ICFAI and Karkinos Healthcare Conducts Free Cancer Screening and Early Detection Camp under Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA)

In a significant initiative to strengthen rural healthcare access and promote preventive health awareness, the Centre for Women Development (CWD) of ICFAI Foundation for Higher Education, Hyderabad, under the aegis of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA), in collaboration with Karkinos Healthcare, organised a two-day Community Medical Wellness and Cancer Awareness Drive at Gopularam village near ICFAI Campus on September 26 and 27, 2026.

The programme was formally inaugurated by Prof. A. Vinay Kumar, Vice Chancellor, ICFAI and Prof. S. Vijayalakshmi, Registrar, ICFAI , in the presence of a team of medical specialists led by Dr. Narayana Murthy Poduri, Senior Consultant Radiation Oncologist, Reliance-Karkinos Healthcare, and former Director, TATA Cancer Centre, Tirupati.

More than 220 villagers from ICFAI's five adopted villages Gopularam, Maharajpet, Pilligudla, Proddutoor and Donthanpally under UBA and including neighbouring settlements (Thandas), availed themselves of free medical consultations, health assessments and cancer screening services.

The initiative was conducted under a fully funded, zero-cost model for beneficiaries, with support from the Indian Cancer Society, Bengaluru, as the primary funding partner. Karkinos Healthcare served as the technical and clinical execution partner, providing medical expertise and screening support.

Prof. A. Vinay Kumar, Vice Chancellor, ICFAI said “The initiative reflects ICFAI's commitment to social responsibility, community outreach and rural development through its UBA activities. The strong participation of villagers demonstrated the importance of taking preventive healthcare services closer to rural communities.”

“Through initiatives such as this, the Center for Women Development of ICFAI, continues to promote women's empowerment, health awareness and meaningful community outreach, while encouraging students to actively participate in socially relevant initiative” said Prof. Dr. S. Vijayalakshmi, Registrar, ICFAI, and Convenor, Center for Women Development (CWD), ICFAI.

The programme was attended by Sarpanches of adopted villages, students and staff members of ICFAI.
