Dear Sir/ Madam,

Sub: Corporate Announcement

KAVVERI TECHNOLOGIES AMERICAS INC COMPLETES KEY AMERICAN ACQUISITION, ACQUIRES wireless division of WPCS INTERNATIONAL INC.

- This acquisition will add USD 30 millions to the Kavveri group topline in the 1st year.
- This acquisition will also broaden and strengthen Kavveri's wireless systems solutions capabilities for Inbuilding, LMR, Wifi, Wireless Broadband, Telemetry/Scada and Video applications for public safety and cellular applications in the US markets.

Kavveri Technologies Americas Inc, USA, a wholly owned subsidiary of M/s Kavveri Telecom Products Limited, a leading wireless subsystem manufacturer, which provides world class hardware products and solutions for the telecom, defense and space industry today, announced the completion of its purchase of Wireless division of WPCS International Inc.(Nasdaq:WPCS)(www.wpcs-solutions.com), with operating business units located in Hartford, Connecticut and Hartford, New Jersey.

WPCS International operates globally, providing a comprehensive range of infrastructure services in wireless communication, specialty construction and electrical power. WPCS provides a full service design, project management, installation and maintenance of infrastructure for corporate and private enterprise, telecom, energy and utility providers, healthcare organizations, educational institutions and public services organizations worldwide.
Kavveri's strategy is to build its core wireless technology groups and establish itself as a global "end to end" wireless infrastructure product and solutions Company. The acquisition of this wireless division of WPCS International significantly enhances Kavveri's wireless systems solutions business and also expands the market base and sales channels for the Kavveri Group of Companies in the USA.
