ED seeks data from Apple, Xiaomi in e-comm probe

ADITYA KALRA
New Delhi, April 29

THE ENFORCEMENT DIRECTORATE (ED) has privately sought sales data and other documents from smartphone players including Apple and Xiaomi as part of an investigation into Amazon and Walmart-owned Flipkart, sources familiar with the matter told Reuters.

The agency's queries come in the backdrop of India and the United States nearing a trade deal. The protectionist e-commerce regulations in India have been part of those discussions, according to one Indian official, as US authorities have long called for opening up the sector.

The ED, which probes economic crimes, has been investigating Amazon and Flipkart for years for allegedly breaching laws by stocking and exerting

The directorate wrote in recent weeks to smartphone companies, including Apple and Xiaomi, to get data related to their online sales, according to three industry sources and one senior government official, who all declined to be named as the investigation process is confidential. One of the industry sources said the ED was looking at dealings between smartphone companies and Amazon and Flipkart, and had also sought any financial contracts signed by the phone makers for online sales. Apple received the agency's directive in March, said one of the sources.

Apple, Amazon and Flipkart did not immediately respond to request for comment. The ED also did not respond, while Xiaomi declined to comment.

Coca-Cola's value share dips in Q1

RAGHAV AGGARWAL
New Delhi, April 29

BEVERAGE GIANT COCA-COLA witnessed a fall in its market share (by value) in the country during the January-March quarter despite a double-digit volume growth riding on high demand for smaller and cheaper packs.

In its quarterly results announced on Tuesday, Coca-Cola said its global volume growth was led by India, China and Brazil.

For Asia-Pacific, it said, "Value share in total NARTD (non-alcoholic ready-to-drink) beverages for the company was even as gains in the Philippines and Japan were offset by declines in Indonesia and India."

This decline signals the company now gets a smaller share of the total revenue earned by all companies selling non-alcoholic ready-to-drink beverages in India. In Asia-Pacific, Coca-Cola's net operating revenue was down 4% to $1.42 billion during the quarter.

Amid increasing competition, the Atlanta-based company has been taking price cuts in some packs in India and has also introduced cheaper packs.

In November last year, Coca-Cola slashed the price of its 400 ml PET bottle by ₹5 to ₹20. This was in response to Campa Cola's 500 ml bottle price.

This year, it has also introduced ₹10 packs for light and diet variants of Coke, Thums Up and Sprite. Similar launches were also made by its rival PepsiCo after Reliance Consumer's Campa introduced ₹10 packs in the market.

Telcos propose in-building solutions at Noida airport

LEADING TELECOM PLAYERS Bharti Airtel, Reliance Jio and Vodafone Idea have jointly approached Noida International Airport Limited (NIAL) with a proposal to set up common in-building solution (IBS) to provide telecom connectivity at the airport terminal. In a letter addressed to NIAL chairman, a copy of which FE has seen, the telcos also urged the airport management to avoid the involvement of a third-party infrastructure provider.

Food delivery must get cheaper to grow: NRAI

RAGHAV AGGARWAL
New Delhi, April 29

AMID STANDOFF WITH food aggregators Zomato and Swiggy over allegations of anti-competitive practices, high commissions, data misuse, and unfair private labelling, the National Restaurant Association of India (NRAI) has renewed its call to make food delivery more affordable in order to revive growth in the sector.

NRAI president Sagar Daryani, who is also the founder and CEO of Wow! Momo Foods, said on Tuesday that the food delivery market is no longer expanding at the pace it once did, and that growth will now depend on reducing the cost of delivery for end consumers.

"Food delivery will only grow when you increase the customer base," Daryani told FE. "This will only happen once delivery

SAGAR DARYANI, NRAI PRESIDENT & CEO, WOW! MOMO FOODS

Fifteen out of twenty new restaurants entering the food delivery space end up shutting down. It's not sustainable becomes cheaper," he added. This fresh statement comes as NRAI remains locked in a long-standing conflict with the two dominant food aggregators, accusing them of using their market power to undercut restaurants through high commissions, use of customer data for their own gain, and the launch of competing private label brands.

Daryani said that if aggregators continue to charge commissions as high as 30% on restaurant revenues, the delivery ecosystem cannot sustain itself. "Fifteen out of twenty new restaurants entering the food delivery space end up shutting down. It's not sustainable," he said.

He suggested that either commission rates be brought down or restaurants be granted access to customer data, something currently withheld under aggregator policies. "If we do not have customer database, we cannot thrive in this industry," he said, adding that having this data would help restaurants lower marketing and customer acquisition costs, savings that could then be passed on to consumers.
