“Import of rock salt Raw Material”

Libas will import raw material of rock salt from Egypt. This will be further processed by the company and will be sold in Indian market. The Company will import value of ₹ 8-10 crore for the current financial year 2025-26 and will further be imported as per the demand in market.

Egyptian rock salt is a globally recognized and sought-after product. It's known for its high purity, a concentration exceeding 99% sodium chloride. This high purity, combined with its effectiveness in de-icing and various industrial applications, makes it a valuable resource.
