Maharashtra: Farmers say they were duped, want Nirav Modi to return land

Ahmednagar. The records show that Modi paid Rs 29.31 lakh for the 37 acres — around Rs 79,216 per acre on average — without seeking any change in the use of land. They also show that Firestone paid Rs 1.17 crore for 48 acres — Rs 2.43 lakh per acre on average — while specifying that it was for commercial purposes. The farmers claim they sold their land for sums ranging from Rs 5,000 to Rs 25,000 per acre to Modi and his company."We were told by the people who offered to purchase our land that it would be acquired by the government for a bird sanctuary. We were struggling to survive amid continuous drought and thought it was better to get some money rather than let the government take it for free," said Suban Maharnavar, a resident of Khandala who claims to have sold 3.5 acres at the rate of Rs 25,000 per acre.

Dhananjay Kare of Khandala claims that his family sold 5.5 acres at Rs 14,000 per acre to "Modi's men". "The local media had been carrying reports about the possibility of a bird sanctuary coming up. We sold our land in panic. But now, we are determined to get it back," he said. When contacted, the sub-registrar in Karjat, D P Pandit, said there were 17 land transactions made by around 50-60 farmers, some jointly with family members, during that period. "A majority of the transactions were done in 2011 and in the two subsequent years," he said. According to officials at the sub-registrar's office, the land was purchased through "power of attorney" on behalf of Modi for his company.

"Modi set up a solar plant on 60 acres of that land without converting the agriculture land into non-agriculture land. We imposed a fine of around Rs 10 lakh on the company," said Archana Nashte, Sub-Divisional Officer (SDO), Karjat.

"The plant had a capacity of 5 MW and consumed 6,000 units of electricity every month on an average. Its monthly bill came to over Rs 35,000," said Anil Borse, Superintending Engineer at the Ahmednagar office of state-owned MSEDCL.

Rajsamand: Three held for vandalising Mahatama Gandhi's statue

Jaipur. Rajsamand police have arrested three persons for allegedly desecrating a bust of Mahatma Gandhi in the district, officials said Wednesday.

Nathdwara Circle Officer Mahipal Singh said that the incident took place on Monday night in Holimagra area. The damaged bust was discovered by local residents on Tuesday morning, who then submitted a complaint at the Nathdwara police station.

Officials at Nathdwara police station said that a complaint was filed by Holimagra resident Ashok Valmiki against unspecified persons on Tuesday. The FIR was lodged under IPC section 427 (Mischief causing damage), section 3 (Mischief causing damage to public property) of The Prevention of Damage to Public Property Act, 1984, and section 3 (Penalty for defacement of property) of Rajasthan Prevention of Defacement of Property Act, 2006.

Nathdwara assistant sub-inspector Ravindra Singh said that on the basis of CCTV footage, they questioned three persons, who were subsequently arrested. "We retrieved photos from the footage and took help of locals to identify the persons. We picked up Kuldeep Valmiki, Arvind Gehlot and Ankit Gehlot, who are friends and are 24-years-old. They are from the same locality and had arrived on a scooter and a bike to the spot," Singh said.

He said that prima facie, the men desecrated the bust in a fit of intoxication and no ulterior motive has come to light so far, although investigation is underway. Singh said that the statue was installed in 2008 by the Nagar Palika.Congress state president Sachin Pilot that the incidents of vandalism of statues in the last few weeks "have made it clear that anti-social elements feel emboldened under BJP. People did not hand over the reins of the country to BJP to increase the differences but to respect and uphold the constitution and constitutional values."

I&B min orders transfer of CBFC Kolkata chief

KOLKATA: The regional officer of the Central Board of Film Certification has been transferred out less than three months after being posted here.

The order, signed by an information and broadcasting ministry undersecretary on April 3, states CBFC regional officer Samrat Bandyopadhyay has now been posted as the deputy director of Kolkata's Press Information Bureau.

Partha Ghosh, who has been the deputy director of Kolkata's PIB, will take over as the regional officer of CBFC. The transfer order comes close on the heels of a series of allegations against the regional officer to Union I&B minister Smriti Irani. Two phone calls to Bandyopadhyay regarding the transfer went unanswered; there was no response to a text message either.Samrat Bandyopadhyay took over as the CBFC's regional officer on January 8 this year after serving as the deputy director of New Delhi's PIB. One of the highlights of his stint was the series of letters — some complaints and some praising his work — that went from producers to the CBFC.

SP to celebrate Ambedkar Jayanti after after friendship with Mayawati

Lucknow. After its new found bonhomie with the BSP won it two Lok sabha seats in recent bypolls in Uttar Pradesh, the Samajwadi Party is set to celebrate Dr Ambedkar Jayanti on April 14 in a big way.The party which has stayed content with celebrating anniversaries of socialist idealogues like Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia and Janeshwar Misra so far has asked all its district units to celebrate Ambedkar Jayanti at the district party headquarters or any public place to mark the day.

Though the Samajwadi Party's move has not gone down well with the BJP, which has termed it a big drama, political analyst Ramesh Dixit said it is aimed at further consolidating the relations."All the forces of social justice are coming together on one platform… this move is aimed at consolidating the friendship for the cause of defeating rivals," Dixit said, who retired as head of the political science department of Lucknow University. "It is also a move to claim the legacy of social justice espoused by these parties which was being grabbed by the BJP which has had no connection with them," he said.Samajwadi Party which had been holding customary functions on Ambedkar Jayanti has this time asked its partymen to recall the services of Babasaheb as also his resolve taken while framing the Constitution. Sp's state unit president Party Naresh Uttam said that on 127th anniversary of Babasaheb this April 14, all district and city unit heads have been asked to pay homage and recall his immense contribution to the country and emancipation of the downtrodden.

This will be perhaps the first time that a conscious effort is being made by the SP to ensure celebrations on Dr Ambedkar Jayanti on a big scale.

The BSP had been organising Ambedkar Jayanti annually on a big scale with its president Mayawati leading partymen in paying homage to the Dalit icon. There are, however, no plans yet to hold any joint SP-BSP programmes on the day. "It is wrong to say that we will be celebrating Ambedkar Jayanti for the first time. The party has always paid tributes to Dr Ambedkar on his birth and death anniversary and we hold him in high esteem," SP spokesman Rajendra Chaudhary said.

A senior SP leader on condition of anonymity said that party will try to remove doubts in the minds, if any, that its ideology was at variance with that of BSP and reach out to all sections of society.

Cauvery water row:

Tamil Nadu bandh takes toll on rail, road traffic

Several areas in Chenni and in other parts of the state saw massive protests which disrupted normal life.

Chennai: Road and rail traffic has taken a massive hit across Tamil Nadu due to a bandh called by DMK to protest against Centre's 'failure' to set up a Cauvery Management Board.

State capital of Chennai bore the brunt of protests on Tuesday and several areas including Anna Salai, Kodambakkam and Nungambakkam seeing protests. News agency ANI reported that morning traffic, in particular, took a hit and with trade unions opting to join the protests, bus services too were affected. Similar scenes were reported from elsewhere in the state. Bus services in Hosur and Trichy were interrupted, and KSRTC inter-state bus service from neighbouring Karnataka was disrupted as well.

There were reports of several trains to and from the state running late because of the protests. Most shop owners and local traders kept their establishments locked. The dawn-to-dusk bandh call by the main opposition DMK has received the backing of a number of organisations representing farmers, traders, trade unions, lawyers, lawyers and others. The bandh comes just days after the ruling AIADMK had called a hunger strike over the issue.

Kathua rape-murder case: Tests confirm victim held in prayer hall, was sedated

Jammu. FORENSIC TESTS have revealed that the eight-year-old girl from the Bakherwal community, who was killed after being allegedly raped, was held captive for days under the influence of sedatives at a "devsthan" (prayer hall) maintained by one of the accused at Rasana village in Kathua near Jammu, sources told The Indian Express.Analysing strands of hair recovered from the hall by the J&K Police Crime Branch, which is investigating the case, a Delhi-based forensic sciences laboratory has cited DNA tests to confirm in its report that they belong to the victim and that she was constantly given sedatives, sources said. "With this, the investigation is almost complete and we will approach court in the next couple of days," said a J&K Crime Branch officer, speaking on condition of anonymity.

According to sources, the post-mortem report has confirmed traces of Clonazepam, a known sedative, in the girl's body. They said the prayer hall from where the strands of hair were recovered, based on information from one of the accused, was maintained by retired revenue official Sanji Ram who is among the eight arrested in the case, along with his son Vishal and nephew Shubham.The Crime Branch had also arrested two Special Police Officers (SPOs) Deepak Khajuria and Surinder Kumar, a Rasana resident Parvesh Kumar, Assistant Sub Inspector Anand Dutta and Head Constable Tilak Raj in the case. Dutta and Raj were arrested on charges of attempting to destroy evidence. Ram, who has been described by police as "the main conspirator", surrendered on March 20, while his son was arrested from Meerut where he had been pursuing a B.

मुंबई, दि.५ : रौनक शर्मा (नाबाद ६०) आणि शिवम दुबे (नाबाद २९ आणि २३/४) यांच्या दमदार खेळाच्या बळावर कर्नाटक स्पोर्टिंग असोसिएशन एम.आय.जी. क्रिकेट क्लबचा ४ विकेट राखून पराभव केला तर दादर युनियन संघाने कांगा साखळी अ गटातील विजयेचा संघावर ६ विकेट राखून मात करीत १६व्या प्रबोधन मुंबई टी-२० क्रिकेट स्पर्धेत विजयी सलामी दिली. कर्नाटकचा शिवम दुबे आणि दादर युनियनचा सिराज पाटील हे सामनावीर ठरले.
