SC starts special Lok Adalat

PTI
NEW DELHI

CJI DY Chandrachud on Monday said helping litigants resolve their disputes amicably gives "greatest satisfaction to us as judges". The CJI was speaking to PTI on the commencement of special Lok Adalat to amicably resolve disputes.

He shared his experience in dealing with an estranged couple during a pre-Lok Adalat sitting and said the husband had filed a divorce petition against his wife in a family court at Patiala House Courts here.

The wife, in turn, had filed a complaint seeking maintenance against her husband besides another petition for custody of their child, he added.

The husband-wife mutually decided that they would withdraw the respective cases from local courts and live together, Justice Chandrachud said, highlighting the importance of Lok Adalat in amicable settlement of disputes.

BLAME GAME | BJP accuses AAP of criminal negligence

MPs spar over deaths at coaching centre in Delhi

Gaurav Vivek Bhatnagar
NEW DELHI

Both houses of Parliament on Monday held special discussions over the drowning of three civil services aspirants at a coaching centre in Old Rajinder Nagar in central Delhi on July 27.

The deaths sparked a blame game with the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) accusing the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP), which heads the Delhi state government and controls the Municipal Corporation of Delhi (MCD), of criminal negligence. The AAP deflected the blame by raising generic questions on the use of basements in the area.

The three students died after water entered the library, housed in the basement of a building, and malfunctioned the biometric doors, which prevented them from leaving as waters flooded it.

In the Lok Sabha, BJP MP from New Delhi Bansuri Swaraj charged that the three students lost their lives due to "utter and absolute apathy" of the ruling party. "AAP has been in power in Delhi for 10 years. The MCD has been under their control for the last 2 years and so has the Delhi Jal Board. The residents of Old Rajinder Nagar were regularly complaining about improper drainage but the local AAP MLA, Councillor and officers did not act." Swaraj said, urging the Union Home Ministry to investigate the case.

Meanwhile, the Congress and the Samajwadi Party, allies of the AAP, raised the issue on civic licences.

Congress MP Shashi Tharoor termed it a "shocking situation" and claimed that there was a violation of basic norms, which were "rampant in the city." He, held the MCD responsible and recalled how a journalist had displayed a certificate of clearance for the building issued on July 9.

"Who all are responsible and what action is being taken against them," said Samajwadi Party leader and MP Akhilesh Yadav, adding that the painful incident demonstrated that it was not a solitary case.

In the Rajya Sabha, AAP MP Sanjay Singh sought to pin the blame on the Central Government and the licensing agencies and said, "Coaching classes have been operating out of the basements for the last 15-20 years. Who is responsible for it? It is Centre," he said.

Union Education Minister Dharmendra Pradhan stated that such incidents could only be prevented if accountability was fixed. Rajya Sabha Chairman Jagdeep Dhankar expressed sadness and said that coaching centres which operated in such conditions were "no less than gas chambers".

Child brides common, we can do little: Rajasthan teachers

KOTA

When Rani and Pinki (names changed) came to school wearing sindoor and colourful bangles, their teachers suspected the obvious but chose to overlook it. The sisters, aged 15 and 16, were married at their home in Hanuman ji Ka Jhopda village on July 15, two days before the annual wedding season ended, according to some accounts.

The sisters, belonging to Other Backward Classes (OBC), study in classes 9 and 10 in a government school in Bundi's district's Hindoli area. Despite laws, child marriage persists in this Rajasthan area. At times, the in-laws are seen dropping a little bride to school.

Rukmani Bai (name changed), who works as a househelp in Buni city, told PTI that as the elder aunt, she did Rani's "kanyadaan". Rukmani Bai had taken four days' leave to attend the weddings of her two nieces and shopped for gifts worth around Rs 10,000 for them.

A government school teacher, said they do notice some girl suddenly coming to class wearing sindoor and bangles, but they can do little about it.

"Sometimes girls in the class are heard whispering about their mate's wedding. The bride usually either shies away or avoids the question by turning her face to the other side," he said.

The teacher said complaining yields little once the marriage has already happened. And there is always the risk of inviting the wrath of the locals who may respond by taking the girl out of school. When asked about the sisters' wedding, her teachers expressed ignorance.

MOLESTATION CASE

Charges framed against ex-minister

Rajesh Moudgil
CHANDIGARH

A local court on Monday framed charges against former Haryana sports minister Sandeep Singh in an alleged molestation case registered two years ago while dismissing his application for dropping the charges against him.

The district court framed the charges for the offences for assault or criminal force to woman with intent to outrage her modesty, sexual harassment, assault or criminal force to woman with intent of disrobe, criminal intimidation, word, gesture or act intended to insult the modesty of woman. The court of additional chief judicial magistrate Rahul Garg, however, rejected complainant's plea to add a section for an attempted rape.

The charges against Singh, a former Indian hockey captain stem from a police complaint dated December 26, 2022, when a junior female coach accused him of sexual harassment and other charges. She alleged that Singh had asked her to meet him at his official residence to verify her job-related documents and molested her. The Chandigarh police had registered a case against Singh on the complaint of a junior woman coach on December 31, 2022, in which the complainant had alleged that Singh had molested her at his official residence on July 1, 2022.

Singh had claimed that he was falsely implicated in the case due to political enmity.

He also held that the complaint was filed with false accusations as the woman's demands for training and postings abroad were not met. He had resigned as sports minister after being accused and held that he took the step on moral grounds.

The next hearing in the case is scheduled for August 17.

Girl pulled out of borewell in MP

SINGRAULI

A three-year-old girl, who accidentally slipped into an open borewell near a village in Singrauli district of Madhya Pradesh on Monday evening, was rescued after more than five hours and rushed to a hospital where her condition was stated to be critical, officials said.

Shoumya, daughter of one Pintu Sahu, fell into the borewell near Kasar village, located about 40km from the district headquarters, while playing in an agriculture field at around 5 pm, Bargawan police station inspector Shivpujan Mishra told PTI.

The borewell was more than 250-foot deep and the girl had got stuck at the depth of 25 feet, he stated.

Rescuers managed to bring her out after five-and-a-half hours of effort, informed the police officer. The baby was taken to a hospital, where her condition was critical, said District Chief Medical and Health Officer NK Jain.
