मुंबई इंडियंस ने एक्स पर पोस्ट किया, हमारे पहले सत्र का हिस्सा बनने से लेकर अब अपार अनुभव के साथ वापसी करने तक, रोबिन खेल की गहरी समझ, बेहतरीन संवाद क्षमता और युवा खिलाड़ियों का मार्गदर्शन करने की स्पष्टता के साथ टीम से जुड़ रहे हैं। मुंबई इंडियंस में आपका फिर से स्वागत किया है। रोबिन।दिलीप 2024 और 2026 के टी20 विश्व कप और 2025 में आइसीसी चैंपियंस ट्रॉफी में जीत के दौरान भारत की कोचिंग टीम का हिस्सा थे। मुंबई इंडियंस के साथ चार बार आईपीएल चैंपियन रह चुके मैक्लेनाघन ने 2015 से 2020 के बीच फ्रेंचाइजी का प्रतिनिधित्व किया।
