Jack Ma's name omitted from Chinese state newspaper's list of leading entrepreneurs

New Delhi: Alibaba Group founder Jack Ma has been left off a list of Chinese entrepreneurial leaders published by state media - the snub underscoring how far his fall has fallen out of favour with Beijing.

China's best-known businessman was not mentioned in an front-page article published by the Shanghai Securities News. Instead, Huawei Technologies' Ren Zhengfei, Xiaomi Corp's Lei Jun and BYD's Wang Chuanfu were lauded for their contributions. It was published on Tuesday when Alibaba will also report its latest quarterly earnings. The e-commerce giant did not immediately respond to a request for comment. The catalyst for Ma's current woes was an Oct. 24 speech in which he blasted China's regulatory system, leading to the suspension of its Ant Group's $37 billion IPO just days before the fintech giant's listing.

Regulators have since launched an anti-trust probe into the tech sector with Alibaba taking much of the heat, while tighter regulations for Ant Group are also being considered. Ma, who is not known for shying away from the limelight, subsequently disappeared from the public eye for about three months, triggering frenzied speculation about his whereabouts. He re-emerged last month with a 50-second video appearance. The Shanghai Securities News said that while some of the entrepreneurs it praised had once behaved like "reckless heroes" in their efforts to break away from an old, rigid economic system, they now led "a group of companies that respected the rules of development and abided by market rules."

Markets cheer Budget 2021: Sensex reclaims 50,000-mark, Nifty gains over 400 points

Mumbai: Enthusiasm over various measures announced in the Budget, Sensex on Tuesday reclaimed the 50,000-mark in the opening session while the Nifty climbed over 400 points to trade over 14,700 points. The BSE gauge Sensex was trading over 50,000 mark, witnessing a strong rally over 1,500 points or 3.16 per cent in opening deals. Likewise, the NSE barometer Nifty was higher by 447 points or 3.15 per cent at 14,728 in early trade.

According to exchange data, foreign portfolio investors (FPIs) purchased shares worth a net ₹1,494.23 crore on Monday. Asian markets were also trading broadly higher in afternoon trade. Economists and market analysts are of the view that this is a bold growth-oriented budget and absence of the much-fared COVID tax and the surcharges on income tax is a great relief. Besides, privatisation of two nationalised banks and proposal of monetisation of assets like land are clear positives, according to them. Market response to the budget reflects growth optimism and in the end, the government has presented a pragmatic, bold and visionary budget in these difficult times, they said.

Elon Musk says THIS about Bitcoin; statement sends the cryptocurrency up 14%

San Francisco: Billionaire Elon Musk said on Monday Bitcoin was "on the verge" of being more widely accepted among investors as he expressed his support for the cryptocurrency in a chat on social media app Clubhouse that drew thousands of listeners.

The comments followed his use of the "Bitcoin" tag on his Twitter profile on Friday, which pushed the cryptocurrency up 14%. Musk, CEO of Tesla Inc, is known for making comments on Twitter that move markets and he acknowledged this during his debut on the invitation-only app Clubhouse.
