3. The quarterly sales growth was slightly dampened due to supply constraints in availability of BYD cars. The normalized BYD supply is expected to resume in the June quarter.

5. Deliveries of several key models commenced in the March quarter, including the Mercedes Benz V Class, Mahindra XUV 7XO, Mahindra XEV 9S and the new-generation Kia Seltos. These launches are expected to drive healthy sales momentum in the coming months. Further, sales of Mercedes Benz CLA, MG Majestor and the new Renault Duster will start in the June quarter.
6. The Company was honoured with multiple awards during the quarter, with notable recognition including BYD Volume Leader APAC 2025 Global Award, Mercedes Benz's Best partner in Marketing & Best Partner in People Management and Volkswagen Best performance in Marketing Activities.
