#Where material deviation may be defined to mean:

- a) Deviation in the objects or purposes for which the funds have been raised
- b) Deviation in the amount of funds actually utilized by more than 10% of the amount projected in the offer documents.

Note 1: During the quarter ended December 31, 2025, the Company incurred expenditure towards the objects of the issue through an already operational current account. To fund such utilisation, a portion of the issue proceeds was transferred from the monitoring account to the said current account. Owing to the high volume of transactions in the current account, the Monitoring Agency relied on the CA Certification, Management Utilisation Certification, and Excel-based ledgers provided by the management to identify transactions attributable to the respective objects of the issue. Consequently, the Monitoring Agency's ability to directly ascertain such transactions against specific objects of the issue was limited. However, the Monitoring Agency has reviewed and verified the transactions on a sample basis.
