Integrated Annual Report FY 2024-25

A Journey of Perseverance and Self-Discovery

By Gauri Bagwe

"I struggled. I stumbled. Yet I never stopped walking."

Gauri's story is not just about academic success—it's about discovering your voice when the world underestimates you. Diagnosed with dyslexia at a young age, Gauri often found herself on the sidelines in school, quietly battling to stay afloat. "I was treated like an outlier," she says, remembering how even reading and writing felt like monumental tasks. With the unwavering support of her parents and propelled by her own quiet tenacity, she achieved academic success through remedial classes and extra tutoring.

During her teenage years, Gauri discovered a fulfilment through social work. Her academic struggles paled with the r strength and direction she found through her volunteering extracurricular activities.

"My professor once nominated me for the 'Student of the Year' award based on my extracurricular activities. I didn't win, yet this was a defining moment in my life that gave me an invaluable lesson —belief in myself."
The lesson became a turning point in Gauri's life. Qualifying for the entrance exam of a reputed MBA program —something she once believed was out of reach—was an achievement in itself. Mahindra Lifespaces recognized her potential during campus recruitments and offered her the Mahindra platform to soar. Her story is a powerful reminder that resilience is not about leaping the highest, but about rising every time you fall.

"This journey has taught me one thing: keep moving forward, no matter what, and you will eventually reach your destination."

Tejal's Triumph: Beating the Odds to Achieve CA Excellence

By Manoj Kasture

When you meet Tejal, you don't first see her challenges—you see her will.

Behind her calm confidence lies a story of grit and grace. Diagnosed with mucormycosis, vocal cord malfunction, and insulin-dependent diabetes, Tejal's health could have restricted her dreams. Instead, she took charge. After five months of hospitalisation and a missed CA attempt, she came back stronger—and cleared both groups of the CA Final in two subsequent attempts in addition to scoring exemptions.

"She's a reminder that quiet determination can move mountains," says Manoj Kasture her hiring manager, who was so inspired by her will and determination, that he ensured she got placed in a team in Mahindra that served her location preference requirements.

"Each challenge Tejal faced was met with belief—not in perfection, but in perseverance," he reflects.

Beyond her professional excellence, Tejal is a talented dancer. Her story isn't just about passing an exam. It's about rising, again and again, with resilience in her heart and purpose in her stride.

MESSAGE FROM CHAIRMAN

Dear Stakeholders,

It is my privilege to present to you the Integrated Annual Report of Mahindra Lifespaces for FY 2024-25.

Since the Covid-19 pandemic, there has been a clear trend toward premiumization in all sectors, and as applicable to this sector, a marked increase in demand for larger homes with amenities. As per analysts, this upcycle in demand was driven by pent up demand and favorable home loan rates. Robust economic growth is further fueling sustained demand in the housing sector. The main determinant for continued demand will be job creation in the economy.

Coming to our company, I am glad to note that this year's performance reflects our unwavering commitment to progress as we shape our journey towards 5X growth. This year has been exceptional - characterized by strategic expansion, customer-centric design, disciplined execution, and reaffirmed our commitment to contributing to India's growth journey. Our performance across residential and industrial segments reflects the strength of our purpose-led business model. Financial prudence remains core to our strategy, guided by clear return metrics and a strong focus on capital allocation.

THE YEAR IN RETROSPECT

FY 2024-25 was a pivotal year, focused on both growth and consolidation. We achieved our highest-ever gross development value (GDV) of ₹ 18,100 crore - a fourfold increase from FY 2023-24 (₹ 4,400 crore). This remarkable growth was driven by focused land acquisition across key mid-premium and premium markets in Mumbai, Pune, and Bengaluru.

We ended the year with our highest-ever consolidated operating cash flow of ₹832 crore (up 30% YoY), while maintaining a stable net debt-to-equity ratio of 0.39.

FUTURE OUTLOOK

We have built a strong residential pipeline that positions us for sustained long-term growth. Our new brand positioning "Home of Positive Energy" focuses on how our homes foster wellness, community, and sustainability. This refreshed brand has garnered positive customer response.

In our Integrated Cities and Industrial Clusters (IC&IC) business, we are aligning our efforts with the Government of India's "Make in India" initiative. We remain focused on unlocking value across 1,600+ acres of available leasable area, from which, over a period, we expect to generate cumulative revenues of ₹5,000-6,000 crore.

We remain committed to our 5X growth ambition—aiming to achieve ₹10,000 crore in annual pre-sales within the next five years. To future-proof the organization, we are actively investing in digital capabilities, leadership development, brand positioning and sustainability—guided by the Mahindra Group's "Rise" philosophy to create shared value for all stakeholders.

The Group has supported our company in many ways, including committing resources by way of a rights issue. This issue is underway, as of the date of writing of this message.

OUR STEADFASTNESS

FY 2024–25 reaffirmed that when strategy meets purpose, impact follows. While external conditions may continue to evolve, our focus on excellence, transparency, and long-term value remains unwavering.

On behalf of the Board, I express my sincere gratitude to our shareholders, customers, employees, government, stakeholders, and joint venture partners. Your continued support has been instrumental in our success. We remain deeply committed to delivering growth that is meaningful, responsible, and profitable in the years ahead.

Warm regards,

Ameet Hariani

MESSAGE FROM MANAGING DIRECTOR AND CEO

Dear Stakeholders,

As I take a moment to reflect on the past year, I am reminded of my recent trip to Mount Fuji in Japan. The breathtaking beauty of nature and its profound influence on Japanese culture left a lasting impression on me. I couldn't help but draw parallels to the organization we have built over the years. Towering and timeless, the peak often remains shrouded in clouds, revealed only to those who are patient and persistent enough to make the climb. It is said that if you can see the summit clearly, you are among the fortunate. In many ways, this past year at Mahindra Lifespaces has felt like our business has scaled our own Mount Fuji. We have embarked on an inspiring journey of discovery and transformation, continuing our "Rise" from strength to strength.

The climb to Mount Fuji requires intention, preparation, and discipline. Our path mirrors this, as FY 2024-25 marked a steep ascent in our business, highlighted by significant land acquisitions across our portfolio. Our efforts resulted in a fourfold growth in Gross Development Value (GDV) to ₹ 18,100 crore over FY 2023-24 (₹ 4,400 crore). This GDV is the foundation that will help realize our scale-up journey.

Residential pre-sales reached ₹ 2,804 crore, reflecting a 20.4% growth over FY 2023-24, driven by successful launches such as Vista Ph2, IvyLush, Zen and Green Estates. Our focus on premium projects and innovative designs, including walk-in wardrobes and large decks, has been well-received by customers. While market demand has supported strong absorption during initial launch windows, we recognize the sector's cyclical nature. We are, therefore, building a portfolio that can stand the cyclicality of the business.

Our Integrated Cities and Industrial Clusters (IC&IC) business has undergone a remarkable transformation and emerging as a true differentiator driven by China+1 and domestic consumption themes. With a cumulative footprint of 5,737 acres, Mahindra World City in Chennai and Jaipur, along with Origins by Mahindra in Chennai, continue to attract global clients. Our plug-and-play model, clean energy integration, robust water and waste management, and seamless access to transport corridors set us apart. In FY 2024-25 alone, we leased 85.1 acres to marquee customers, generating ₹ 495 crore in revenue.

Our financial performance has been steady, with a Profit After Tax (PAT) at ₹ 61.3 crore, supported by strong operating cash flows. Our consolidated operating cash flow reached ₹ 832 crore in FY 2024-25, marking a 30% growth over FY 2023-24. These accomplishments have made our goals more tangible, positioning us well to achieve our ambition of 5X growth within five years. With deliberate planning, thorough preparation, and a disciplined approach we are now poised for unstoppable growth.

We support this scale-up with capital discipline, announcing a ₹ 1,500 crore rights issue, a decisive step to reduce debt and fund our future expansion across high-potential markets (Mumbai, Pune, Bengaluru). These markets have demonstrated high absorption and buoyancy, with significant potential for long-term value creation, as demand outpaces supply. This capital infusion signals financial prudence and reinforces the deep belief our shareholders and promoters have in our long-term vision.

At Mahindra Lifespaces, we align our actions with the 'Planet Positive' vision of the Mahindra Group, for greening our own operations, decarbonizing the value chain, and rejuvenating nature. We have maintained our 100% green portfolio. This year we received multiple certifications, three IGBC Platinum, one IGBC Gold, one 3-star GRIHA, two IGBC Net Zero Energy, and one Net Zero Waste. These are in line with our commitment to create all new developments as Net Zero by 2030.

We are relentlessly striving to be industry pioneers in various aspects. One such example is our new brand idea, 'Home of Positive Energy,' which reflects our commitment to responding to evolving customer needs. These homes go beyond concrete; they are havens filled with light, ventilation, green spaces, and a unique community feel. Our projects continue to integrate material circularity, and our design teams consistently innovate to minimize embodied carbon in construction. .

Our people are our greatest asset, and we are deeply committed to fostering an inclusive culture where we work hard and play harder. FY 2024-25 marked the launch of several new programs on employee learning and development initiatives such as m-LEAD and m-LEAP, designed to groom mid-level and young talent for long-term, high-impact careers. Additionally, m-Ignite is our quarterly behavioral training initiative focused on enhancing managerial and operational skills.

Through our #AccelerateAction platform, we have amplified the voices of those who inspire us, turning everyday resilience into extraordinary narratives. During Women's Day celebrations, I witnessed firsthand how deeply our culture is rooted in inclusivity, resilience, and spirit. It reminded me of why we do what we do—and, more importantly, who we do it with. This year, our employees inspired us with stories of resilience, grit, and hope. We honoured Tejal, a young finance professional who overcame facial paralysis and chronic illness to clear her CA Finals with distinction. We spotlighted Gauri, who battled early academic struggles due to dyslexia, discovered a passion for social work, and is now thriving in a role she earned through resilience—these stories reflect the human spirit we aim to empower. By providing equal opportunity, wellness, continuous learning programs, and a flexible work environment, we create a platform for our talent to thrive and enable us to grow from Strength to Strength.

As we look to the future, I return to the paradigm of Mount Fuji. Its peak remains hidden to many, but for those willing to stay the course, it reveals its summit. Our path, too, may have moments of obscurity—but it is rooted in purpose, strength, and belief. We are not just climbing; we are transforming; and we are doing it together, steadily working towards scaling the peak of our ambition.

Warm regards,

Amit Kumar Sinha
Managing Director & CEO

ESG and climate change risks

Our ERM framework integrates long-term ESG risks from our materiality assessment with site-specific risks evaluated internally. We identify short, medium, and long-term ESG risks including climate risks across operations, upstream (suppliers), and downstream (customers) value chain, embedding them into financial and business planning. Supplier and procurement risks are factored into upstream strategies, while labor welfare and weather preparedness address climate-related operational disruptions. Downstream, climate risks present opportunities for a greener product portfolio, tracked through our environmental management system's impact register.

Risks

Risk scenario analysis

Climate risks are assessed at both corporate and site levels by cross-functional teams, mapped in the company's risk register, and reviewed periodically. Mitigation updates are shared with the Board as and when required. As a TCFD signatory, we categorize risks as:

- Physical risks - Infrastructure damage due to climate events like floods.
- Transition risks - Financial impacts from shifting to a low-carbon economy, such as adopting new technologies.

We have conducted scenario analysis to assess both physical and transition climate risks, including flood modeling, thermal comfort, and low-carbon economy pathways. The insights have been integrated into our operations to minimize climate-related impacts. We evaluate our resilience under two key scenarios:

- Paris-aligned scenario (1.5°C by 2100)
- Business-as-usual scenario (4°C by 2100)

Risk Type	Description of Impact	Primary potential financial impact (₹ million)	Time horizon	Potential Cost of Response (₹ million)	Magnitude of impact (High/ Medium/ Low)

Continual progress

At Mahindra Lifespace Developers Limited, our purpose is rooted in creating sustainable urban environments that inspire better living, empower communities, and advance the principles of responsible development. Guided by a deep commitment to Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG) excellence, we envision a future where growth and sustainability go hand in hand. In alignment with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UN SDGs), we are focused on driving climate resilience, social inclusion, and ethical governance through every project we undertake.

From pioneering India's first Net Zero residential developments to promoting inclusive community engagement and responsible land use, we have made measurable progress toward our ESG goals. As we move ahead, our actions remain firmly directed toward building long-term stakeholder value while ensuring that our urban spaces are greener, smarter, and more inclusive.

We not only track, measure, and report progress against our 'Planet Positive Framework' targets, but also measure and report our progress for residential and IC & IC businesses against the Sustainability Roadmap 2025 goals and targets for residential and IC & IC respectively.

BUSINESS STRATEGY

At Mahindra Lifespaces, our business strategy is designed to deliver on our 5X growth aspiration while building long-term stakeholder value aligned with our Planet Positive roadmap. Our strategic approach balances financial discipline, ESG integration, and customer-centricity, while enabling sustainable urbanization at scale.

Our business strategy is anchored on six key pillars:

Well-engineered portfolio choices

We continue to strengthen our presence in core urban markets-MMR, Pune, and Bengaluru, focused on premium and mid-premium segments. Our strategy involves gradual exit from affordable housing and building depth in high growth micro-markets. Backed by urbanization and infrastructure tailwinds, this focused approach enables optimized capital allocation, higher margins, and differentiated positioning.

Robust business development engine

Our business development engine is designed for scale—with a structured process, strong sourcing network, and internal guardrails for investment decisions. We've added significant GDV over the past two years through a blend of outright acquisitions, joint developments, and redevelopment deals. Our approvals engine further ensures efficient land-to-launch transitions, backed by rigorous due diligence and financial discipline.

Superior customer experience

We aim to deliver market-relevant designs, high personal space index, and customer-centric innovations through standardized yet differentiated offerings. Our engagement spans the entire ownership lifecycle—from digital pre-sales to sustainability education post-possession. Initiatives like the Green Army, resident flipbooks, and loyalty events are reinforcing our brand promise and long-term customer relationships.

Project execution excellence

We follow a "First-time-right" philosophy across our project lifecycle—prioritizing build quality, on-time delivery, and cost control. Leveraging BIM, contractor partnerships, and strategic sourcing, we continue to improve construction speed, material efficiency, and design consistency. Our digital tools enable real-time visibility and tracking, ensuring project discipline as we scale.

IC&IC value maximization

Our IC&IC vertical is positioned for long-term value creation through integrated ecosystems. We continue to monetize land in Chennai and Jaipur while expanding our plug-and-play infrastructure across Origins by Mahindra and Mahindra World City. Our Sumitomo partnership, upcoming Pune cluster, and alignment with Make in India and PLI schemes position us strongly to attract both global and domestic manufacturing investments.

Robust financial discipline

We maintain strong capital discipline through IRR-based decision-making, prudent capital allocation, and consistent monitoring. Our approach ensures sustainable growth while safeguarding returns. We continue to explore strategic partnerships with institutional investors, enabling access to competitive capital and deeper expertise in scaling operations responsibly.

These strategic pillars are supported by two foundational enablers: a high-quality talent model and a high-performance culture.

SUSTAINABILITY STRATEGY

OUR ESG COMMITMENTS

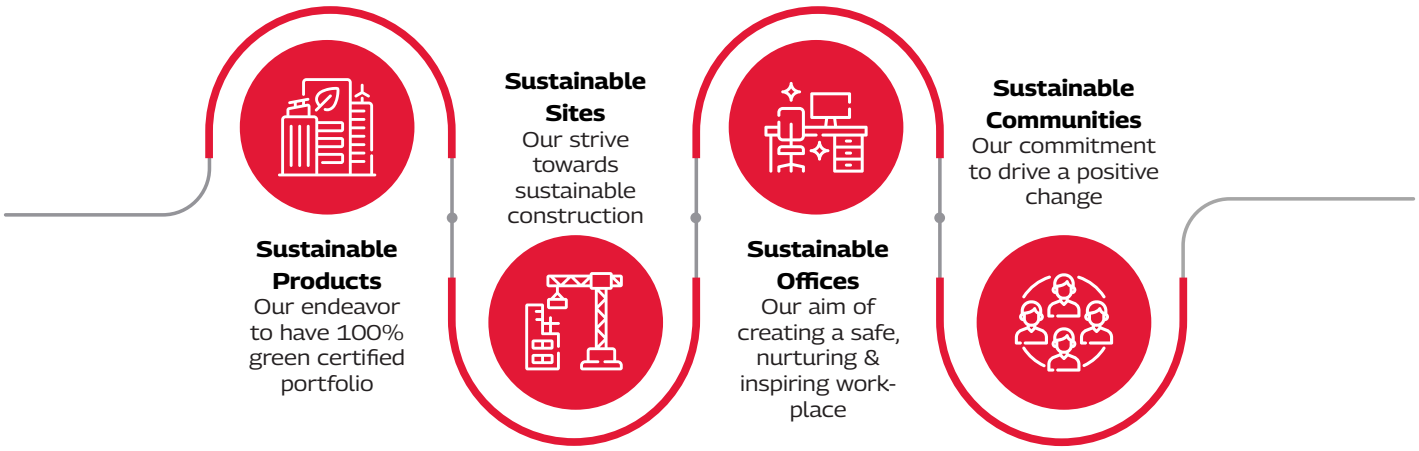

Mahindra Lifespaces sustainability ambitions are underpinned by concrete, measurable targets:

Commitment	Target Year	Description
100% Green-certified portfolio	Achieved since 2014	100% projects are green-certified (IGBC - Gold and above/GRIHA 4-Star or above)
Net zero developments	By 2030	Develop only Net Zero Energy, Waste & Water buildings by 2030
Carbon neutrality	By 2040	Scope 1 & 2 carbon neutrality target aligned to Mahindra Group
Science-based targets (SBTi)	Approved in 2019	Among India's first real estate firms with SBTi-aligned to 1.5°C targets
Water positive developments	By 2030	Make all developments water resilient by 2030 (during construction phase)
Zero waste to landfill	By 2030	Ensure zero waste is sent to landfill across developments by 2030 (during construction phase)

These commitments are supported by the company's active participation in national and international sustainability platforms such as the Indian Green Building Council (IGBC), Green Rating for Integrated Habitat Assessment (GRIHA), The Indian Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air Conditioning Engineers (ISHRAE), , Global Alliance for Building and Construction (GABC), Science Based Target Initiative (SBTi), Solar Decathlon India (SDI), Decarbonization Business Charter (DBC), and the Conference Of Parties (COP) DBC was formulated in 2022 by MLDL in partnership with WRI India, AEEE, and EcoCollab for sectoral decarbonization.

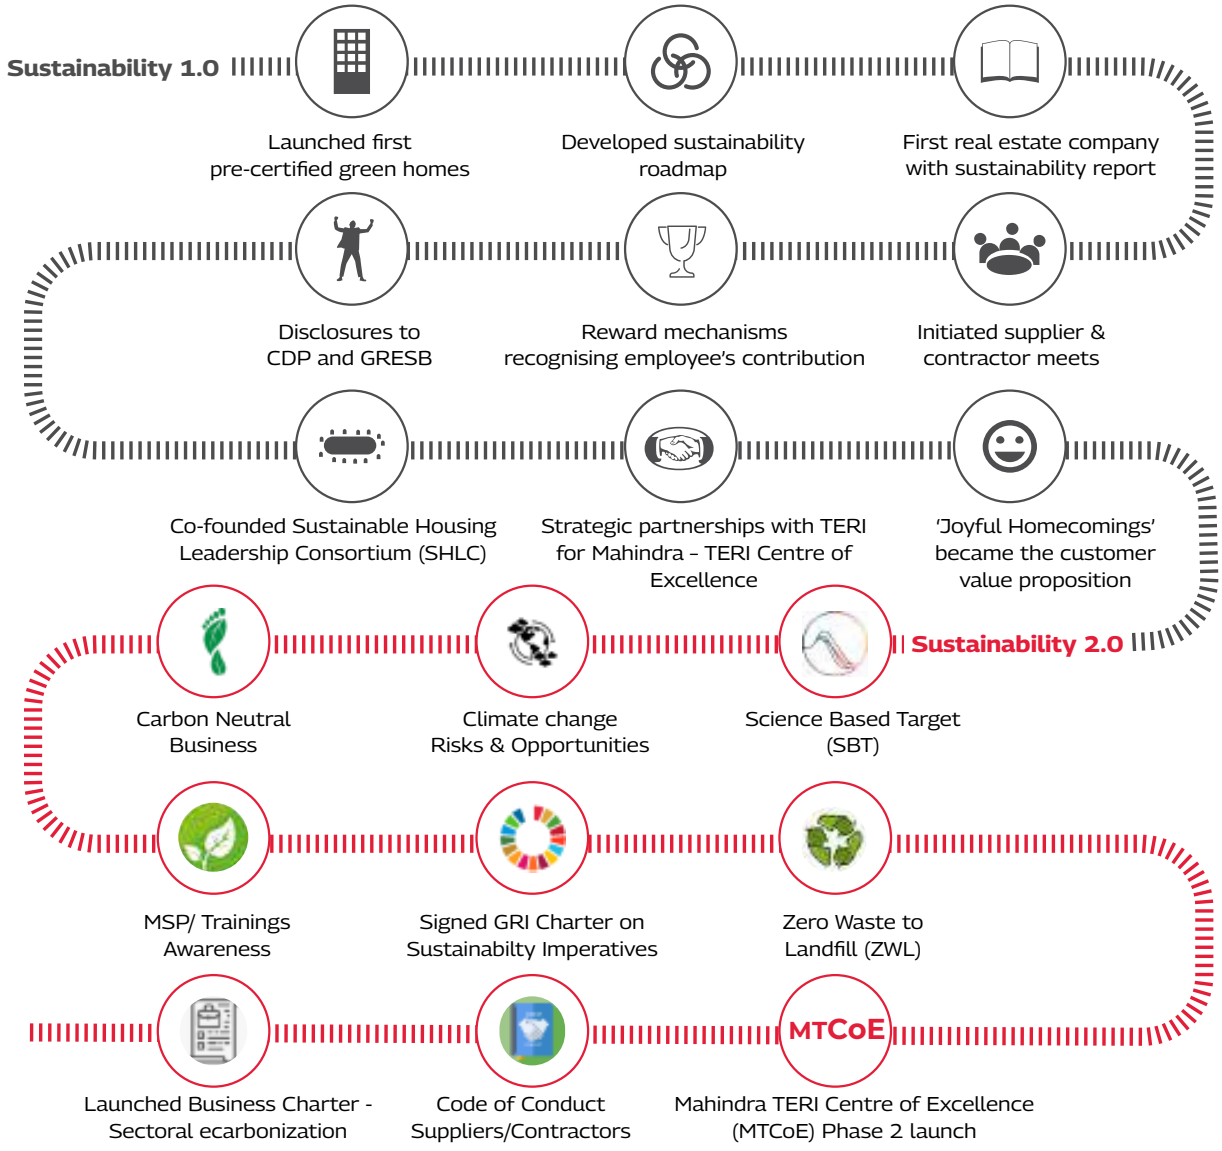

OUR SUSTAINABILITY POLICY

Our Sustainability Policy reflects a structured, governance-backed approach to ESG integration. It is built on four interconnected pillars, which span product development, project execution, internal operations, and value chain engagement.

OUR ESG JOURNEY

Over the past decade, Mahindra Lifespaces has advanced its ESG commitments through two structured phases of transformation:

- Sustainability 1.0 laid the foundation for our ESG journey. We became the first Indian real estate company to publish a sustainability report (FY 2011-12) and committed early to a 100% green-certified portfolio. This phase also focused on setting up ESG compliance systems, launching two sustainability roadmaps, operationalizing green certifications, and initiating responsible supply chain practices.
- Sustainability 2.0 deepened ESG integration across our value chain. We embedded Climate Responsive Design (CRD) in all projects, applied site-level sustainability maturity tools, and expanded employee and customer engagement on green living. This phase also marked a bold shift with the launch of India's first Net Zero homes — making 'Zero' a new aspiration in sustainable urban development.

LOOKING AHEAD: SCALING PLANET POSITIVE, RESPONSIBLY

MLDL's sustainability ambitions are underpinned by concrete, measurable targets:

Focus Area	What's Next
Integrated ESG dashboards & green design tools	Deploy integrated ESG dashboards to track emissions, water, waste, and supplier KPIs; design decision making tools for green/Net Zero buildings.
Stakeholder co-creation	Take DBC to the next level and ensure signatories collaborate for pilots, channelize funding to signatories, rollout of Monitoring Reporting and Verification (MRV) framework.
Sustainability-linked finance	Explore funding for innovative low carbon pilots, align our strategy to India's Climate finance taxonomy.
Workforce learning & engagement	Deepen associate engagement through training on specific green building concepts, training tools (e.g., M-Skill, visual SOPs), safety campaigns, and multilingual capacity-building content focused on construction and operational sustainability.
Triple net zero implementation	Prepare for the shift to 100% Net Zero Energy, Water, and Waste high rise residential buildings starting FY 2029-30, supported by lifecycle carbon accounting, and passive first design norms

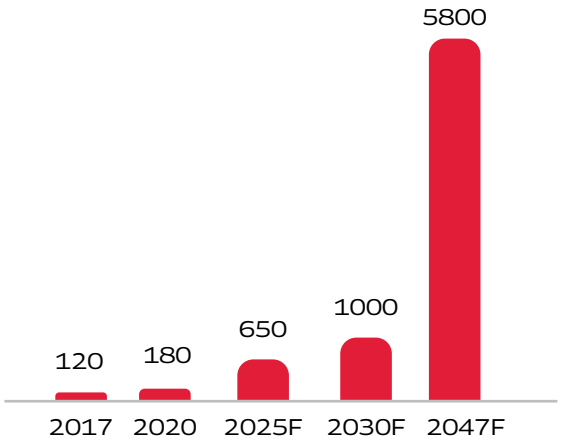

We are scaling our ESG ambition through deeper lifecycle impact assessments, cross-functional ESG dashboards, and alignment to frameworks such as BRSR, GRI 2021, SBTi, and TCFD. Our Planet Positive strategy will continue to inform product design, procurement, community engagement, and investor dialogue as we move towards 100% Net Zero building development by FY 2029-30.

SECTORAL TRENDS

India's real estate sector is being reshaped by climate imperatives, regulatory reforms, shifting buyer preferences, and digital adoption. The sector's future lies at the intersection of sustainability, livability, and transparency.

Demand is steadily rising for mid-premium and premium homes, now comprising 16% of total housing sales in 2024, up from 6% in 2019[1]. This is driven by rising incomes, nuclear families, and the pursuit of integrated lifestyles in well-connected urban micro-markets. Despite elevated mortgage rates, 2023 saw strong momentum in the mid-to-premium segments across India's top 8 cities[2]. While government schemes such as PMAY[3] Urban and CLSS[4] continue to support affordable housing, developers are increasingly focused on wellness, ESG-aligned design, and differentiated experiences.

India's green building market is projected to reach USD 85 billion by FY 2031-32, growing at a 10.59% CAGR[2]. Stronger ESG mandates, rising climate awareness, and uptake of green finance are driving this shift. Global frameworks like the Chaillot Declaration and Buildings Breakthrough are advancing circular, low-carbon construction. Domestic programs like AMRUT 2.0 and Smart Cities Mission[2] are enabling digital infrastructure, while startups in the real estate sector are bringing out eco-friendly products and solutions.

India's real estate sector is expected to expand to US$ 5.8 trillion by 2047, contributing 15.5% to the GDP from an existing share of 7.3%, Source: IBEF

In the industrial and logistics space, India is gaining traction through PLI schemes, export-led manufacturing, and demand for EV, data centers, and warehousing. Integrated industrial parks with plug-and-play infrastructure are emerging as preferred models, backed by improved connectivity and policy support like PM Gati Shakti and National Logistics Policy.

With India's urban population projected to cross 542.7 million by 2025 and 675.5 million by 2035[5], the next decade of real estate will be premium, climate-aligned, and disclosure-driven.

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT AND MATERIALITY

GRI 2-29, 2

We recognize stakeholders as active co-creators of our sustainable development agenda. Our ability to create long-term value is inherently linked to the trust and expectations of those who are directly or indirectly impacted by our operations. We identify our stakeholders using a multi-dimensional framework that considers influence, proximity, and dependency. In FY 2024-25, we reaffirmed our nine core stakeholder groups, reflecting our value chain and operational ecosystem:

[1] CBRE India Market Report 2024
[2] GlobalData - India Green Infrastructure Outlook
[3] PMAY: Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana
[4] CLSS: Credit Linked Subsidy Scheme
[5] IBEF real estate 2025

DOUBLE MATERIALITY ASSESSMENT

GRI 3-1, 3

In FY 2023-24, we transitioned to a Double Materiality approach, in alignment with GRI Standards 2021 and global reporting best practices. This methodology helped us analyze both:

- The impact of Mahindra Lifespaces on ESG issues (Impact Materiality), and
- The effect of ESG issues on our business and financial performance (Financial Materiality)

Materiality Assessment Steps:

1. Preliminary identification of material issues via stakeholder input and internal consultations
2. Mapping of risks, opportunities, and regulatory relevance
3. Prioritization and validation through leadership review
4. Integration into the Planet Positive 2030 roadmap and enterprise strategy

OUR DOUBLE MATERIALITY MATRIX

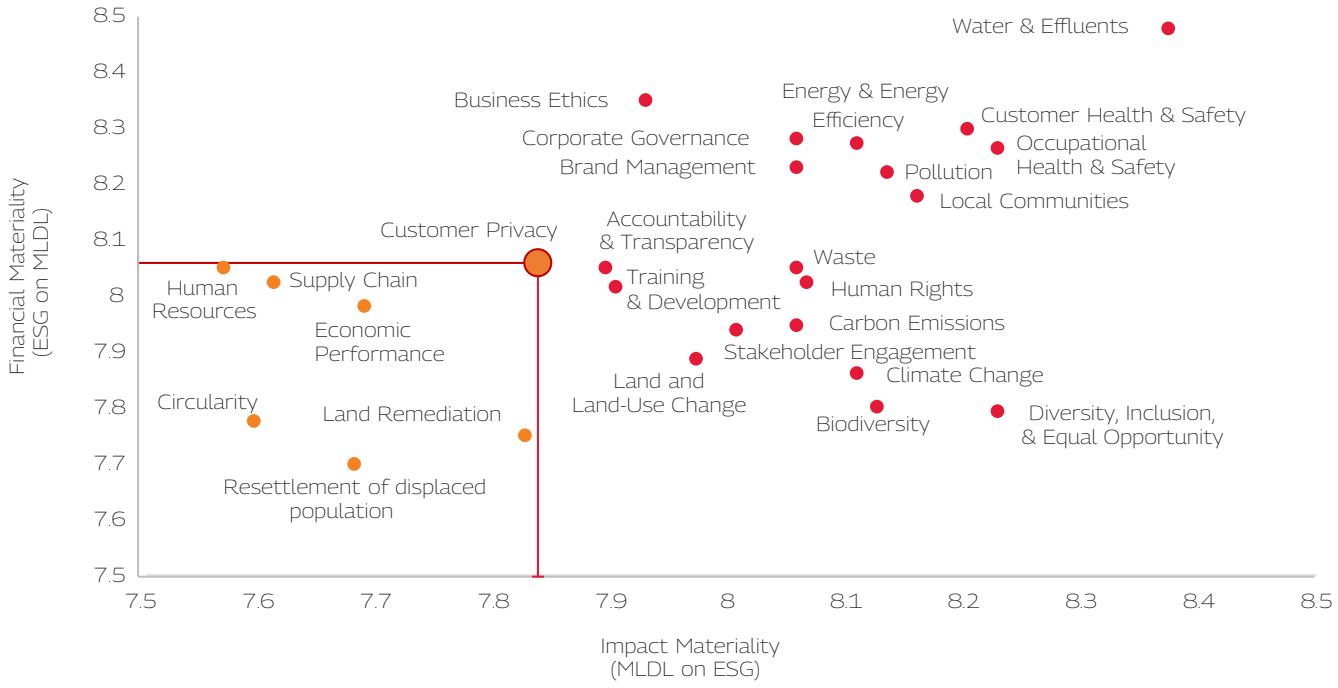

GRI 3-2 ,3

In FY 2023-24, we adopted a Double Materiality approach to enhance the relevance and depth of its ESG disclosures and strategic planning. This matrix evaluates each material topic along two axes: its significance to stakeholders (social and environmental impact) and its influence on the company's business performance (financial materiality). By integrating both lenses, the matrix helps identify priority focus areas where sustainability outcomes and business value intersect most meaningfully. Topics positioned in the top-right quadrant—such as Climate Change, Health & Safety, Sustainable Procurement, and Governance—form the basis for deeper board-level oversight, strategic investment, and transparent reporting. This approach ensures that material ESG themes are not only reactive but also predictive of risks, opportunities, and stakeholder expectations across the value chain.

At Mahindra Lifespaces, sustainability in design is not a feature-it's the foundation. Every project balances five lenses: site, regulation, customer, business, and environmental responsibility. With the 10X growth aspiration guiding us, our design culture embeds sustainability as a non-negotiable, with certifications treated as outcomes-not aspirations. From climate-responsive layouts to material innovation like Porotherm blocks, we are constantly advancing design with purpose. The Mahindra Centre of Innovation is leading the charge with tools like Sky Scanner and post-occupancy performance tracking. Design is now data-backed, stakeholder-driven, and aligned to our vision of creating Homes of Positive Energy.

OPERATIONAL EXCELLENCE

Our operational excellence is defined by our approach that helps us bring our sustainability ambitions to life consistently, at scale, and with rigor. Across every project, our execution is grounded in a three-pillar approach that integrates:

Pillar	What We Do	Outcomes Delivered
Conscious planning and sustainable design	Optimize building orientation, integrate low-carbon materials, and plan for Net Zero	• 5-30% energy savings, • 97% waste diversion, • 100% green-certified launches
Responsible construction	Deploy waste reuse, water conservation, biodiversity protection, and air quality measures	• 10,000+ tonnes of waste diverted, improved AQI, composting and water reuse across sites
Quality and technology	Standardize specifications, deploy building information modeling (BIM), use quality tracking tools, and upskill teams	• 92 NPS score: Mahindra Certified Engineers' training program • 76 NPS score: Overall quality initiatives

INTEGRATING SUSTAINABILITY THROUGHOUT THE LIFECYCLE OF A PROJECT

Site selection and land acquisition	• Due diligence that goes beyond legal compliance • Environmental and social impact assessment • Biodiversity and human rights assessments • Resettlement plans wherever required
Planning and design	• Climate responsive design, passive and active design strategies, , and universal access • Daylighting and ventilation efficiency, energy-optimized building envelopes • Specification of alternate low-carbon materials and native landscape species water-efficient plumbing systems and low-VOC paints for healthier interiors
Construction	• Resource optimization and circular use of materials • Rainwater harvesting and wastewater reuse systems • LED lighting and organic waste composting infrastructure
Product launch	• Ethical marketing and transparent customer engagement • Structured post-sales feedback mechanisms and occupancy surveys • Sustainability-focused buyer engagement and customer handholding via newsletters, walkthroughs, and welcome kits
Product handover	• Maintenance of common areas and common infrastructure • Customer care, grievance redressal, and amenities provision

Quality control is not limited to any phase of project but is applicable to all our project phases

In the sections that follow we deep-dive into the first three phases of the sustainability integration approach- through our 3-pillar delivery approach. At Mahindra Lifespaces, sustainability is embedded across every phase of the development lifecycle -from site selection to post-handover engagement, including the value chain, deepening our focus on Net Zero-readiness at the design stage across residential and IC&IC developments.

CONSCIOUS PLANNING AND SUSTAINABLE DESIGN

Site selection and land acquisition

We prioritize non-arable land, particularly parcels with minimal ecological and social impact, which is located on barren land with no to minimal displacement required. All sites undergo rigorous screening for environmental risk, proximity to water bodies, biodiversity value, and human rights implications.

As part of our approach:

- Detailed Environmental and Social Impact Assessments (ESIA) are conducted pre-acquisition
- Biodiversity risks, including proximity to Ramsar sites or protected habitats, are assessed
- Resettlement and rehabilitation plans are prepared wherever applicable, in line with the Rehabilitation Act
- Ground-level engagement with nearby communities informs planning and supports inclusive development
- Hydrology and hydrogeology studies are conducted by subject matter experts to determine flood risk potential and mitigation measures, and groundwater recharge potential respectively

Additionally, our land development model emphasizes preserving natural features such as topsoil and native flora, which are later reused in landscaping across projects.

Planning and Design

We design for performance — ensuring sustainability, efficiency, and customer comfort from the blueprint stage. Every project is evaluated for passive design potential, including orientation, natural ventilation, daylighting, and thermal comfort. Our building envelopes are optimized for energy efficiency using solar-reflective materials, low window-to-wall ratios, and cross-ventilation technique.

Our FY 2024-25 interventions strengthened our commitment to circular, climate-responsive design:

- Introduced Porotherm clay block walls at our upcoming project's Sales Gallery in Bengaluru, a first-of-its-kind integration of low carbon and thermally efficient walling material for us
- Design for reuse of aluminium shuttering (60–70 cycles per project) and recycled steel
- Replaced up to 31% (on an average) of cement in concrete with ground granulated blast furnace slag (GGBS) or fly ash avoiding ~47,000 tCO_2e and potential saving ₹ 1.5 crore

Water-sensitive planning was integrated across sites with

- Dual plumbing systems, low-flow fixtures, and rainwater harvesting
- Landscapes designed for greywater reuse and reduced irrigation demand
- Slope-sensitive layout enabled recharge pit planning and runoff control at Mahindra World City Chennai, Green Estates

- Saves ~7,000 kWh of energy annually
- Avoids 5 tCO_2e per year
- Payback period is ~5 years from energy cost savings

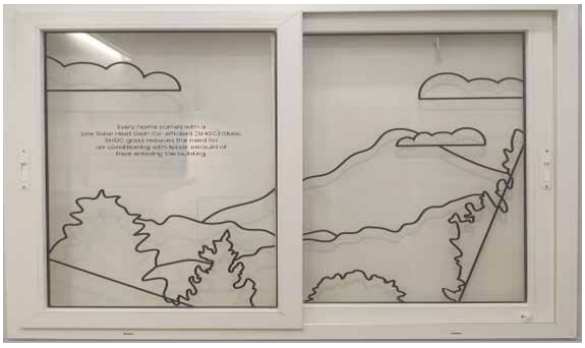

- Climate Responsive Design (CRD) approach reduced dependence on artificial lighting and cooling by integrating:
  - Optimized orientation, ventilation, insulation, and daylighting
  - Low-SHGC glazing, efficient walls and roofing assemblies
  - Standard green features such as VOC-free paints and universal access

These demand reducing design strategies are further supported by standardized green features built into every product

- Universal design to allow hindrance-free movement of people with special needs
- Low VoC (Volatile Organic Compound) paint for improving indoor air quality for our customers
- Low flow fixtures for optimal water management with infrastructure for rainwater harvesting, treating of domestic wastewater, and reuse of treated water for landscaping and flushing
- Energy-efficient walls, roofs, and windows that allow daylight in habitable spaces, in addition to passive design of the buildings aiding in reducing energy consumption
- Universal design to allow hindrance-free movement of people with special needs
- Waste segregation, solar energy, solar heating, and many more green promoters that encourage our customers to optimise resource use

Demand reduction through efficient wall-roof-glazing assembly (better U-value, LED lighting, use of renewables

- We also apply sustainable procurement principles, working with vendor partners aligned to our Green Supply Chain Management policy and evaluating them through an ESG Maturity assessment tool aligned to the Code of Conduct for our suppliers and contractors.

Our layered interventions are anchored in our Net Zero Vision, which aims to achieve carbon neutrality on our scope 1 and scope (operational construction phase) emissions by 2040 and build only Net Zero (energy, waste, and water) buildings from 2030 onwards (operational use phase emissions) with India's first three Net Zero residential developments already launched by Mahindra Lifespaces.

Project	Location	Net Zero Feature	Energy Savings	Water Savings	Waste Diverted	Biodiversity Preserved
Mahindra Eden	Bengaluru	Net Zero Energy	29%	74%	90%	78%
Mahindra Vista	Mumbai	Net Zero Energy + Waste	19%	53%	97%	55%
Mahindra Zen	Bengaluru	Net Zero Energy + Waste	15%	51%	97%	29%

OUR JOURNEY TOWARDS SUSTAINABILITY INTEGRATION

Plotted development

At Mahindra World City, Chennai, sustainability doesn't begin after construction, it begins with the land. In FY 2024-25, we brought this ethos to life at Green Estates, a plotted development designed to coexist with nature, not override it.

What we preserved

- Native vegetative topsoil repurposed in landscape areas
- Existing trees preserved and design modified to accomodate the same
- Existing rock outcrops and boulders were retained and made part of landscape design

What we reimagined

- Solar streelights and use of LED in landscape area
- Dual plumbing line with use of recycled water for flushing and landscape
- Recharge pits (with swales) enabling high grounwater levels
- EV Charging stations to promote clean mobility

What We Avoided

- Minimal concrete paver blocks
- Use of earth pathways as much as possible
- Use of grass crete as tree gratingscomposting, earth trails, and grass crete

What We Enabled

- Reduce freshwater demand through use of water saving fixtures (aerators)
- Drip irrigation system
- Composting of organic waste onsite ensuring Zero Waste to Landfill development
- Native species onsite

We are building scale through a differentiated business model that blends global partnerships with deep local integration. As one of India's most successful public-private partnership players in this space, we continue to operate across four high-potential states with a strong focus on cashflow and bottom line. In FY25, we sharpened our monetization strategy through developed industrial land sales in Jaipur and Chennai, while laying the groundwork for activation in Pune and Ahmedabad. Our developments are anchored in high-quality infrastructure and aim to create self-sustained, inclusive environments. Sustainability remains central to how we design, develop, and govern — from zero-discharge policies to rooftop solar adoption and green cover preservation. As we move forward, our integrated cities and industrial clusters will continue to set new benchmarks in inclusive, future-ready industrial development.

Vikram Goel, Chief Business Officer (Industrial)

Industrial cluster

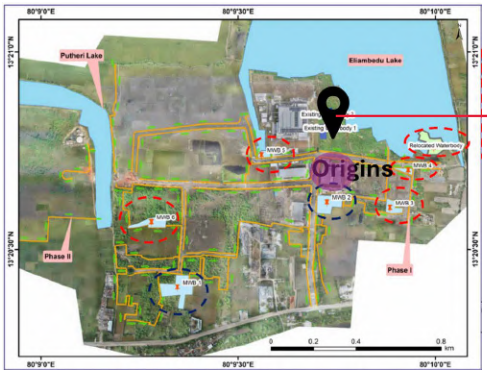

What we identified

- Water stress risks due to declining groundwater levels (50–60m depths) in Gummidipoondi, Thiruvallur (Tamil Nadu)
- High borewell dependency at Origins Chennai posed long-term business risks
- Stormwater runoff potential was underutilized despite existing natural drainage contours.
- Potential for creating seven micro waterbodies (MWBs), to harvest and retain surface runoff

What we reimagined

- MWBs designed as alternative water sources
- Storm drains rerouted to feed recharge zones and seasonal ponds
- Collaboration with IIT-Cube to model rainfall, runoff, and catchments for 7 potential MWBs
- MWB-2 developed in G3 zone to harvest 83 million liters annually

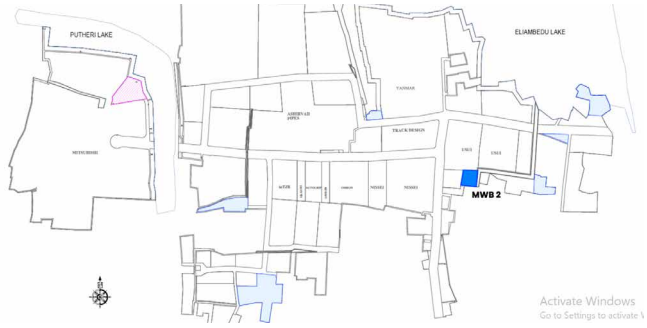

Origins Mahindra

What We Enabled

- 12% (83 million litres) of the industrial park's annual water demand expected to meet through MWB2
- Up to 72% of annual park water demand expected to offset by 4 MWBs as per broader plan
- Reduced groundwater dependency and improved long-term water resilience
- Acts as a safeguard against low-yield borewells and rainfall variability

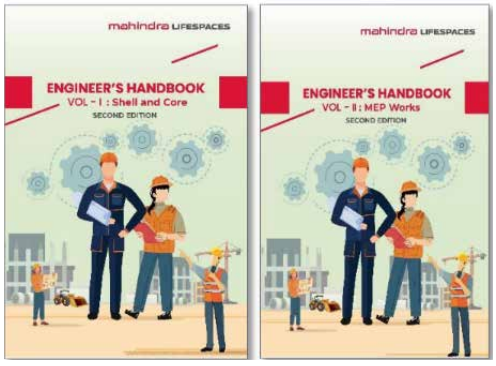

This initiative reflects our transition from linear utility models to nature-positive infrastructure planning. Across our IC & IC projects, we now undertake detailed hydrology and hydrogeology assessments to evaluate flood risk, recharge potential, and long-term water resilience-aligned with our broader ESG commitment to build climate-resilient and future-ready infrastructure

Quality and technology

In FY 2024-25, under our third pillar we reinforced our commitment to "build it right the first time" through standardized protocols, digital tools, and on-site learning platforms — all geared toward improving delivery consistency and execution alignment.

Standardization of quality processes

- Rolled out an updated Engineer's Handbook with bill of quantities (BOQs), specifications, and Inspection and Test Plan (ITPs), applicable across all residential projects.
- Embedded non-conformity (NC) tracking to reduce repeat errors at project level
- Conducted Dynamic Quality Audits and shared Good Construction Practices (GCPs) across projects

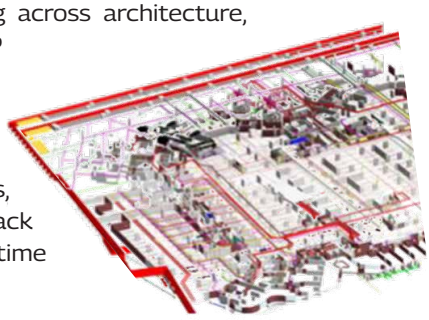

On-site skill enablement

- Launched M-Skill videos, offering site teams short, visual guides for standard construction processes
- Conducted Quality Month celebrations and toolbox talks to reinforce quality culture across projects
- Trained finishing engineers through the Mahindra Certified Finishing Engineers Program to strengthen execution quality on high detail works
- Operationalized the Construction Tech Museum, showcasing physical mock-ups and finishing standards

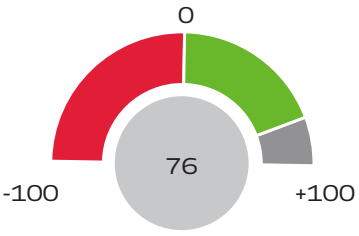

Technology in design and execution

- Implemented building information modelling (BIM) in project planning across architecture, structure, and MEP
- Continued use of the Quality Application to log punch points, closures, and track completion in real time

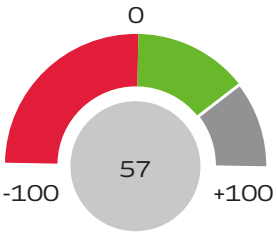

Feedback-driven quality improvement

As part of our quality governance framework, we systematically captured stakeholder feedback on key quality initiatives rolled out across projects. We recorded an overall Net Promoter Score (NPS) of 76 for our quality initiatives, supported by 103 promoters and only 1 detractor, indicating a strong endorsement from on-ground stakeholders.

Worker's welfare

Consistent measures towards workers' welfare is a part of our work ethos. A reflection of our work in this area includes:

Health camps: In partnership with non-government organizations (NGOs) and government hospitals, we have organized health camps, offering general check-ups, HIV awareness and screening, and eye examinations. In FY 2024-25, OHS campaigns were rolled out across our project sites, focusing on critical safety aspects to be addressed consistently at every location. These efforts aim to reduce associated risks and have been implemented with strong engagement and a positive mindset across all sites.

Photographs from health camps

Occupational health awareness trainings: Workers receive third-party training on safe operations and liquefied petroleum gas (LPG) handling through the Bharat Gas team. Additionally, awareness sessions on occupational illnesses, heat stroke, and Cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) are conducted by doctors from our occupational health center (OHC) partners, equipping workers with essential health knowledge across all locations.

Rewards and recreational activities: Workers are recognized with monthly safety rewards for their proactive performance at project sites. To promote engagement and well-being, recreational activities such as sports events (including cricket and personal protective equipment (PPE) races) and drawing competitions are organized across locations.

Human rights

We are committed to upholding human rights across our operations including our contractual workforce. Human rights clauses are embedded in our supplier code of conduct and assessment process. We enforce a gender-neutral, zero-tolerance policy on workplace sexual harassment, with formal procedures aligned with the POSH Act of 2013.

Worker welfare - involves

- Better construction worker housing facility with integration of thermal comfort, more use of natural light, safe and clean cooking facility, and use of biodigesters.

- Paper plates replaced with steel plates at one of our sites - Mahindra Citadel not only helping curb the paper wastage but also ensures a clean and health homestay and workplace environment for workers.
- Wet waste from worker camps is composted onsite or sent to nearby cattle farms as food feed thereby diverting the waste away from landfill.

FOCUS AREAS

To position ourselves as a sustainability leader in the built environment, we have identified six key focus areas, with each having a clear strategy, and defined targets for which we track performance and progress. Detailed list of initiatives to conserve and minimize our environmental impact is here.

CARBON

Journey towards Carbon Neutrality

Target:

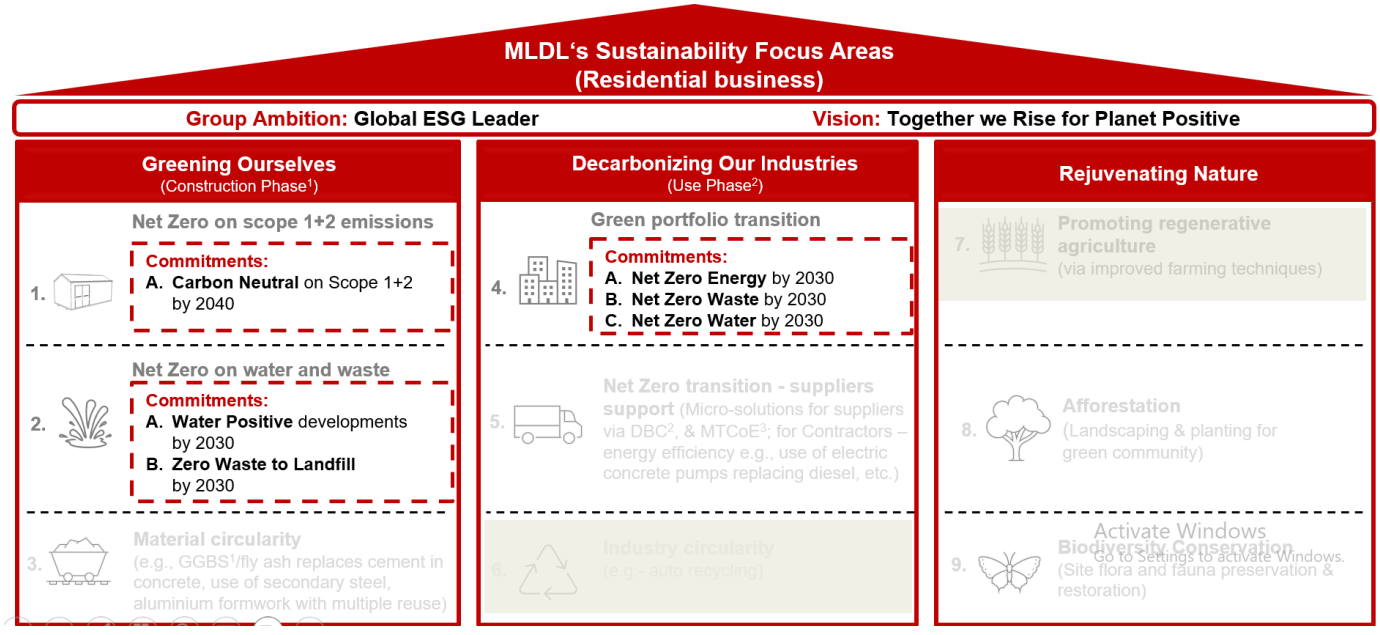

Carbon Neutral on Scope 1+2 by 2040

Our climate strategy

Our climate strategy is rooted in a lifecycle approach measuring and reducing greenhouse gas emissions from design, demolition and construction through to operations phase. We maintain transparency by aligning our disclosures with global frameworks such as TCFD, CDP, and GRESB. Each building we develop is an opportunity to shape a low-carbon future.

Our climate strategy is anchored in a three-step approach: reducing demand through Climate Responsive Design (CRD), enhancing energy efficiency, and integrating renewable energy solutions. Passive first approach, is the most crucial lever in our transition to Net-Zero buildings—cutting energy demand by nearly 30% through interventions like thermal insulated walls, roof, efficient glass, and optimized building orientation.

Our approach goes beyond offsets, and targets direct emission reduction across our operations and supply chain. We believe in tackling the root cause through reduction rather than relying on carbon credit programs. This intentional shift reflects our commitment to creating a real, measurable impact and building a low-carbon future from ground up.

Our climate action strategy is built on two pillars:

Focus inward

- Establishing and updating annually a robust GHG emissions inventory
- Monitoring operational energy and resource consumption
- Transparency in GHG reporting aligned with global frameworks (CDP, TCFD)

Focus outward

- Driving industry transformation through collaborations and partnerships
- Knowledge-sharing and solution co-creation for decarbonizing the built environment

Carbon neutrality action plan

We have developed a 4-step action plan that addresses carbon emissions comprehensively:

Residential - Project offices and sales galleries

1 Demand reduction

Action	Progress Status
Office Design: Design EPI - thermal and visual comfort	Developed and integrated Guidelines for • Sustainable Design • Sustainable Offices • Integrated use of Porotherm blocks (thermally efficient materials) - potential savings of ~7000 kWh annually, and avoids 5 tCO_2e
Measurement and monitoring	• Energy monitors (Ohm Assistant by SustLabs) installed across 11 offices for real time monitoring and actions • Separate electricity metering in place for • Project Office & Sales Gallery • Contractor (Construction)
Behavioral	Sensitization done through • Toolbox talks • Awareness sessions on sustainability topics • Make the Switch campaign Energy saving posters/messaging (nudges) within the office and site

2 Energy efficiency

Action	Progress Status
Lighting: LED, Lighting Control, Sensors	Identified and implemented energy saving ideas for efficient lighting and cooling such as • Replacement of conventional lighting with LEDs • Use of Star rated ACs - Set point above 24 + Use of Fan • Reviewed through site visit and quarterly site sustainability maturity assessment tool
Efficient DGs	• Non-dependence on DG (29% of our existing offices) • Exploring Generators running on dual-fuel (Biogas + Diesel)

Integration of carbon reduction measures in IC&IC

We monitor, measure, and mitigate carbon emissions across all stages of development. Science-based targets act as an enabler to achieve carbon neutrality by 2040, and our focus is first on reducing energy demand, then use of energy efficient measures, and then use of onsite and offsite renewable energy, driving us closer to our carbon neutrality goal.

Mahindra World City, Chennai:

MWC Chennai achieved and maintained its SBT - 9 years ahead of the target year of FY 2031-32. One unique initiative implemented across MWC Chennai was conversion of 3 Diesel Generator (DG) sets (63 KVA, 200 KVA, and 400 KVA) into dual fuel DG sets using CNG as an alternative fuel to Diesel thereby reducing 50% of diesel annually. CNG is produced from Biogas which in turn is produced by composting of food waste from the city.

In FY 2024-25, our 10-ton Bio-CNG plant converted 1,091 tons of food waste into 3 tons of biogas which was upgraded to CNG and used to power:

- Three DG sets converted to dual fuel (diesel + CNG)
- One ERTIGA vehicle retrofitted to run on diesel + CNG; thereby ensuring material circularity.

Impact

- ✓ Surpassed Scope 1 and 2 reduction target - 9 years in advance
- ✓ Enabled carbon savings and reduced diesel use
- ✓ Annual cost savings of ₹3.72 lakhs through reduced fuel consumption
- ✓ Supported circular economy and food waste reuse

We are increasingly integrating renewable energy solutions during the construction phase within our residential projects to reduce our carbon footprint. In FY 2024-25, these interventions have led to a reduction of 54 tCO_2e, contributing to a 5% year-on-year decrease in Scope 2 emissions. Apart from onsite RE, we also initiated procuring renewable energy from the grid at Mahindra Vista, avoiding 8.5 tCO_2e. Overall, this transition to RE has resulted in ₹ 18.5 lakhs in operational cost savings, underscoring both environmental and economic benefits.

Integration of renewable energy in IC&IC

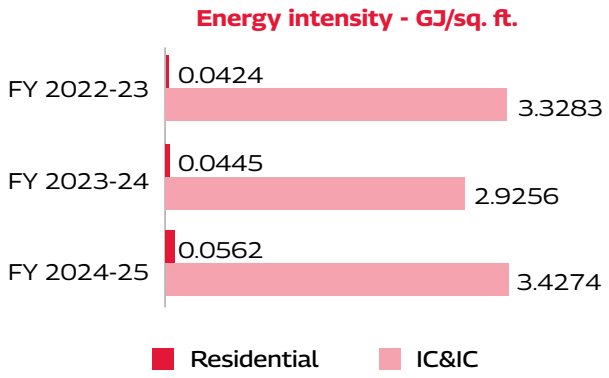

Energy conservation remains a core priority during the operations and maintenance (O&M) phase across our Industrial Clusters and Integrated Cities (IC&IC). Apart from efficiency measures, we integrate use of renewable energy sources within our O&M activities thereby saving on operational cost. At MWC Chennai, we have converted 3 DG sets (63, 200, and 400 KVA) into dual fuel DG sets with use of biogas as alternative fuel educing diesel dependency by up to 50%. Apart from renewable fuel, we also procured 865 MWh of renewable power from grid (3rd party) saving INR 1.5 crore in FY 2024-25. At MWC Jaipur, we have 849 kWp of installed solar PV with generation of 10.6 MWh solar power thereby saving INR 1.13 crore annually.

Water: A shared resource, a shared responsibility

Our Net Zero Water approach focuses on reducing demand through low-flow fixtures, treating and reusing wastewater via onsite STPs, harvesting rainwater for recharge or reuse, and installing smart water meters to influence user behavior. Water is a critical resource across the lifecycle of our residential projects—for construction, dust suppression, and during occupancy. In our IC&IC business, we provide utility services to industrial clients, where reliable water access is essential.

Given India's growing urban footprint and declining water reserves, we prioritize water-secure developments. Water is sourced from rainwater, borewells, municipal supply, tankers, and treated wastewater. Our water sustainability strategy involves classifying sites as groundwater-stressed or non-stressed, enabling tailored mitigation plans integrated across the project lifecycle—from design to post-occupancy.

We also conduct hydrogeological studies to assess groundwater recharge potential and flood risks. For example, at MWC Jaipur, a detailed study guided the incorporation of flood mitigation measures into site planning.

Water conservation: a lifecycle approach

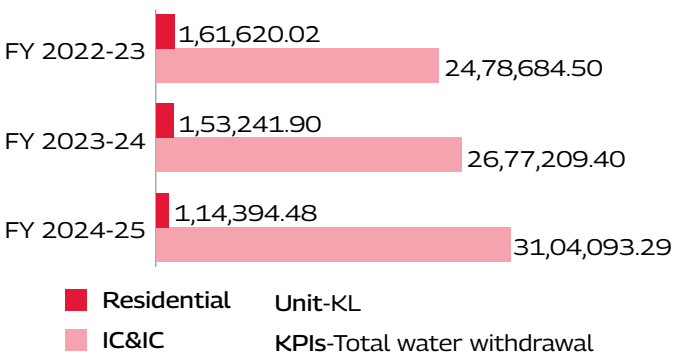

Our approach to water conservation is both strategic and site-specific. It is embedded early in our project lifecycle, it begins right from site selection and extends through design, construction, and occupancy. Through this integrated strategy, we aim not just to reduce our dependency on freshwater, but also to build resilience for our communities and future developments.

Reducing dependence on freshwater source

Use of alternative water sources like rainwater captured from rooftop, dewatering water during excavation, Reverse Osmosis (RO) reject water reuse, and treated water from BWSSB and nearby sewage treatment plants (STPs) (e.g., Manipal County) Helps reduce dependency on freshwater source.

- Achieved a Water Positivity Index of 13.3% across the residential portfolio.
- 40 million liters of freshwater conserved and ₹51 lakhs in potential operational cost savings in FY 2024-25.
- Recorded a 26% reduction in water consumption in FY 2024-25.

Integration of Water efficiency measures in IC&IC

Smart water meters at MWC Chennai helped reduce unaccounted water loss from 1.76% to 1.59%, saving 8.5 million litres of water and ₹8.5 lakhs. Sewage from industrial customers is treated in onsite STPs and reused—100% for landscaping at MWC Jaipur and Origins Chennai, and partly for flushing at MWC Chennai. Of the 836 million litres treated, 396 million litres were supplied for flushing, helping customers save up to ₹2 crore.

- Water Positivity Index of 78% achieved across the residential portfolio.
- 853 million liters of freshwater conserved and ₹9.5 crore in potential operational cost savings in FY 2024-25.
- Achieved 5% reduction in water consumption in FY 2024-25.

Apart from these measures, we are working on developing onsite micro waterbody (MWB) at Origins, Chennai which will help offset 12% of total annual water demand. For more details, refer 'Manufactured Capital' Page no. 61. We are also upgrading the Kolavai Lake treatment system with expert support from IIT Madras which will help offset 4,500 MLD of groundwater usage annually, strengthening water resilience at MWC Chennai. Additionally, we are expanding our greywater network to supply treated wastewater for non-potable uses, with 3.6 km of residential pipelines planned in phase 1 and 17 km in the industrial zone under phase 2.

Single-use plastic ban policy

We have enforced a strict single-use plastic (SUP) ban policy across all our offices and project sites, ensuring consistent messaging and action across all stakeholder engagements—from leadership to customers, employees, and workers.

In FY 2024-25, as part of plastic free july event within MLDL, 43 kg of plastic waste (PET, HDPE, LDPE, Milk Packets, PP, and MLP) was collected from across 5 sites within just 2 months, and sent to authorized recyclers as per waste type.

Onsite waste management at worker camps

At our project sites, we are actively driving waste circularity through targeted worker waste management initiatives. At Happinest Tathawade and Nestalgia, 100% of food waste from worker camps was composted onsite through specially fabricated compost bins, and reused in landscaping, a practice we plan to standardize across all locations. At Citadel, Pune, an in-house pit composting system ensures 100% diversion of food waste from landfills.

Office waste composting

All food waste generated at our construction site offices is 100% composted using the Gobble Max composter by Daily Dump across 12 of our sites. The resulting manure (11 tons) is used for onsite landscaping, and also shared with our office staff, who use it in their home gardens encouraging #MakingSustainabilityPersonal.

Safe treatment of sanitary waste

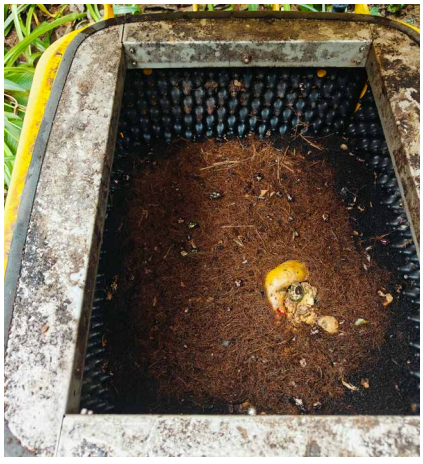

This year, we initiated a unique partnership with padcare which not only installed sanitary pads vending machines across our pan India offices, but also ensured to make sanitary waste planet friendly by safely treating the waste and converting into safe-to-use stationery products - Affirmation stations, dried-flowers inspired notebook, strawberry-inspired mini-calendars, vintage typewriter themed to-do list. This helped divert 1,485 sanitary pads away from landfill equivalent to 37 kgs of material processing at recycling stations, saving 743 litres of landfill area, and avoided 79 tCO_2e.

Material use efficiency during construction

We follow a circular approach to material management at construction sites, treating waste as a resource. Aligned with our Net Zero Waste commitment, we adopt sustainable deconstruction methods for existing structures, repurposing recovered materials for new sales galleries, project offices, or temporary construction needs. Mahindra Vista and Mahindra Zen, India's 1st and 2nd Net Zero Waste high-rise residential projects, achieved over 90% waste diversion from landfills during demolition and construction.

- 16K tons of construction waste was diverted from landfill.
- ₹23 million in cost savings achieved by reusing materials onsite in FY 2024-25.

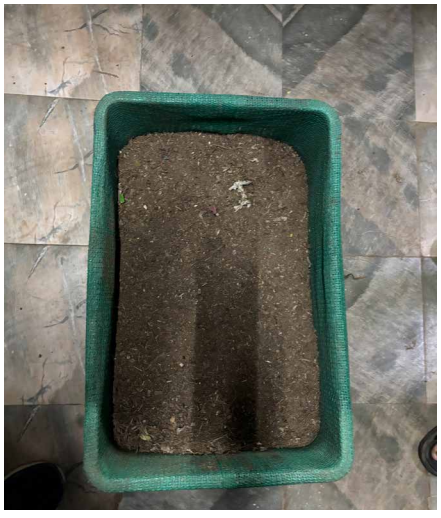

Occupancy Stage Waste Management

To support our Net Zero Waste goals during the occupancy stage, we integrate Resource Recovery Centers (RRCs) into project design and ensure their effective operation. Each household receives two bins (for wet and dry waste) and a bag (for reject waste), followed by customer workshops on primary waste segregation. Segregated waste is brought to the RRC, where dry waste is further sorted, and wet waste is composted onsite using an Organic Waste Converter (OWC). Compost is used in project landscaping, while dry waste is sent to authorized recyclers. In FY 2024-25, Happinest Kalyan diverted 15.4 tonnes of wet waste and 3.1 tonnes of dry waste from landfills following initial customer training.

Integration of waste management in IC&IC

Zero waste to landfill (ZWL) Mahindra World City, Chennai

Mahindra World City, Chennai achieved 100% waste diversion away from landfill, with Zero Waste to Landfill (ZWL) certification for 5th year in a row. 100% Food waste is composted in 10-ton Biodigester generating biogas for use in DG sets, shuttle buses, and vehicle used for O&M work, while recyclables are systematically segregated into varied types and sent to authorized recyclers.

Real-time air quality monitoring for proactive action

To strengthen our air quality management efforts, we developed inhouse air pollution mitigation guidelines aligned to local regulations, and even deployed real-time AQI monitors across our sites in Gurugram, Mumbai, Bengaluru, and Pune, going beyond regulatory requirements. These monitors track key pollutants and feed data to a centralized dashboard, enabling quick analysis and action. The dashboard is monthly reviewed by senior leadership, including the CEO, ensuring top-level oversight and swift decision-making.

Ambient Air Quality - MWC Jaipur (FY 2024-25)

Ambient Air Quality - Origins Chennai (FY 25)

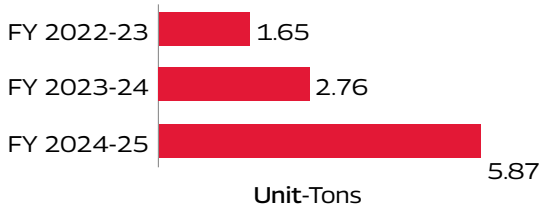

*NAAQS permissible limits (annual): PM 10 - 100 | PM 2.5 - 60 | SOx - 80 | NOx - 80. All units are in µg/m³

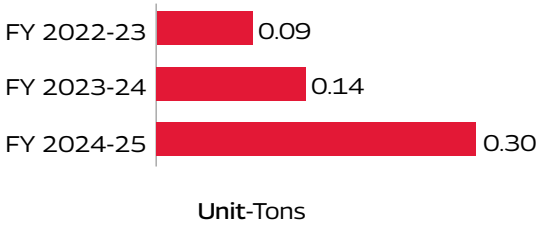

In FY 2024-25, ambient air quality levels across our integrated cities and residential projects remained within permissible NAAQS limits, with notable improvement observed in Origins Chennai, where emissions remained within permissible limits. MWC Chennai and MWC Jaipur maintained relatively stable air quality throughout the year, though Jaipur witnessed a marginal rise in PM2.5 levels in Apr - May and Jan - Mar months of the financial year. This was attributed to more industrial developments within the city during the year, and winter calm weather conditions.

Conversely, point source emissions across residential projects have increased owing to greater use of diesel across one location in Pune due to unavailability of grid power. Notably, MWC Chennai witnessed reduced point source emissions due to transitioning to biogas-powered diesel generators for STP operations and expected to further reduce diesel-related emissions from the next financial year.

India Alliance for Clean Construction (IACC)

To promote clean construction practices, we signed up to the India Alliance for Clean Construction (IACC) program by WRI India, which brings together stakeholders from construction industry to drive clean-air focused practices in construction, where reducing emissions and controlling dust are central to project planning and execution. Apart from this, we initiated work with CEEW (Council on Energy, Environment and Water) as part of their Clean Air and Good Health (CABH) program and working across Kalyan 2 project. These outcomes affirm our on-ground control measures and support our broader health and sustainability objectives.

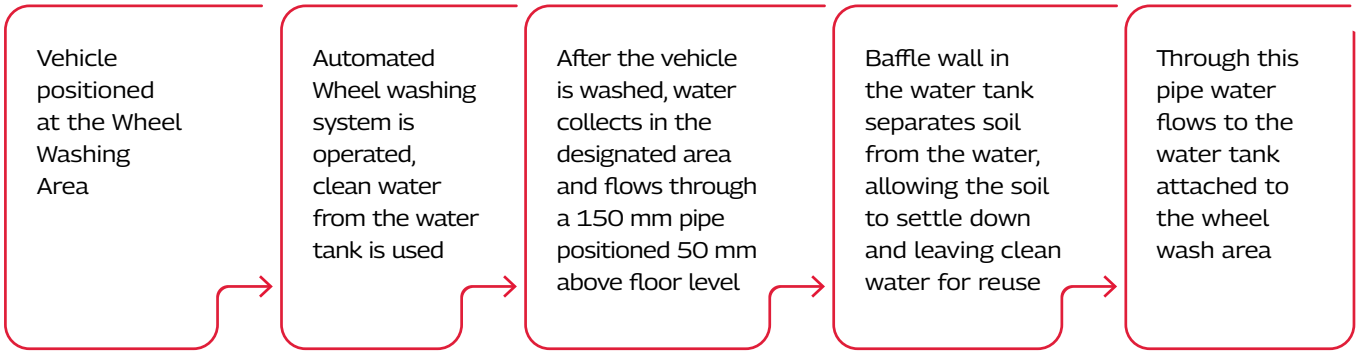

Tackling dust pollution through In-house innovation: Automated Wheel Washing System

Construction activities generate large volumes of dust and debris, particularly from the constant movement of trucks and heavy vehicles entering and exiting the site. These vehicles often carry mud and particulate matter on their wheels, which later dislodges onto public roads raising air pollution (PM levels), contaminating nearby soil, and creating health and safety risks.

To address this, at Mahindra Citadel we implemented in-house automated wheel washing system, a value-engineered solution designed, fabricated, and operated entirely on-site. The system comprises six circular washing rings fitted with eight high-pressure nozzles each, aligned to target vehicle wheels precisely. Wastewater is collected in a sedimentation tank, filtered via a baffle system, and reused through a 3-phase pump ensuring minimal water wastage.

Working of automated wheel wash system with water reuse capability

This initiative has led to a measurable reduction in dust-related air pollution, prevented regulatory penalties, and delivered cost savings of ₹1.5 lakh annually. The model is now scalable across sites, aligning with broader sustainability and compliance goals.

BIODIVERSITY

Building with nature: Our commitment to biodiversity

Biodiversity plays a vital role in ecological balance, economic stability, and human well-being, and we recognize its intrinsic connection to our developments. It is embedded in our site assessment, landscape design, and construction practices. Environmental Impact Assessments guide biodiversity conservation from the planning stage, especially for projects in or near ecologically sensitive zones. Our approach includes retaining existing trees, using native species, and creating green spaces that support local ecosystems. We conduct biodiversity studies through external experts, preserve plantations during construction, and replant or transplant trees when necessary. These efforts help maintain ecosystem services, ensure cooler microclimates, and improve air quality. We have also adopted a ten-point resolution to protect and enhance biodiversity across all project sites.

10-point Nature Resolution Plan:

- Protect natural grass and reduce turf
- Eliminate use of artificial pesticides/fertilizers
- Preserve topsoil and make your own soil by composting
- Integrate food farming (vegetable/fruit) and bee farming in projects
- Create eco habitats and urban forests
- Mulch garden waste to preserve moisture
- Protect and retain trees
- No fires for clearing sites
- Educate all stakeholders
- Introduce bird baths

Topsoil preservation: The top 200 mm of fertile soil that is rich in nutrients and essential for plant growth is carefully preserved during site preparation. This soil is either stored onsite for future landscaping or sent to nearby nurseries to support green cover development.

Soil erosion control: To minimize environmental degradation, erosion control nets are installed around project perimeters. These nets prevent soil displacement, reduce sediment runoff, and help maintain site stability, especially during monsoon periods.

Tree preservation and biodiversity enhancement at Mahindra Zen

Mahindra Zen, Bengaluru is India's 3rd Net Zero Energy and 2nd Net Zero Waste high-rise residential project, which integrates biodiversity from construction to operations. Despite limited space, three mature trees were preserved during excavation using a low-impact anchoring system with polypropylene ropes, nut-bolt fixtures, and existing boulders. Sustainable methods like tarpaulin shielding, on-site stone pitching, and minimal use of cement and steel further minimized ecological disruption. Beyond environmental value, the preserved trees improved air quality, enhanced site biodiversity, and contributed to customer satisfaction and marketing appeal.

This design aligned better with Indian climate and sky conditions, leading to improved occupant comfort and material efficiency. The approach is expected to be further validated through ongoing sky modeling studies in Chennai. This application delivered tangible business value, with an estimated cost saving of ₹21 lakh over the baseline case.

To expand coverage, an MoU with Saint-Gobain Research India enabled installation of a second sky scanner in Chennai, capturing south coastal conditions. This will be the first installation in southern India and the second in the country. Read more here: https://mahindratericoe.com/sky-modelling.php.

1. Strengthening the Ecosystem

- Developer signatories grew 4x (from 7 to 29)
- Virtual signatory meets held:
  - 19th September 2024: "GHG Inventorisation 101" - Business case for science-based targets
  - 12th December 2024: "LCA for Buildings" by GKSPL and "Low-Carbon Cooling" by Ambiator

2. Pilots and Industry Engagement

- DBC collaboration discussion in progress - alignment with sustainable construction practices with Confederation of Real Estate Developers' Associations of India (CREDAI) and National Real Estate Development Council (NAREDCO)
- Represented at platforms such as COP29, IGBC, GRIHA Summit, NAREDCO and ISHRAE Pune, building national visibility and alignment with international priorities

3. Measure, Report, Verify (MRV) Framework development

MRV - A guidance document and standardized format for measuring, reporting and verification of GHG emission reductions achieved by all signatories of the DBC.

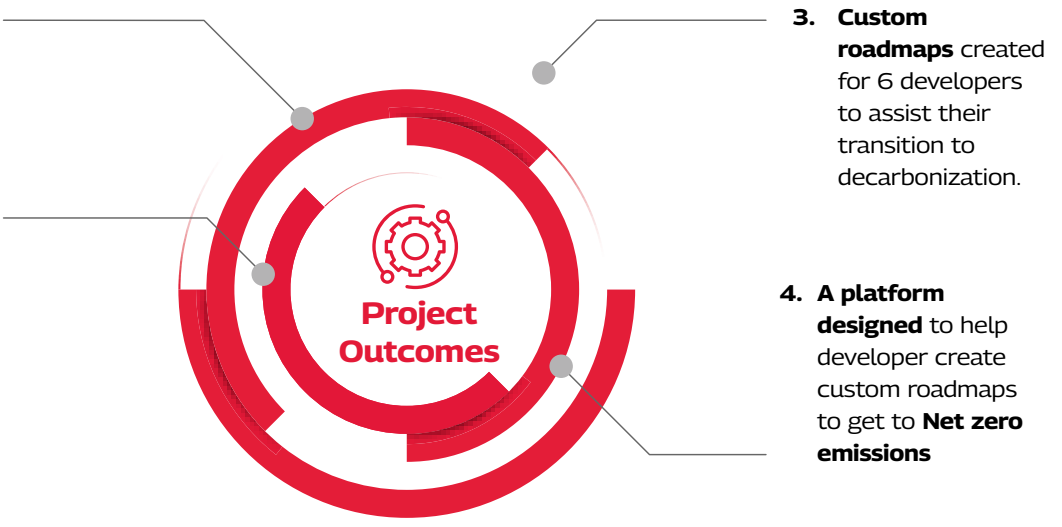

- Introduced the MRV framework for Net Zero target and progress tracking aligned with six key areas for DBC Signatories:
  - Design Net Zero buildings
  - Adopt science-based Net Zero targets
  - Improved operational efficiency for Net-Zero buildings
  - Mainstream low-carbon materials for Net Zero buildings
  - Develop and mainstream climate-aligned building codes and standards
  - Enabling monitoring and tracking performance of a net-zero building
- First draft of the framework is ready with identified indicators for each priority action

4. Partnership with Global Buildings Performance Network (GBPN)

In FY 2024-25, we have deepened our decarbonization impact by anchoring a strategic partnership between DBC and GBPN. The objective was to apply a systems thinking approach to help real estate developers chart customized Net Zero roadmaps across their organizational value chains .

Key outcomes and contributions:

- Conducted semi-structured interviews with 15 developers, uncovering bottlenecks through systems mapping
- Six developers shortlisted for co-creating tailored intervention strategies
- 1 developer selected to receive a custom decarbonization roadmap, with 5 more to follow in phase 2 of implementation
- A future-facing digital platform being conceptualized to support developers in building Net Zero action plans

DBC hosts the ISHRAE CEO Roundtable

As part of the ISHRAE Green Conclave 2025, DBC co-hosted and co-designed the CEO Roundtable on Real Estate Decarbonization held on 18th January at Suzlon One Earth, Pune. Moderated by Dr. Sunita Purushottam, the roundtable served as a dedicated platform to introduce the DBC and engage 20+ leaders from real estate, HVAC, consulting, academia, and civic bodies.

Key sessions designed in collaboration with DBC partners included:

- "Decarbonization 101" - simplified GHG, LCA, and SBT concepts
- K(Y)DC mapping (Know Your Decarbonization Challenges) - helped participants self-assess organizational readiness and gaps
- DBC adoption track- showcased CCRR (Commit, Collaborate, Refer, and Report) model and explored onboarding pathways

Several CEOs expressed interest in joining the charter, citing the value of a common framework and peer collaboration. The roundtable strengthened DBC visibility and reinforced MLDL's leadership in aligning real estate stakeholders with Net Zero objectives.

Regional Signatory Meets

Initial feedback from DBC signatories revealed limited awareness and misalignment with the Charter's six priority actions, making it difficult to track progress. To bridge this gap, we organized four regional meets in Chennai, Bengaluru, Mumbai, and Pune, engaging 80+ stakeholders. These sessions surfaced climate-specific challenges and actionable solutions, strengthening collaboration and clarifying the support needed from DBC to accelerate decarbonization.

Solar Decathlon India

Mahindra Lifespaces continues to mentor student teams in the Solar Decathlon India, a national competition promoting net-zero, climate-resilient building design. Organized by the 'Indian Institute for Human Settlements' and the AEEE in collaboration with the Indo-US Science and Technology Forum, the program enables students to co-create practical solutions with industry mentors. In FY 2024-25, Team Astitva (BMS College of Architecture, Design and Planning) and Team Paargami (SPA, Vijayawada) were adjudged winner and runner-up teams under multi-family housing category from among 175 participating teams respectively across categories.

COP29: Buildings and Cooling Pavilion - Global Policy Voice

At COP29, we advanced our decade-long commitment to sustainable construction by participating in the launch of the Global Framework for Action on Sustainable and Circular Public Procurement (SPP)-a UN-led initiative focused on decarbonizing the built environment. Dr. Sunita Purushottam represented Mahindra Lifespaces as a panelist at the UN-led launch of the Global Framework for Action on Sustainable and Circular Public Procurement. Capacity building for suppliers

Supplier capacity building is a key component of our sustainable supply chain strategy. We engage suppliers through structured training, ESG self-assessments, and on-site evaluations to enhance their performance in areas of environmental, social, and governance. By sharing best practices, tools, and ongoing support, we enable our partners to align with our sustainability goals and strengthen overall value chain resilience.

Collaboration and support to start-ups/Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) in integrating sustainable building materials and technology

In line with our Planet Positive roadmap and action plan, we explore and engage with low carbon material and technology vendor partners to embed sustainability across our value chain. Our focus in FY 2024-25, was on thermally comfortable yet faster construction methods which would help align with our Net Zero commitment for offices, sales gallery, and products too. We conducted a vendor roadshow on fast construction methods wherein 10 vendor partners were shortlisted basis their unique offerings across categories - Paper-honeycomb panels, end-to-end solution providers, and panel vendors.

Few of the innovation vendor partners across categories whom we have been working with are

Area	Partners working with Mahindra Lifespaces
Energy	SustLabs – Energy meters for savings through behavioural change
Water	Fluxgen – AI and IoT enabled water intelligence platform; WEGOT – Smart Water Meter
Waste	ZECOMY – One-stop digital platform - all waste types; ProEarth, ekam, Daily Dump – Composing of biodegradable waste
Resource Planning	Smarter Dharma – Resource Planning Platform for sustainable design

In addition to vendor roadshows, we formed a cross-functional team to identify low-carbon, cost-effective active system solutions such as waste management systems, STPs, lighting, automation, pumps, and elevators. Representatives from MEP design, projects, quality, contracts, costing, and sustainability met monthly to evaluate options. A senior review committee- including design, projects, procurement, sustainability, and budgeting heads, met annually to assess and approve feasible solutions. These efforts aim to integrate sustainable technologies across future projects.

Explored solutions

- SNAS IOT Lab - Parking automation system
- Rainy Filters
- HMX - Low carbon cooling solution
- Orbin OWC - Waste Management System
- Blue Drop - Low Carbon STP
- EKAM Eco - Low Carbon STP
- MEIL - Mahindra EPC Irrigation Limited - Drip & Sprinkler Systems, Automation

In line with our commitment on Carbon neutrality on Scope 1 and 2 emissions by 2040 with SBT as an enabler, we explored and visited the premises of 'Uprear Build' a unique and innovative solution provider in India of prefab modular structures with boxable technology, that are faster, reusable, and thermally efficient structures for project offices and sales gallery.

Green Supply Chain Management (GSCM) policy

GRI 308, GRI 414

We prioritize working with partners who meet 100% legal and health, safety and environment (HSE) compliance and align with our Code of Conduct and ESG goals. Preference is given to locally sourced, green-certified, and low-impact materials. We engage suppliers in ESG self-assessments and favor those supporting circular practices like recycling and cleaner technologies. To know more please visit our Green Supply Chain Management (GSCM) policy.

Exploring Next-Gen Materials for Upstream Decarbonization

Aligned to our planet positive roadmap and action plan, and in line with our supply chain decarbonization journey, we are actively exploring the use of Limestone Calcined Clay Cement (LC3) and Glass Fiber Reinforced Polymer (GFRP) rebars. These materials have shown potential to reduce embodied carbon and enhance durability in specific use cases.

- LC3 is being evaluated as a low-carbon cement alternative that could align with our long-term material sourcing and climate goals and aims to reduce embodied carbon of concrete by 40% and help save cost to the companies too.
- GFRP rebars, which are corrosion-resistant and lighter than traditional steel, are under study for their suitability in non-structural applications such as planter beds, podium decks, septic tanks, and boundary walls.

These material explorations are part of our broader efforts to build a future-ready, low-emission supply ecosystem. Further development is underway to assess feasibility for commercial integration.

We are at a defining moment in our customer experience and facility management transformation- where data, digital agility, and human insight are converging to elevate service excellence. FY 2024-25 marked a breakthrough year from centralizing customer communications and achieving 91% collection efficiency, to reducing errors through automation and unlocking deeper business insights with over 40 real-time MIS dashboards. Our initiatives go beyond operational upgrades, they represent a cultural shift. With simplified standard operating procedures (SOPs), gamified learning, and a transparent performance culture, we're embedding ownership and empathy into every customer interaction. We are not just building systems, we are strengthening trust at every step of the customer journey.

Customer Grievance Redressal and Interaction Channels

Through our customer portal hosted on our website, we offer a convenient platform for customers to submit their inquiries and communicate with us effortlessly. We have a strong grievance mechanism to address customer complaints and concerns. We hear our customers in the following ways:

Service requests: All customer interactions are recorded as Service Request and are categorised as query, request or complaint. Based on the nature of interaction the customer service team responds and resolves customer concerns as per defined turn around time.

Customer interaction: It happens either on a fortnightly or monthly basis wherein the customers share their experiences and grievances, and discussions are held on the resolution and improvisation measures. All customer interactions from all mediums mentioned above are recorded digitally in our CRM system- SFDC. These can be easily accessed as and when required.

Media systems: Our customers can reach us through various mediums as per their comfort and convenience like Mobile App, Walk-in to a site office, Voice Call, Email, Social media, periodic in-person meetings like Coalesce (specifically with our industrial customers), Helpdesk at site and grievance portal on company website. Customers are made aware of these mediums of communication right from the time of booking or onboarding.

Complaints/requests are resolved through a structured complaints matrix involving the complaints manager and others. Customer complaints or queries involving inputs required from cross-functional teams are communicated accordingly to the customer along with estimated resolution time.

End-user capacity building program

Customers are educated on sustainability features through

- The Resident Assist guide, on-site signage, and interactive campaigns.
- Social media, workshops, and a newly launched Sustainability Flipbook which help demystify green living and encourage cost-saving behavioral changes.
- Green certifications are actively promoted to build awareness, while critical services are safeguarded through Defects Liability Period (DLP) coverage, AMC agreements, and coordination with utilities.
- End-user capacity building program for waste management

We actively engage with residents' post-possession to promote sustainable waste practices.

TAKING A BOW

Dr. Sunita Purushottam
Head of Sustainability

Sustainability - How can it survive in a changing climate?

Sustainability recession

Let's admit it. "Sustainability" is not having its moment in the spotlight right now; it's experiencing a "recession." Teams across organizations are now wondering how "sustainability" can endure in a "changing climate". One could point to geo-political influences, and recent instances of global companies reversing their climate and diversity/inclusion goals which are adversely impacting the morale. Meanwhile, many formerly vocal advocates of sustainability have gone silent. Every sustainability induced push, its perceived effort, cost and returns is under the business scanner across sectors.

The real estate sector is currently experiencing an upcycle. Post covid, rising demand for more spacious homes coupled with higher disposable income is driving growth in the mid and premium segments. As per Census 2011, 31% of the country's population lived in urban areas. By 2030, this figure is estimated to reach 37%, with urban regions expected to contribute 70% of India's GDP.

According to Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change (MoEFCC's) - India: Third biennial update report to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC), the real estate and construction sectors account for 32% of the total national GHG emissions, including both operational and embodied carbon. Given that this sector contributes to approximately 1/3rd of India's emissions, it must feature in India's low carbon transition plan in the form of specific targets and a roadmap with action plan.

On one hand, rising urbanisation is fuelling demand for infrastructure and housing, on the other, cities and communities are struggling with increased air pollution, polluted rivers and water bodies, unmanageable waste. While urban municipalities grapple with increased population, peri-urban areas often lack governance and the will to invest in the long-term solutions. Home buyers frequently realise the true scale and depth of infrastructure challenges only after moving in. Meanwhile, climate change, pollution, and biodiversity loss have quietly embedded themselves in our daily lives -whether it is a person dealing with heat stress, diabetes, or heart ailment; a farmer whose farm went up in flames due to a wildfire; a family whose home disappeared in a land slide/floods, or the taxi driver seeking shade on a hot day.

Time for Action

This is a great opportunity to speak the business language and create the case for sustainability. Sustainability delivers value. There are four levers that we have leveraged at Mahindra Lifespaces to integrate and drive sustainability.

Risk and compliance

- Increased scrutiny on construction-related air pollution led us to deploy real-time AQI monitoring and action plans, ensuring our sites maintain better air quality than their surroundings.
- Prepared for the 2025 C&D Waste Management Rules by achieving ~94% waste diversion through strong partnerships.
- Integrated site selection tools to assess environmental risks like water stress and flooding.
- Tracked ESG risks across project sites to mitigate issues collaboratively with leadership.

Integration in design and Compliance

- We are committed to a 100% green-certified portfolio since 2014 and have pledged Net Zero developments by 2030.
- Biodiversity assessments help conserve critical habitats, with MWC Jaipur scoring 50/100 on biodiversity index.
- Climate-responsive design incorporates low-carbon materials across projects.
- Sustainability maturity assessments gamify site sustainability, driving savings: 12K tCO_2e avoided, 9 lakh KL of water saved, and INR 11.8 crore in cost benefits.
- Composting initiatives across 12 sites generated 11 tons of compost, embedding sustainability in workplace and personal lives.

Creating customer value

- Facility management ensures operational efficiency of sustainable features, STPs, and waste management.
- Customer engagement programs reinforce the brand promise of "Home of Positive Energy."
- Industrial city management boosted customer satisfaction: MWC Chennai rose 40% to 67; MWC Jaipur increased by 4% to 73.

Re-activating communities

- Green Army program expanded composting, gardening, and plastic waste management across schools, impacting 250+ students and 1.7K community members.
- Rainwater harvesting in schools captured 2.5M liters, recharging groundwater.
- Water conservation in Rajasthan created 3.3 crore litres of farm pond storage and 1.9 lakh litres of rainwater harvesting systems, supporting 500 family members directly and reviving agriculture.

These are just few impact stories on how we have integrated sustainability in all aspects of our work. We have strived hard, and sustainability will not just survive but evolve in a "changing climate".

With Sustainability 1.0, we set the foundation for Mahindra Lifespaces' sustainability journey up to 2018. Since then, under Sustainability 2.0, we have strengthened our ESG leadership by making higher commitments and integrating sustainability more deeply across the value chain-marking a purposeful and impactful transition.

ANNEXURE 6

CONSERVATION OF ENERGY, TECHNOLOGY ABSORPTION AND FOREIGN EXCHANGE EARNINGS AND OUTGO

A. CONSERVATION OF ENERGY:

(i)	The steps taken or impact on conservation of energy	:	Aligned to company's sustainability commitments and planet positive roadmap, adequate measures were taken to reduce energy consumption and improve efficiency of its products and services. To meet our sustainability commitments on science-based targets, carbon neutrality, and make all our new developments as Net Zero by 2030, Climate Responsive Design (CRD) is adopted as a first step to build energy efficient residential homes at MLDL. CRD involves provision of passive design interventions such as right building orientation, efficient walling and roofing assembly, appropriate insulation material, correct window to wall ratio, low solar heat gain co-efficient (SHGC) and shaded glass/windows, etc. that helps reduce the energy requirement of residential products and maintenance expenditure. This is followed by used oe energy efficient and star-rated equipment, and then integration of renewable energy (onsite+offsite). The Company continues to maintain 100 percent green portfolio of products. All products are IGBC/ GRIHA/Net Zero certified. Till FY 2025, three of our projects - Mahindra Eden (Bengaluru) - Net Zero Energy - India's 1st Net Zero Energy high rise residential development, Mahindra Vista (Mumbai) and Mahindra Zen (Bengaluru) - India's 1st and 2nd Net Zero Energy+ waste certified residential projects. Mahindra Antheia (Pune), and Mahindra Lakewoods (Chennai) received Platinum final certification rating under IGBC Green Homes, Mahindra Windchimes (Bengaluru) and Vivante (Mumbai) received IGBC Gold final certification rating under IGBC Green Homes, and Mahindra Centralis receive GRIHA 3-star rating. In addition to energy efficiency measures through active and passive design, the projects are also designed to reduce freshwater demand, preserve, and enhance biodiversity, and divert waste away from landfill. The company as part of its efforts to reduce energy consumption constantly adopts and deploy in its projects various energy conservation measures across all three stages of development - design, construction, and occupancy stage. Some of the energy efficient measures includes solar reflective paints on roof, efficient glass, energy efficient lighting, use of star rated equipments, use of solar PV, BIPV (Building Integrated Photovoltaic), small wind turbines, etc.
(ii)	The steps taken by the company for utilising alternate sources of energy	:	Integration of renewable energy is one of the steps to meet our Net Zero commitments. In all the Net Zero Energy Residential projects - 100% of the energy demand is being met using both solar PV onsite and remaining energy demand is being met using green power from the grid generated using renewable sources. The dependence on clean sources of energy has increased and been standardized for new developments based on its feasibility. Our energy conservation measures also include encouraging our customers to adopt star rated appliances post occupation. Apart from integration of renewable energy in the products that we build for customers, we have integrated onsite+offsite renewable energy during construction phase in building these products too. Currently, we have 66 kWp of installed operational rooftop solar PV on project offices and sales galleries across 3 sites - Mahindra Lakewoods (6 kWp), Mahindra Vista (30 kWp), and Mahindra Citadel (30 kWp) with generation and utilization of 74.7 MWh of solar energy in FY 25 constituting 5% of total energy consumption during construction phase. In addition, we also procuring green power from 3rd party service provider at Mahindra Vista which comprises 11.6 MWh in just 3 months of FY 25 with average consumption of 3.9 MWh (entire construction power would be green power at Mahindra Vista).

			The Company's share of renewable energy across businesses has increased significantly which helps to meet our sustainability commitments.
(iii)	The capital investment on energy conservation equipments	:	Investments required to meet all the requirements for the green building & Net Zero features in the products are integrated into the development costs or cost of construction. During the feasibility study for achieving green building certification aligned to our planet positive action plan, the costs associated with energy conservation equipment are factored into the project budget. These expenses generally represent about 1-3 percent of the total construction costs. Despite this relatively small investment, the resulting benefits for customers as well as business are significant and long-lasting." Total green spends in FY 2024-25 was ₹ 1.81 crore across residential developments - excludes green investments budgeted for products and yet to be spent.

B. TECHNOLOGY ABSORPTION:

(i)	The efforts made towards technology absorption	:	By leveraging cutting-edge technologies in materials, construction methods, and automation, the Company has elevated product quality and accelerated project timelines. Embracing these advancements is key to closing the innovation gap in real estate development and continually raising our quality benchmarks. Incorporating digital tools and techniques throughout our processes enables quicker project completion, adds significant value for our customers, and enhances transparency and collaboration among all stakeholders. MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Mahindra Lifespace Developers Limited ('Mahindra Lifespaces', 'MLDL' or 'the Company') is one of the leading real estate development companies in India. Along with its subsidiary companies and joint ventures (JVs), Mahindra Lifespaces is engaged in developing residential projects as well as industrial developments — integrated cities and industrial clusters.

Over the years, the Company has delivered an array of successful projects and established industry benchmarks in environmentally responsible homes and industrial developments. This chapter presents an overview of the Company's performance in 2024-25 and its strategy for growth.

MACROECONOMIC OVERVIEW

According to the second advance estimates released by the National Statistics Office (NSO)[1] on 28 February 2025, India's Gross Domestic Product (GDP) grew at 6.5% in 2024-25. This makes India the fastest growing major economy in the world. Construction — which is a part of Industry, accounting for its 30% share — registered an impressive growth of 9.1% in 2024-25. Chart A provides the details.

Chart A: Growth Rate (%) – GDP and Key Sectors

OPPORTUNITIES

India's strong performance over the last few years has augured well for the real estate sector in India. At a macro level, rising incomes and increasing urbanisation continue to drive the residential real estate market. Further, regulatory reforms like RERA, GST and NCLT/IBC have led to flight to quality with reputed developers garnering a higher share.

Similarly, the Government's manufacturing push including initiatives such as Production Linked Incentive (PLI) Scheme and India's emergence as an attractive alternative for global corporations looking to diversify operations outside China has contributed to better prospects for our Industrial business.

As an established player in both these business segments, Mahindra Lifespaces sees considerable opportunities for growth of its business. This is reflected in its target to grow its sales to ₹10,000 crore by 2029-30.

RESIDENTIAL DEVELOPMENTS

Mahindra Lifespaces' strategy for the residential business has been consistent over the last few years with well-engineered portfolio of choices on markets, segments and type of transactions. In term of the markets, it will continue to expand further in Mumbai, Pune and Bengaluru. The Company's focus areas will continue to be on mid-premium and premium housing segments, while sunsetting its presence in the affordable segment. In doing so, focus will be on sustainable developments and delivering differentiated products with customer-centric innovations that enhance the living experience.

The Company will continue to look for opportunities in outright land purchase, and asset-light models such as joint developments (JDs) and society redevelopment. These are areas where the Company has seen considerable success in recent times. Further details are available in the section on 'Business Performance - Residential'.

INTEGRATED CITIES AND INDUSTRIAL CLUSTERS (IC&IC)

Mahindra Lifespaces is a pioneer in the Integrated Cities and Industrial Clusters (IC&IC) segment, operating under two formats: Integrated cities under the brand 'Mahindra World City' and Industrial clusters under the brand 'Origins'. These projects offer well-built plug-and-play infrastructure making them an ideal destination for domestic and international businesses looking to set-up facilities.

The Company's strategy in this segment is to maximise the value from its existing locations, details of which are available in the section on 'Business Performance - Integrated Cities and Industrial Clusters'.

Chart D: Completion and Handover

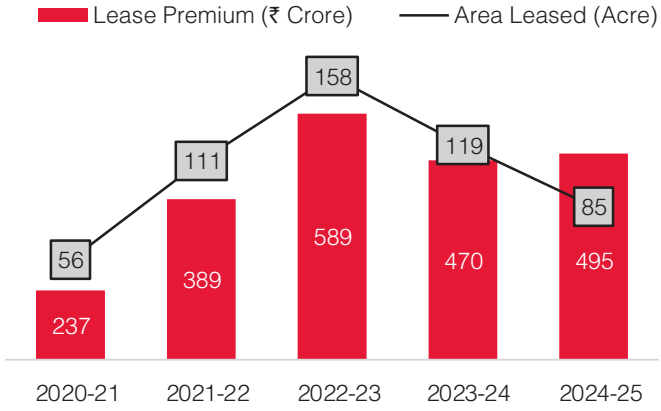

Another significant aspect of the Company's performance in the business was the successful stepping-up of its land acquisition efforts. In 2024-25, it concluded deals which should cumulatively contribute about ₹18,100 crore in terms of Gross Development Value[3] (GDV) of the projects, compared to ₹4,400 crore in the previous year. Further details on these transactions are provided in the section on 'Land and Capital'. Since the end of the year, the Company has added two additional societies in its redevelopment project in Lokhandwala, MMR, which had further increased the GDV potential by ₹1200 crore. Total land leased by the business stood at 85.1 acres.

Development work and marketing is currently in progress in Origins Ahmedabad. The Company is currently in the process aggregating land for Origins Pune, located in Bhor, near Pune in Maharashtra. Details of the Company's operational projects are provided below.

MWC Chennai is the Company's first integrated city project with gross area of 1,594 acres and a leasable potential of 1,216 acres across its Special Economic Zone (SEZ), Domestic Tariff Area (DTA) and Residential & Social Zone (R&S)[5]. MWC Chennai has leased 100% of its existing land inventory in the SEZ and DTA but continues to offer lease options in the Residential & Social Zone. At the end of 2024-25, MWC Chennai had 92 industrial and commercial customers. Six residential projects with a total saleable area of 1.42 mfst are currently under planning and construction, the details of which have already been provided in the section on residential developments.

MWC Chennai has emerged as a thriving, sustainable community that continues to set the standard for integrated urban living in India. It has a healthy occupancy in its completed residential projects and has all the essential infrastructure and amenities to ensure a seamless living experience — including a well-developed retail and commercial centre, healthcare facilities, educational institutions and hospitality services.

Community building and liveability are key priorities. It hosts several events to enhance the quality of life and promote the City as a desirable destination to live and work. As a part of the Mahindra Group, MWC Chennai has been at the forefront of adopting sustainable and environmentally friendly practices. It is India's first integrated city to have achieved 'Zero Waste to Landfill' certification.

MWC Jaipur is the Company's largest integrated city project with gross area of 2,946 acres and a leasable potential of 1,917 acres across its SEZ, DTA and the Residential & Social Zone. In 2024-25, it leased around 54 acres — taking the cumulative net leased area to 1,117 acres. MWC Jaipur ended the year with 154 customers — 65 in the SEZ, 88 in the DTA and one in Social Zone.

MWC Jaipur is committed to sustainable development. It is Asia's first and world's largest project to reach C40 Climate Positive Development Program (CPDP) Stage 2. It regularly carries out several initiatives that contribute to sustainability and enhances well-being of the communities in which it operates. Some of these are covered in the section on 'Corporate Social Responsibility'.

Origins Chennai is the Company's first industrial cluster project. Located in North Chennai, it is being developed through its step-down subsidiary Mahindra Industrial Park Chennai Limited (MIPCL), which is a JV with Sumitomo Corporation. The first phase of the project was launched in April 2019. Given the tremendous response, the Company launched the second phase of the project during 2024-25, taking the total gross area to 547 acres and the leasable potential of 392 acres. During the year, the JV with Sumitomo Corporation was also extended to second phase of the project. This entailed an investment of ₹225 crore in MIPCL by the JV partners in proportion of their existing shareholding.

As on 31 March 2025, the cumulative land leased under the project was 161 acres. Origins Chennai is also Tamil Nadu's first IGBC Platinum Certified industrial park, reflecting the strong focus on principles of sustainability employed in its design and development.

[5]Area includes 70 acres outside project boundary land (OBL) i.e., land held by the Company outside the MWC Chennai Master Plan.

OPERATIONS

Customer Acquisition

MLDL's activities in this area encompass designing differentiated products, brand building efforts, and driving sales. The product design process considers needs and preferences of target customers as well as current trends. Other important aspects of the design process are sustainability and use of technology. Sustainability has been at the core of MLDL's approach towards developments. The Company has pioneered the 'Net Zero' concept in India and is committed to Net Zero Developments by 2030. It has maintained a 100% Green portfolio of residential projects since 2014 and three of its recent launches are Net Zero projects.

During the year, Mahindra Lifespaces unveiled a new brand idea — 'Home of Positive Energy' which embodies its commitment to creating homes that promote well-being and are in harmony with the environment. The launch included a digital video commercial and a Mobile Experience Centre — offering a firsthand glimpse of how the Company delivers on the idea at its homes. Some of the design elements that bring the idea to life in its projects are presented in Box 1.

Box 1: Home of Positive Energy — Design Elements

When a family buys a home, they are choosing a place that resonates with their heart, a space filled with positive energy created through both tangible and intangible elements. Mahindra Lifespaces' homes are thoughtfully designed to promote well-being and ensure residents experience balanced and rejuvenating energy.

- Home Design: Ample natural light and cross-ventilation throughout the home; spacious living rooms for comfort and relaxation; Vaastu-compliant; large decks connected to living rooms for outdoor enjoyment; walk-in wardrobes and in-built storage niches to make homes clutter free.
- Project Design: Aimed at premiumization with amenities that foster an active lifestyle e.g., badminton courts, a half-Olympic size swimming pool or a jogging track; grand project entrances and elegantly designed tower lobbies; ample open-area seating spaces surrounded by nature; community gardens and green spaces for leisure and relaxation; play areas for children; and, dedicated spaces for pets.
- Sustainability: Climate responsive design; building material selection that bring value e.g., high performance glass to keep homes cool; ample ground-level landscape to preserve biodiversity, and Net Zero projects.

As a part of its marketing and brand-building efforts, focus continued to be on digital content to generate pull for the brand and improve the quality of leads. The Company's campaigns for new projects generated tremendous reach and visibility among prospective buyers, resulting in considerable increase in organic leads. MLDL's success in this can be seen from the stellar launch performance of its projects during the year.

During the year, the Company invested considerably on expansion and training of its channel partner network. The 'HappiEdge' mobile App for channel partners was also upgraded to optimise digital channel partner empanelment and streamline the invoicing process. While majority of the sales are generated through channel partners, the Company has also invested in digital assets for direct sales as well as building corporate partnerships and referral network. Contribution of these alternative channels to sales were also significant in 2024-25.

Customer Relations

Customer centricity is at the core of MLDL's approach towards all activities and processes related to the entire home buying journey — right from booking to post-handover support. Some of the key initiatives and achievements during the year include:

- M-Life Customer App: The app serves as a single-stop platform for customers with a comprehensive feature list that includes regular construction updates, making online payments, raising service requests, access important documents like allotment letter, agreement and payment receipts. By the end of the year, 70% of the Company's active customer base had downloaded the app, compared to 44% a year ago.
- Tech-enabled Initiatives: Initiatives for better customer experience include a range of cutting-edge technologies like artificial intelligence (AI), data analytics and robotic process automation. The impact of these initiatives is reflected in the fact that 97% of service requests were closed within defined turnaround times in 2024-25, compared to 92% in the previous year.
- Customer Communication: The Company has established processes for proactive and standardised customer communication — be it sharing the allotment letter, providing construction updates and pre-intimation on upcoming invoices, giving information on registration and Stamp Duty payment process. It operates a centralised customer care centre with a well-defined escalation matrix. During the year, the call centre infrastructure was upgraded, allowing a dedicated line connecting customers with their Relationship Manager.

- Resident Engagement: In 2024-25, Mahindra Lifespaces implemented a property management app to streamline post-handover complaints and maintenance requests from residents. It regularly carries out resident engagement events across its sites to celebrate festivals and specific activities around health, safety and sustainability — to build a community culture.

MLDL's customers have appreciated these efforts. The consistent improvement in the customer net promoter scores is a testimony to its success in building a customer centric organisation.

Project Execution

Mahindra Lifespaces has a firm commitment to high-quality and timely project execution as its strategic and operational priorities. These are guided by the principles of total quality management and a 'First Time Right' approach. Adherence to robust processes and standard operating procedures (SOPs) in line with these principles have resulted in a culture of continuous improvement in the organisation. The Company took several measures in 2024-25 to further improve project execution and related processes:

- Comprehensive evaluation and upgradation of over 300+ SOPs pertaining to activity supervision and inspection plan, material inspection and testing, standardisation of technical specifications and bill of quantities (BOQs).
- Introduction of in-process inspection with advanced tools and methods to ensure better quality control by more accurate and faster testing processes. The goal is to nurture the 'zero-snag' culture and ensure consistent and standardised delivery.
- Developed a Product Finishes Standardization Catalogue based on the data of completed and ongoing projects to achieve greater uniformity in project design, specifications, finishes and detailing across its projects.
- 70 associates participated in the Mahindra Certified Finishing Engineers' Programme — an intensive 4-month on-the-job training programme to enhance the capabilities of engineers in a variety of finishing jobs. The programme has been extremely successful since its inception last year.
- Developed in-house M-Skill Training Videos that provide comprehensive guidance on 30 construction activities, facilitating better consistency in execution. Also designed Visual Work Procedures, which are detailed documents with photographs that provide step-by-step guidance for activities, covering all their critical aspects.

Mahindra Lifespaces has an 'inclusive safety culture' which involves perceiving risks and rectifying them systematically. Its projects have reached a maturity level in use of personal protective equipment, housekeeping, adherence to systems and aims to eliminate unsafe acts by proactive reporting of incidents. In 2024-25, the Company launched its Safety Portal and Mobile App which will enable better monitoring, reporting and action on safety related risks and incidents. Initiatives like 'Safety Observation Tour', 'Quarterly Safety Campaign' and 'Good Practices' continued to take the culture of safety deeper into the organisation.

LAND AND CAPITAL

Mahindra Lifespaces aspires to grow its presales to ₹10,000 crore by 2029-30. The Company has a strong balance sheet and has access to debt for its growth at extremely competitive rates. As on 31 March 2025, debt at IND-AS consolidated level stood at ₹1,432 crore and the average cost of debt during 2024-25 was 8.64%. Consolidated cash balances stood at ₹256 crores at the end of the year.

The Company also has access to capital through partnerships spanning all its business segments. It has a track record of successful partnerships with: (i) Actis and HDFC Capital for residential developments and (ii) Sumitomo Corporation, Japan, and International Finance Corporation (IFC) for IC&IC projects. It also has a Joint Venture (JV) with Actis for developing Built-to-Suit (BTS) facilities in the industrial and warehousing space in India. On 13 May 2025, the Company's Board approved raising upto ₹1,496 crore by way of a Rights Issue, which will further augment its capacity to manage debt and fund growth.

During the year, Mahindra Lifespaces was successful in building landbank in line with its aspirations and strategy for growth. In 2024-25, it concluded deals which should cumulatively contribute about ₹18,100 crore in terms of Gross Development Value[6] (GDV) of the projects, compared to ₹4,400 crore in the previous year.

[6]GDV of a project is based on current management estimates and can vary based on market conditions, change in development plans and regulations when the project is implemented.

Joint Development project.

^ Society Redevelopment project.

It is worth noting that the land deal in Bhandup, Mumbai, will be one of the largest projects for the Company in the segment. The project will primarily be a residential development with supporting commercial and retail components. Further, it is structured as a Joint Development project with landowners, which makes it much more capital efficient compared to outright purchase deals. Since the end of the year, the Company added two additional societies in its Lokhandwala project, which had further increased the GDV potential by ₹1200 crore.

Combined with its pre-existing landbank, including those where projects that are already in various stages of planning, Mahindra Lifespaces has a strong pipeline of about ₹39,000 crore in terms of GDV at the end of 2024-25. This also means that about 70 to 80 percent of the land required to achieve the Company's target of ₹10,000 crore by 2029-30 has been secured. Mahindra Lifespaces has a healthy pipeline of land deals and will continue to evaluate further opportunities in the residential business. As noted earlier, it sees considerable opportunities for redevelopment projects, JDA and outright land purchases across its key markets.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (IT)

Mahindra Lifespaces' approach towards use of technology has been to improve efficiencies, provide a competitive advantage and enable scale. Accordingly, it has deployed appropriate IT infrastructure and solutions across all its key business, administrative functions as well as project sites.

MLDL's IT applications includes SAP ERP for its core and peripheral business functions, which is fully integrated with SFDC — the Company's integrated sales, servicing and communications platform. It also includes primary and disaster recovery data centres, audio-visual communication tools and access to specialised industry specific software for project management.

The Company continues to invest in strengthening its core systems to bring process standardisation, operational efficiencies and simplification across its businesses. One such instance is investment in cutting-edge technology like Building Information Modelling (BIM) and its adoption beyond design to improve collaboration and timely execution of new projects. Its efforts to institutionalise use of digital and technology-based solutions in key activities such as sales, project management and customer servicing has already been discussed in the respective sections of this report.

HUMAN RESOURCES

Mahindra Lifespaces recognises that success is directly linked to the quality of talent. Accordingly, it has taken a multi-pronged approach to build a high performance organisation and a culture that agile, bold, and fosters collaboration. This covers initiatives in the areas of talent acquisition and retention, learning and development and employee engagement.

In talent acquisition, the Company follows rigorous recruitment practices to attract candidates who are qualified and at the same time aligned with its values and culture. THREATS, RISKS AND CONCERNS

Mahindra Lifespaces has appropriate risk management systems in place for identification and assessment of risks, measures to mitigate them, and mechanisms for their proper and timely monitoring and reporting.

The Company has a Risk Management Committee consisting of four members — one Non-executive Director, one Independent Director, the MD & CEO and the Chief Financial Officer — to review the risk management plan and oversee the complete process. The role of the committee inter alia, includes, formulation, overseeing and implementation of risk management policy, business continuity plan, and to ensure that appropriate methodology, processes and systems are in place to monitor and evaluate risks associated with the business of the Company. The Board also regularly reviews risks.

ECONOMIC RISKS

Real Estate industry is cyclical in nature. Any downcycle in the industry can impact the Company's performance. Inflation in commodity cost can also impact the Company's profitability.

The Company's presence in both residential and industrial segments has been a significant source of strength in dealing with a difficult market environment. Further, the Company's target segments i.e., premium and mid premium are relatively less impacted in downcycles as compared to the luxury segment of the market. The Company also follows strong financial discipline with strict adherence to its target financial parameters such as IRR, prudent capital allocation and strategic funding to support growth. It has a strong balance sheet and the ability to raise capital at an attractive cost, which enhances its ability to stay competitive. To mitigate inflation related risks, it has taken a multi-pronged approach: (i) appropriate provision for commodity price escalations in project costs, (ii) value engineering and design efficiency (iii) long-term and forward contracts, and (iv) upward revision of prices to reflect market realities.

OPERATIONAL RISKS

Key operational risks include: (i) inability to sell the project as per plan, (ii) inability to complete and deliver projects according to the schedule leading to additional cost of construction and maintenance, (iii) erosion of brand value,

(iv) difficulties in the appointment and retention of quality contractors and manpower, (v) inability to attract and retain talent, (vi) poor customer satisfaction, (vii) fraud and unethical practices, (viii) failure to comply with laws and regulations leading to fines, penalties, and lengthy litigations.

Mahindra Lifespaces addresses these risks through a well-structured framework which identifies desired controls and assigns ownership to monitor and mitigate the risks. It has invested significant resources in transparent customer friendly processes and an enabling IT infrastructure, which are expected to effectively mitigate some of these risks.

The Company's corporate governance policies ensure transparency in operations, timely disclosures and adherence to regulatory compliances. It also has a Code of Conduct for all its associates. It believes that its employee-friendly policies and processes enhance engagement and welfare, effectively mitigating risks associated with attracting and retaining talent.

POLICY AND REGULATORY RISKS

The real estate industry is often affected by changes in government policies and regulations. There are considerable procedural delays with respect to approvals related to acquisition and use of land. Unfavourable changes in the government policies and the regulatory environment may adversely impact the performance of the Company.

The Company attempts to mitigate these risks through its approach towards acquisition of land based on thorough due diligence and its transparent processes in developing the projects. Besides, its focus on environment friendly and sustainable practices helps in mitigating risks associated with environmental regulations.

OUTLOOK

India's real estate sector continues to be on a high growth cycle, with strong demand and offtake in the residential segment in 2024-25. The industrial segment is also seeing robust demand coming from both domestic and international businesses.

Mahindra Lifespaces reported strong operating numbers in 2024-25. The residential business grew at 20.4% to deliver a record presales of ₹2,804 crore in 2024-25, whereas the industrial business generated ₹495 crore in revenues. At the same time, the Company added an impressive GDV of ₹18,100 crore in 2024-25, taking the overall sales potential of residential developments to ₹39,000 crore at the end of the year. Ongoing and new projects in the industrial business add further strength to the Company's growth prospects. We embrace a people-centric and stakeholder inclusive approach to creating value. This means that stakeholder engagement is integrated into every step of our value creation process. We are committed to understanding each stakeholder's concerns and then applying all relevant inputs to our decision-making to ensure value creation. We identify our stakeholders based on three key dimensions – importance and influence, physical proximity, and dependency factor. Identified stakeholder groups are then prioritised based on their ability to influence and be influenced by Mahindra Lifespaces.

2. List stakeholder groups identified as key for your entity and the frequency of engagement with each stakeholder group. Refer section on 'Stakeholder Engagement and Materiality' in annual integrated report (Page no. 37)

LEADERSHIP INDICATORS

1. Provide the processes for consultation between stakeholders and the Board on economic, environmental, and social topics or if consultation is delegated, how is feedback from such consultations provided to the Board.
   Feedbac14.2 pt, thereby motivating them to lead a sustainable lifestyle. Capacity building workshops on waste and water management conducted for customers, and feedback from these workshops is communicated to the board through board notes too, and risk identified through customer complaints is monitored and mitigated through customer query resolution, and same is communicated to the board and senior leadership through monthly and quarterly updates.

2. Whether stakeholder consultation is used to support the identification and management of environmental, and social topics (Yes / No). If so, provide details of instances as to how the inputs received from stakeholders on these topics were incorporated into policies and activities of the entity.
   Yes, we conduct basic sustainability trainings for all employees including project sites and seek feedback on areas of deeper learning. One such area identified by our project engineers was on understanding the basics of green materials, and how to identify them which will help embed sustainability deeper. These inputs were then used to curate a customized capacity building training for relevant functional stakeholders by external expert. The training would be completed in FY 26. Our formulated Decarbonization Business Charter (first of its kind for decarbonization of Indian building and construction sector) was the resultant outcome of consultations with 150+ stakeholders in the building and construction value chain along with the support of other leading businesses. As part of implementation phase of DBC, we worked with GBPN (Global Building Performance Network) who helped apply systems thinking approach aimed towards Net Zero roadmap development for developers in consultation with our senior management. MLDL was amongst the 6 developers selected for Net Zero roadmap development. We also conducted regional DBC signatory meets across Chennai, Bengaluru, Mumbai, and Pune to understand the sectoral challenges through focused group discussion of real estate value chain players comprising of developers, material vendors, sustainability consultants, architectural firms, MEP consultants, and the likes. 100+ stakeholders came together across the 4 cities to ideate, brainstorm and come up with a problem statement and corresponding solution with support required from DBC to implement them. Regular consultation with contractors and suppliers helped us understand the need to support each other in integrating ESG aspects across the value chain. This led to creation of Code of Conduct for our Suppliers and Contractors which is a continuous improvement process with 3 levels, and we assist our partners reach leadership level. As part of annual stakeholders meet, we consult our suppliers and contractors too. In FY 25, our annual stakeholders meet on "Materials Matter: Unlocking Concrete Ways to Decarbonize Building Materials" - Cement/Steel were the culprit as well as the ray of hope (through low carbon innovations) - 120+ change makers (in-person and online) covered 11 guest speakers and internal and external stakeholders learnt with us on ways to decarbonize materials. Our 'Mahindra TERI Centre of Excellence' a research project aimed towards building energy efficient solutions tailored for Indian climates, and the research findings from the project are available in the public domain for use to all the stakeholders. We also consult with our community partners as part of CSR and other social initiatives to understand the need, and deploy various projects under environment, women empowerment, and girl child education. We consult with our customers too across businesses, and consultation with industrial customers has helped us in development of a micro waterbody in Chennai thereby developing water (i.e., climate) resiliency for the development, and our climate positive development journey at MWC Jaipur through installation of rooftop solar by our customers with current capacity of 22+ MWp.

3. Provide details of instances of engagement with, and actions taken to, address the concerns of vulnerable/ marginalised stakeholder groups.

Construction activities involves various environmental and social impacts such as impact on air, noise, and water quality, and related health impacts. Being 100% green certified and ISO certified company, Mahindra Lifespaces adopts sustainable construction practices and processes in form of Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) to mitigate or resolve any impacts. There have been instances of concerns from these vulnerable groups at project locations, and our continuous engagement and support has helped resolve them without any adverse impact. For Example, extreme weather events such as flooding due to heavy rainfall or extreme high temperatures poses health risk to our workers on-site. Provision of support in the form of worker welfare programs such as health drinks during extreme high temperatures, working indoors, helped reduce the social impact. We also work with our NGO partner in facilitating the government social welfare schemes for our construction workers as part of Mission BoCW – Migrants Resilience Collaborative. Construction noise due to heavy equipment impacted our customers (in handed over buildings) posed a challenge due to work stoppage and was resolved through regular consultation and mutual understanding of all involved parties. Air Pollution, being a major problem since FY 24, we deployed real-time Air Quality Index (AQI) monitors to understand pan India site AQI levels on a centralized dashboard and take decisions and actions accordingly, and even developed an automated wheel washing facility designed and developed inhouse which also helps save on freshwater usage by recycling and reusing the same onsite. Apart from this, we also initiated capacity building workshops across 6 of our projects by subject matter expert on ensuring clean construction practices by identifying and mapping the sources of air pollution to each construction activity, and developing SOPs and practices backed by regular monitoring of air quality.

LEADERSHIP INDICATORS

1. Channels/platforms where information on products and services of the entity can be accessed (provide a web link, if available).
   All the information about products and services of the entity is available in the public domain on the website. Also, for our business partners on the sales side, we have a dedicated mobile application "HappiEdge" which keeps them up to date with all our project information, latest schemes, communication, incentive plans and many others.
   Link to access the website https://www.mahindralifespaces.com/

2. Steps taken to inform and educate consumers about safe and responsible usage of products and/or services.
   Customer is educated about the sustainability features and usage of the same through the 'resident assist', a consumer guide on the common area amenities and their way of working and usage. Safe and Responsible use of the services is also communicated through signages in the facility. We also conduct customer workshops on various sustainability aspects such as waste management, energy management, etc. to bring about behavioural changes to enjoy greater savings in cost and resources. Also, we have created sustainability dashboards (available on our website) to educate and quantify for customers, the benefits of buying a sustainable home - for example this includes - how much onsite solar can reduce their maintenance bills, how much freshwater dependency is reduced through various water saving measures provided in the product, and the likes. The green building certification and achievement for each project is given wide publicity amongst the customers & Residential associations to drive awareness and promote sustainable living. The risk of disruption in essential services is managed through DLP coverage and Annual Maintenance Contracts with the OEMs. To manage Electricity & Water disruptions, effective liaison with service providers is maintained with support of cross functional teams. We also crafted and launched a sustainability flipbook in FY 25, which will help create a support ecosystem for internal and external stakeholders (our customers) by helping simplify and de-jargonize sustainability and its benefits, thereby motivating them to lead a sustainable lifestyle.

3. Mechanisms in place to inform consumers of any risk of disruption/discontinuation of essential services.
   From the time the customers/residents occupy the property, Mahindra Lifespaces manages the complete maintenance of the project including all day-to-day grievances of the occupants. During the initial two years of DLP (Defect liability period), the company handholds the occupants till the time the resident welfare committee is constituted, which may then choose to handover the maintenance management to a third party or choose to be with the company as an external maintenance management party on completion of 2 years.

(Yes/No)
   Yes, the entity displays the information about the product and its various sustainability & other features within the product (residential homes and IC & IC) and also on its website. As part of our agreement draft, we take customer's consent on parameters specific to environmental attributes provided in the product. Customers are educated on sustainability features at the time of sales (brochures) and final possession (verbal discussion). The product brochures also inform the customer about the sustainability features, IGBC rating and the related customer benefits. Provision of signages within the product also guides the customers to identify the features and its usage. Customer satisfaction is ensured by having continuous engagement right from the day of possession till society handover, timely response to their grievances and prompt service support. We do take feedback from our customers through customer surveys. This customer relationship assessment conducted on annual basis helps track the needs, requirements, and expectations from customers of Mahindra Lifespaces. These feedbacks provide an opportunity to us to understand the customer pain points and liking of the sustainability and other features and thereby improve on the offerings and processes. In FY 25 our CaPS score improved across our IC & IC business especially MWC Chennai (rose by 19 basis points as compared to FY 24), while score remained almost the same for residential basis, and there is much more to work on to improve further.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid standalone financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act, ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the state of affairs of the Company as at March 31, 2025, and its profit, total comprehensive income, its cash flows and the changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit of the standalone financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing ("SA"s) specified under section 143(10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI") together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the standalone financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the standalone financial statements.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the standalone financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Sr. No.	Key Audit Matter	Auditor's Response
1	Carrying values of Inventories (Construction work in Progress and finished goods) As at March 31, 2025, the carrying value of the inventory of ongoing and completed real-estate projects is ₹ 379,492.68 lakhs. The inventories are held at the lower of the cost and net realisable value ("NRV"). The determination of NRV involves estimates based on prevailing market conditions and taking into account the stage of completion of the inventory, the estimated future selling price, cost to complete projects and selling costs.	Principal audit procedures performed: Our audit approach consisted testing of the design and operating effectiveness of the internal controls and substantive testing as follows: • We assessed the Company's process for the valuation of inventories. • Evaluated the design, implementation and tested the operating effectiveness of the internal controls relating to the valuation of inventories, including the management process for the review and approval of the estimated costs to complete the projects including construction cost incurred, construction budgets and net realizable value. We carried out a combination of procedures involving enquiry and observation, and inspection of evidence in respect of operation of these controls.

Sr. No.	Key Audit Matter	Auditor's Response
	We identified the assessment of the carrying value of inventory as a key audit matter due to the significance of the balance to the standalone financial statements as a whole and the involvement of estimates and judgement in the assessment. Refer Notes 2.17 and 11 to the Standalone Financial Statements	Selected a sample of inventories and performed procedures around: • Construction costs incurred for the inventories by testing the supporting documents and wherever available, corroborated the same with the reports from external supervising engineers. • Estimated total construction cost to be incurred for completing the construction of the project and wherever available, corroborated the same with the reports from external supervising engineers. • We have carried out site visits for a number of projects during the year to verify the construction progress made. • The Company's methodology and key assumptions for determining NRV of the inventories. We examined the total projected budgeted cost to the total budgeted sale value from the project. We examined the NRV to recent sales in the project.

INFORMATION OTHER THAN THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND AUDITOR'S REPORT THEREON

- The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Board's Report, Management Discussion and Analysis Report, Corporate Governance Report and Business Responsibility Report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements, standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.
- Our opinion on the standalone financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.
- In connection with our audit of the standalone financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the standalone financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.
- If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF MANAGEMENT AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance including other comprehensive income, cash flows and changes in equity of the Company in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including Ind AS specified under section 133 of the Act. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, management and Board of Directors are responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the Board of Directors either intend to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Company's Board of Directors is also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE AUDIT OF THE STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal financial controls that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

REPORT ON OTHER LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

MEANING OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

A company's internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorisations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorised acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

INHERENT LIMITATIONS OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

OPINION

In our opinion, to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us the Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements and such internal financial controls with reference to standalone financial statements were operating effectively as at March 31, 2025, based on the criteria for internal financial control with reference to standalone financial statements established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

NOTES TO STANDALONE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

Mahindra Lifespace Developers Limited ('the Company') is a limited company incorporated in India. Its Corporate Identification Number is (CIN) L45200MH1999PLC118949. The equity shares of the Company are listed on the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) and National Stock Exchange (NSE). Its parent and ultimate holding company is Mahindra & Mahindra Limited.

The addresses of its registered office is disclosed in the introduction to the annual report. The Company along with its subsidiary, associates and joint venture companies is engaged in the development of residential projects and large formats developments such as integrated cities and industrial clusters in India.

2. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 Statement of compliance and basis of preparation and presentation

The Standalone Financial Statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards ('Ind AS') as per the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended and notified under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the 'Act') and other relevant provision of the act. The aforesaid financial statements have been approved by the Company's Board of Directors and authorised for issue in the meeting held on 25th April, 2025.

Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

2.2 Basis of measurement

These financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below.

Historical Cost: Assets are recorded at the amount of cash or cash equivalents paid or the fair value of the other consideration given to acquire them at the time of their acquisition. Liabilities are recorded at the amount of proceeds received in exchange for the obligation, or in some circumstances (for example, income taxes), at the amounts of cash or cash equivalents expected to be paid to satisfy the liability in the normal course of business.

2.3 Measurement of Fair Values

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In measuring the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Company takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/or disclosure purposes in these standalone financial statements is determined on such basis, except for share-based payment transactions that are within the scope of Ind AS 102 - "Share based Payments", leasing transactions within the scope of Ind AS 116, "Leases" and measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as net realisable value in Ind AS 2 - "Inventories" or value in use in Ind AS 36 - "Impairment of Assets".

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2, or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1 : Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2 : Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 : Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

2.4 Revenue Recognition

2.4.1 Revenue from Projects

i. The Company develops and sells residential and commercial properties. Revenue from contracts is recognised when control over the property has been transferred to the customer. An enforceable right to payment does not arise until the development of the property is completed. Therefore, revenue is recognised at a point in time as per IND AS 115 when (a) the seller has transferred to the buyer all significant risks and rewards of ownership and the seller retains no effective control of the real estate unit to a degree usually associated with ownership, (b) The seller has effectively handed over possession of the real estate unit to the buyer forming part of the transaction; (c) No significant uncertainty exists regarding the amount of consideration that will be derived from real estate unit sales; and (d) It is not unreasonable to expect ultimate collection of revenue from buyers. The revenue is measured at the transaction price agreed under the contract.

ii. The Company invoices the customers based on achieving performance-related milestones.

iii. For certain contracts involving the sale of property under development, the Company offers deferred payment schemes to its customers. The Company adjusts the transaction price for the effects of the significant financing component.

iv. Costs to obtain contracts ("Contract costs") relate to fees paid for obtaining property sales contracts. Such costs are recognised as assets when incurred and amortised upon recognition of revenue from the related property sale contract.

v. Contract assets is the Company's right to consideration in exchange for goods or services that the Company has transferred to a customer when that right is conditioned on something other than the passage of time.

vi. The Company recognizes revenue at a point in time in each reporting period considering the estimates like reasonableness of collections from customers, disputes with the customer which may result in the cancellation of the contract, which are re assessed periodically by the management. The effect of these changes to estimates is recognised in the period when changes are determined. Accordingly any revenues attributable to such changes and the corresponding Cost of Goods Sold ("COGS") previously recognised are reversed and reduced from the current year's Revenue and COGS respectively.

2.4.2 Revenue from Sale of land and other rights

Revenue from Sale of land and other rights is generally a single performance obligation and the Company has determined that this is satisfied at the point in time when control transfers as per the terms of the contract entered into with the buyers, which generally are with the firmity of the sale contracts / agreements.

2.4.3 Revenue from Project Management fees and Rental Income

Revenue from Project Management Fees and Rental Income are recognized on accrual basis as per the terms and conditions of relevant agreements.

2.4.4 Dividend and interest income

Dividend income from investments in shares is recognized when right to receive is established, which is generally when shareholders approve the dividend.

Dividend income from investment in mutual funds is recognised when the unit holder's right to receive payment has been established.

Interest income from a financial asset is recognised when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount on initial recognition.

2.5 Current versus non-current classification

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents.

Based on the nature of activity carried out by the company and the period between the procurement and realisation in cash and cash equivalents, the Company has ascertained its operating cycle as 3 to 5 years for the purpose of Current - Non Current classification of assets & liabilities.

The Company presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/ non-current classification.

An asset is classified as current when it is:

— Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle

— Held primarily for the purpose of trading

— Expected to be realised within twelve months after the reporting period, or

— Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

The Company classifies all other assets as non-current.

A liability is classified as current when:

— It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle

— It is held primarily for the purpose of trading

— It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or

— There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

The Company classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

Borrowings are classified as current if they are due to be settled within 12 months after the reporting period.

2.6 Leasing

2.6.1 The Company as a Lessor

Leases for which the Company is a lessor are classified as finance or operating leases. Whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset to the lessee, the contract is classified as a finance lease. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Rental income from operating leases is generally recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The respective leased assets are presented in the balance sheet based on their nature.

2.6.2 The Company as a Lessee

The Company recognises right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset for the lease term and a corresponding lease liability at the lease commencement date i.e. the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Company. The cost of the right-of-use asset measured at inception shall comprise of the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received, plus any initial direct costs incurred and an estimate of costs to be incurred by the lessee in dismantling and removing the underlying asset or restoring the underlying asset or site on which it is located. The right-of-use assets is subsequently measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation, accumulated impairment losses, if any and adjusted for any remeasurement of the lease liability. The right-of-use assets is depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of right-of-use asset or the end of the lease term. The estimated useful lives of right-of use assets are determined on the same basis as those of property, plant and equipment. Right-of-use assets are tested for impairment whenever there is any indication that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. Impairment loss, if any, is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

The Company measures the lease liability at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date of the lease. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the Company uses incremental borrowing rate. For leases with reasonably similar characteristics, the Company, on a lease by lease basis, may adopt either the incremental borrowing rate specific to the lease or the incremental borrowing rate for the portfolio as a whole. The lease payments shall include fixed payments, variable lease payments, residual value guarantees, exercise price of a purchase option where the Company is reasonably certain to exercise that option and payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising an option to terminate the lease. The lease liability is subsequently remeasured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability, reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made and remeasuring the carrying amount to reflect any reassessment or lease modifications or to reflect revised in-substance fixed lease payments. Where the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset is reduced to zero and there is a further reduction in the measurement of the lease liability, the Company recognises any remaining amount of the re-measurement in statement of profit and loss.

The Company has elected not to apply the requirements of Ind AS 116 Leases to short-term leases of all assets that, at the commencement date, have a lease term of 12 months or less and leases for which the underlying asset is of low value. The lease payments associated with these leases are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

2.7 Foreign exchange transactions and translation

Transactions in foreign currencies i.e. other than the Company's functional currency are recognised at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions. At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated using the closing rate prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items measured at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was measured. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on translating monetary items at rates different from those at which they were translated on initial recognition during the period or in previous financial statements shall be recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise except for:

- Exchange differences on foreign currency borrowings relating to assets under construction for future productive use, which are included in the cost of those assets when they are regarded as an adjustment to interest costs on those foreign currency borrowings; and

- Exchange differences on transactions entered to hedge certain foreign currency risks.

2.8 Employee Benefits

2.8.1 Defined contribution plans

The Company's contribution to provident fund and superannuation fund is considered as defined contribution plan and is charged as an expense in profit and loss based on the amount of contribution required to be made. The Company has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid.

2.8.2 Defined benefit plan

Defined benefit gratuity plan is wholly or partly funded by contributions by the Company. The liability or assets recognised in the Balance Sheet in respect of defined benefit gratuity plan is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period less the fair value of the plan assets. The defined benefit obligation is calculated by actuaries using an actuarial technique, the projected unit credit method.

The present value of the defined benefit obligation is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows with reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation.

Net interest on the net defined benefit liability (asset) is the change during the period in the net defined benefit liability (asset) that arises from the passage of time.

The net interest cost is calculated applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. This cost is included in the employee benefit expenses in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.8.3 Remeasurement gains/losses

Remeasurement of defined benefit plans, comprising of actuarial gains or losses, return on plan assets excluding interest income are recognised immediately in balance sheet with corresponding debit or credit to other comprehensive income. They are included in Retained Earnings in the Statement of Changes in Equity and in the Balance Sheet. Remeasurements of the net defined benefit liability (asset) recognised in other comprehensive income shall not be reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent period.

Remeasurement gains or losses on long term compensated absences that are classified as other long term benefits are recognised in profit or loss.

2.8.4 Short-term and other long-term employee benefits:

The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees are recognised during the year when the employees render the service. These benefits include performance incentive and compensated absences which are expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service.

The cost of short-term compensated absences is accounted as under:

(a) in case of accumulated compensated absences, when employees render the services that increase their entitlement of future compensated absences; and

(b) in case of non-accumulating compensated absences, when the absences occur.

Compensated absences which are not expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service are recognised as a liability at the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees upto the end of the reporting period using the projected unit credit method. The benefits are discounted using the market yields at the end of the reporting period that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation. Remeasurements as a result of experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.8.5 Employee Stock Option Scheme

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date. The fair value determined at the grant date of the equity-settled share-based payments is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Company's estimate of equity instruments that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity.

At the end of each reporting period the Company revises its estimate of the No. of equity instruments expected to vest. The impact of revision of the original estimate, if any, is recognised in profit or loss such that the cumulative expense reflects the revised estimate with the corresponding adjustments to the equity settled.

2.9 Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the Balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.10 Earnings per share

The Company reports basic and diluted earnings per share in accordance with Ind AS - 33 on 'Earnings per Share'. Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit or loss attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Company for the year by the weighted average number of Equity shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit or loss attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Company for the year by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year as adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares except where the results are anti- dilutive.

2.11 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying assets for its intended use or sale are complete.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

2.12 Income Taxes

Income Tax expense represents the sum of tax currently payable and deferred tax

2.12.1 Current tax

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date. Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in Equity.

2.12.2 Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.12.3 Current and deferred tax for the year

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively.

2.13 Property, plant and equipment

Land and buildings held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes, are stated in the balance sheet at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Freehold land is not depreciated.

Properties in the course of construction for production, supply or administrative purposes are carried at cost, less any recognised impairment loss. Cost includes professional fees and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Company's accounting policy. Such properties are classified to the appropriate categories of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for intended use. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

Furniture & Fixtures and Office equipment's are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of assets (other than freehold land and properties under construction) less their residual values over their useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

Depreciation on tangible fixed assets has been provided on pro-rata basis, on the straight-line method as per the useful life prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 except for certain assets as indicated below:

Lease hold improvements are amortised over the period of lease/estimated period of lease.

Vehicles used by employees are depreciated over the period of 48 months considering this period as the useful life of the vehicle for the Company.

Sales office and the sample flat/ show unit cost at site is amortised over 5 years or the duration of the project (as estimated by management) whichever is lower.

Computers, computer equipment's and furniture and fixtures are depreciated over the period of 1 year to 10 years.

Plant and equipment's are depreciated over the period of 1 year to 7 years.

Fixed Assets held for disposal are measured at the lower of their carrying value and fair value less costs to sell.

2.14 Intangible Assets

2.14.1 Intangible assets acquired separately

Intangible assets with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation is recognised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortisation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

2.14.2 Derecognition of Intangible assets

An intangible asset is derecognised on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset, measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised.

2.14.3 Useful lives of Intangible assets

Estimated useful lives of the intangible assets are as follows:

Computer Software	5 years

2.15 Impairment of tangible and intangible asset

At the end of each reporting period, the Company reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount, which is the higher of the value in use or fair value less cost to sell, of the asset or cash generating unit, as the case may be, is estimated and the impairment loss (if any) is recognised and the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. When a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified, corporate assets are also allocated to individual cash-generating units, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash-generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be identified.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and intangible assets not yet available for use are tested for impairment at least annually, and whenever there is an indication that the asset may be impaired.

When an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

2.16 Assets held for sale

Assets or disposal groups are classified as held for sale if its carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use. To classify as held for sale, the asset must be available for immediate sale in its present condition, its sale must be highly probable and is marketed for sale at a price that is reasonable in relation to its current fair value. The Company must also be committed to the sale, which should be expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification. Assets and disposal groups classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying value and fair value less costs to sell.

2.17 Inventories

Raw materials are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined based on a weighted average basis.

Stock of units in completed projects and construction work-in-progress are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes land cost, materials, contract works, direct expenses and allocated interest & manpower costs and expenses incidental to the projects undertaken by the Company.

2.18 Cost of Construction/Development

Cost of Construction/Development (including cost of land) incurred is charged to the statement of profit and loss proportionate to project area sold. Costs incurred for projects which have not received Occupancy/Completion Certificate is carried over as construction work-in-progress. Costs incurred for projects which have received Occupancy/ Completion Certificate is carried over as Completed Properties.

2.19 Dividend Distribution

Dividends paid (including income tax thereon) is recognized in the period in which the interim dividends are approved by the Board of Directors, or in respect of the final dividend when approved by shareholders.

2.20 Provisions and contingent liabilities

2.20.1 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material).

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

Provisions and contingent liabilities are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date.

2.20.2 Onerous contracts

Present obligations arising under onerous contracts are recognised and measured as provisions. An onerous contract is considered to exist where the Company has a contract under which the unavoidable costs of meeting the obligations under the contract exceed the economic benefits expected to be received from the contract.

2.20.3 Contingent liabilities

Contingent liability is disclosed in case of:

a) a present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and

b) a present obligation arising from past events, when no reliable estimate is possible.

2.21 Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in profit or loss. However, trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

2.21.1 Classification and subsequent measurement

2.21.1.1 Financial assets

All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace. All recognised financial assets are subsequently measured at either amortised cost or fair value depending on their respective classification.

On initial recognition, a financial asset is classified as - measured at:

— Amortised cost; or

— Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI) - debt investment; or

— Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI) - equity investment; or

— Fair Value Through Profit or Loss (FVTPL)

Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition, except if and in the period the Company changes its business model for managing financial assets.

All financial assets not classified as measured at amortised cost or FVTOCI are measured at FVTPL.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured at amortised cost using effective interest method. The amortised cost is reduced by impairment losses. Interest income, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Any gain and loss on derecognition is recognised in profit or loss.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a debt instrument and of allocating interest income over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the debt instrument, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Debt investment at FVTOCI are subsequently measured at fair value. Interest income under effective interest method, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Other net gains and losses are recognised in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI). On derecognition, gains and losses accumulated in OCI are reclassified to profit or loss.

For equity investments, the Company makes an election on an instrument-by-instrument basis to designate equity investments as measured at FVTOCI. These elected investments are measured at fair value with gains and losses arising from changes in fair value recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the reserves. The cumulative gain or loss is not reclassified to profit or loss on disposal of the investments. These investments in equity are not held for trading. Instead, they are held for medium or long term strategic purpose.

Equity investments that are not designated as measured at FVTOCI are designated as measured at FVTPL and subsequent changes in fair value are recognised in profit or loss.

Financial assets at FVTPL are subsequently measured at fair value. Net gains and losses, including any interest or dividend income, are recognised in profit or loss.

2.21.1.2 Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Debt and equity instruments issued by the Company are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Company after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Company is recognised at the proceeds received, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified as measured at amortised cost or FVTPL. A financial liability is classified as at FVTPL if it is classified as held-for-trading or it is a derivative (that does not meet hedge accounting requirements) or it is designated as such on initial recognition. Other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Interest expense and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognised in profit or loss.

2.21.2 Derecognition of financial assets

The Company derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows in a transaction in which substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred or in which the Company neither transfers nor retains substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership and does not retain control of the financial asset.

If the Company enters into transactions whereby it transfers assets recognised on its balance sheet, but retains either all or substantially all of the risks and rewards of the transferred assets, the transferred assets are not derecognised.

2.21.3 Offsetting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the balance sheet when, and only when, the Company currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the amounts and it intends either to settle them on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.21.4 Impairment of financial assets

The Company applies the expected credit loss (ECL) model for recognising impairment loss on financial assets. With respect to trade receivables, the Company measures the loss allowance at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses.

Loss allowances for financial assets measured at amortised cost are deducted from the gross carrying amount of the assets. For debt securities at FVTOCI, the loss allowance is recognised in OCI and is not reduced from the carrying amount of the financial asset in the balance sheet.

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Company determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off. However, financial assets that are written off could still be subject to enforcement activities under the Company's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. Any recoveries made are recognised in profit or loss.

Investment in Subsidiaries and Joint Ventures:

The entire carrying amount of the investment in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures is tested for impairment in accordance with Ind AS 36 Impairment of Assets as a single asset by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal) with its carrying amount. Any impairment loss recognised forms part of the carrying amount of the investment.

2.21.5 Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Company derecognizes financial liabilities when, and only when, the Company's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. An exchange between with a lender of debt instruments with substantially different terms is accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability. Similarly, a substantial modification of the terms of an existing financial liability (whether or not attributable to the financial difficulty of the debtor) is accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and/or payable is recognised in profit or loss.

2.22 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the Chief Operating Decision Maker. The board of directors of the Company assesses the financial performance and position of the Company and makes strategic decisions. The board of directors, which has been identified as being the Chief Operating Decision Maker, consists of the key managerial personnel and the directors who are in charge of the corporate planning. Refer note 34 of standalone financial statements.

3. USE OF ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

In the application of the Company's accounting policies, which are described in note 2, the management is required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

In the process of applying the Company's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements based on estimates and assumptions, which have the significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements:

A. Useful lives of property, plant and equipment and Intangible Asset

The Company reviews the useful life of property, plant and equipment and Intangible Asset at the end of each reporting period. This re-assessment may result in change in depreciation expense in future periods.

B. Fair value measurements and valuation processes

Some of the Company's assets and liabilities are measured at fair value for financial reporting purposes. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Company uses market-observable data to the extent it is available. Where Level 1 inputs are not available, the Company engages third party valuers, where required, to perform the valuation. Information about the valuation techniques and inputs used in determining the fair value of various assets, liabilities and share based payments are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

C. Actuarial Valuation

The determination of Company's liability towards defined benefit obligation to employees is made through independent actuarial valuation including determination of amounts to be recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss and in other comprehensive income. Such valuation depends upon assumptions determined after taking into account inflation, seniority, promotion and other relevant factors such as supply and demand factors in the employment market. Information about such valuation is provided in notes to the financial statements.

D. Taxes

Deferred tax assets are recognised for temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the losses can be utilised. Significant management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and the level of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies.

E. Determination of the timing of revenue recognition on the sale of completed and under development property

The Company has evaluated and generally concluded that the recognition of revenue over the period of time criteria are not met owing to non-enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date and, therefore, recognises revenue at a point in time. The Company has further evaluated and concluded that based on the analysis of the rights and obligations under the terms of the contracts relating to the sale of property, the revenue is to be recognised at a point in time when control transfers which coincides with receipt of Occupation Certificate.

F. Determination of performance obligations

With respect to the sale of property, the Company has evaluated and concluded that the goods and services transferred in each contract constitute a single performance obligation. In particular, the promised goods and services in contracts for the sale of property is to undertake development of property and obtaining the Occupation Certificate. Generally, the Company is responsible for all these goods and services and the overall management of the project. Although these goods and services are capable of being distinct, the Company accounts for them as a single performance obligation because they are not distinct in the context of the contract.

G. Impairment of investments

The Company assesses impairment of investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures which are recorded at cost. At the time when there are any indications that such investments have suffered a loss, if any, is recognised in the statement of Profit and Loss. The recoverable amount requires estimates of operating margin, discount rate, future growth rate, terminal values, etc. based on management's best estimate.

H. Leases

The Company evaluates if an arrangement qualifies to be a lease as per the requirements of IND AS 116. Identification of a lease requires significant judgement. The Company uses significant judgement in assessing the lease term (including anticipated renewals) and the applicable discount rate.

The Company determines the lease term as the non-cancellable period of a lease, together with both periods covered by an option to extend the lease if the Company is reasonable certain to exercise that option and period covered by an option to terminate the lease if the Company is reasonably certain not to exercise that option. The Company revises the lease term if there is a change in the non-cancellable period of the lease.

The discount rate is generally based on increment borrowing rate specific to the lease being evaluated or for a portfolio of leases with similar characteristics.

I. Net realisable value of inventories

Inventories comprising of finished goods and construction work- in progress are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value (NRV). NRV for completed inventory is assessed by reference to market conditions and prices existing at the reporting date and is determined by the Company, based on comparable transactions identified by the Company for properties in the same geographical market serving the same real estate segment. NRV in respect of inventory under construction is assessed with reference to market prices at the reporting date for similar completed property, less estimated costs to complete construction and estimate of time value of money till date of completion.

Financial Risk Management Framework

The Company's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk. In order to manage the aforementioned risks, the Company operates a risk management policy and a program that performs close monitoring of and responding to each risk factor.

CREDIT RISK

(i) Credit risk management

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Company. Credit risk arises from trade receivables, cash and cash equivalents & other financial assets.

Trade Receivables:

The Company's trade receivables include receivables on sale of residential flats and rent receivable. As per the Company's flat handover policy, a flat is handed over to a customer only upon payment of entire amount of consideration. The rent receivables are secured by security deposits obtained under the lease agreement. Thus, the Company is not exposed to any credit risk on receivables from sale of residential flats and rent receivables.

The concentration of credit risk is limited due to the fact that the customer base is large. The Company determines the allowance for expected credit losses based on historical loss experience adjusted to reflect current and estimated future economic conditions. Basis this assessment, the allowance for expected credit losses on trade receivables as at 31st March, 2025 is considered adequate.

Cash and Cash Equivalents & Other Financial Assets

For banks and financial institutions, only high rated banks/institutions are accepted. The Company holds cash and cash equivalents with bank and financial institution counterparties, which are having highest safety ratings based on ratings published by various credit rating agencies. The Company considers that its cash and cash equivalents have low credit risk based on external credit ratings of the counterparties.

For Other Financial Assets, the Company assesses and manages credit risk based on reasonable and supportive forward looking information. Other Financial Assets are considered to be low credit risk exposure assets.

LIQUIDITY RISK

(i) Liquidity risk management

Ultimate responsibility for liquidity risk management rests with the board of directors, which has established an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the Company's short-term, medium-term and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The Company manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate reserves, banking facilities and reserve borrowing facilities, by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows, and by matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

(ii) Maturities of financial liabilities

The following tables detail the Company's remaining contractual maturity for its non-derivative financial liabilities with agreed repayment periods. The amount disclosed in the tables have been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Company can be required to pay. The tables include both interest and principal cash flows.

MARKET RISK

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk such as equity price risk. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters, while optimising the return. All such transactions are carried out within the guidelines set by the Board of Directors.

Future specific market movements cannot be normally predicted with reasonable accuracy.

Currency Risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair value or the future cash flows of an exposure will fluctuate because of changes in the foreign exchange rate. The Company undertakes few transactions denominated in foreign currencies only for availing certain services. Hence Foreign currency risk is not significant in comparison to company's operations

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Company's debt obligations with floating interest rates.The Company manages its interest rate risk by having a balanced portfolio of fixed and floating rate loans and borrowings.

Interest rate sensitivity

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates on that portion of loans and borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the Company's profit before tax is affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, as follows:

From the current year, considering similar and interconnected nature of the services and products and associated risk and returns, the Chief Operating Decision Maker has started allocating resource and assessing the performance of the operating segment i.e. construction and development of real estate projects as a single operating segment, which has resulted in change in segment disclosure compared to earlier year.

Considering that there is only one reportable segment, there are no additional disclosures to be provided under Ind AS 108 - Segment information, other than to the extent already provided in these financial statements.

35 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

(a) Defined Contribution Plan

The Company's contribution to Provident Fund and Superannuation Fund aggregating ₹ 554.28 lakhs (31st March, 2024 : ₹ 423.08 lakhs) has been recognised in the Statement of Profit or Loss under the head Employee Benefits Expense.

(b) Defined Benefit Plans:

Gratuity

The Company operates a gratuity plan covering qualifying employees. The benefit payable is the greater of the amount calculated as per the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 or the Company scheme applicable to the employee. The benefit vests upon completion of five years of continuous service and once vested it is payable to employees on retirement or on termination of employment. In case of death while in service, the gratuity is payable irrespective of vesting. The Company makes contribution to the group gratuity scheme administered by the Life Insurance Corporation of India through its Gratuity Trust Fund.

Through its defined benefit plans the Company is exposed to a number of risks, the most significant of which are detailed below:

Investment risk

The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated using a discount rate which is determined by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds.

Interest risk

A decrease in the bond interest rate will increase the plan liability; however, this will be partially offset by an increase in the return on the plan's debt investments.

Longevity risk

The present value of defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants both during and after their employment. An increase in the life expectancy of the plan participants will increase the plan's liability.

Salary risk

The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the future salaries of plan participants. As such, an increase in the salary of the plan participants will increase the plan's liability.

	As at
	31-Mar-25	31-Mar-24
Discount rate(s)	6.71%	7.18%
Expected rate(s) of salary increase	10.00%	10.00%

In respect of the plan, the most recent actuarial valuation of the plan assets and the present value of the defined benefit obligation were carried out as at March 31, 2025 by K. A. Pandit, Fellow of the Institute of Actuaries of India. The present value of the defined benefit obligation, and the related current service cost and past service cost, were measured using the projected unit credit method.

(₹ In lakhs)

Principal Assumptions		Changes in assumption (%)	Impact on defined benefit obligation
			Increase in assumption	Decrease in assumption
Discount rate	2025	1.00%	(28.28)	30.77
	2024	1.00%	(19.30)	21.00
Salary growth rate	2025	1.00%	29.53	(27.71)
	2024	1.00%	20.25	(18.99)

The above sensitivity analyses are based on a change in an assumption while holding all other assumptions constant. In practice this is unlikely to occur, and changes in some of the assumptions may be correlated. When calculating the sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to significant actuarial assumptions the same method (present value of the defined benefit obligation calculated with the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period) has been applied as when calculating the defined benefit liability recognised in the Balance sheet.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Mahindra Lifespace Developers Limited (the "Parent") and its subsidiaries, (the Parent and its subsidiaries together referred to as the "Group") which includes the Group's share of profit in its associates and joint ventures, which comprise the Consolidated Balance Sheet as at March 31, 2025, and the Consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows and the Consolidated Statement of Changes in Equity for the year ended on that date, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of material accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, and based on the consideration of reports of the other auditors on separate financial statements of the subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures referred to in the Other Matters section below, the aforesaid consolidated financial statements give the information required by the Companies Act, 2013 (the "Act") in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the Indian Accounting Standards prescribed under section 133 of the Act, ("Ind AS") and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, of the consolidated state of affairs of the Group as at March 31, 2025, and their consolidated profit, their consolidated total comprehensive income, their consolidated cash flows and their consolidated changes in equity for the year ended on that date.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing ("SA"s) specified under section 143 (10) of the Act. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group, its associates and joint ventures in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ("ICAI") together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements under the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence obtained by us and the audit evidence obtained by the other auditors in terms of their reports referred to in the sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of the Other Matters section below, is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the consolidated financial statements.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. We have determined the matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Sr. No.	Key Audit Matter	Auditor's Response
1	Carrying values of Inventories (Construction work in Progress and Finished Goods) As at March 31, 2025, the carrying value of the inventory of ongoing and completed projects is ₹ 446,209.04 lakhs. The inventories are held at the lower of the cost and net realisable value ("NRV").	Principal audit procedures performed: Our audit approach consisted testing of the design and operating effectiveness of the internal controls and substantive testing as follows: • We assessed the Group's process for the valuation of inventories.

Sr. No.	Key Audit Matter	Auditor's Response
		• Evaluated the design, implementation and tested the operating effectiveness of the internal controls relating to the valuation of inventories, including the management process for the review and approval of the estimated costs to complete the projects including construction cost incurred, construction budgets and net realizable value. We carried out a combination of procedures involving enquiry and observation, and inspection of evidence in respect of operation of these controls.
	The determination of NRV involves estimates based on prevailing market conditions and taking into account the stage of completion of the inventory, the estimated future selling price, cost to complete projects and selling costs. We identified the assessment of the carrying value of inventory as a key audit matter due to the significance of the balance to the consolidated financial statements as a whole and the involvement of estimates and judgement in the assessment. Refer Notes 2.19 and 13 to the Consolidated Financial Statements	Selected a sample of inventories and performed procedures around: • Construction costs incurred for the inventories by testing the supporting documents and wherever available, corroborated the same with the reports from external supervising engineers. • Estimated total construction cost to be incurred for completing the construction of the project and wherever available, corroborated the same with the reports from external supervising engineers. • We have carried out site visits for a number of projects during the year to verify the construction progress made. • The Group's methodology and key assumptions for determining NRV of the inventories. We examined the total projected budgeted cost to the total budgeted sale value from the project. We examined the NRV to recent sales in the project.

INFORMATION OTHER THAN THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND AUDITOR'S REPORT THEREON

- The Parent's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Board's Report, Management Discussion and Analysis Report, Corporate Governance Report and Business Responsibility Report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements, standalone financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.
- Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.
- In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information, compare with the financial statements of the subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates audited by the other auditors, to the extent it relates to these entities and, in doing so, place reliance on the work of the other auditors and consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. Other information so far as it relates to the subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates, is traced from their financial statements audited by the other auditors.

- If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF MANAGEMENT AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Parent's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position, consolidated financial performance including other comprehensive income, consolidated cash flows and consolidated changes in equity of the Group including its Associates and joint ventures in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including Ind AS specified under section 133 of the Act. The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and joint ventures are responsible for maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Group and its associates and its joint ventures and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, which have been used for the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements by the Directors of the Parent, as aforesaid.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the respective Management and Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group (and of its associates and joint ventures) are responsible for assessing the ability of the respective entities to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the respective Board of Directors either intend to liquidate their respective entities or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The respective Board of Directors of the companies included in the Group and of its associates and joint ventures are also responsible for overseeing the financial reporting process of the Group and of its associates and joint ventures.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(i) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Parent has adequate internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Group and its associates and joint ventures to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group and its associates and joint ventures to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group and its associates and joint ventures to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of such entities or business activities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors. For the other entities or business activities included in the consolidated financial statements, which have been audited by the other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audits carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the consolidated financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance of the Parent and such other entities included in the consolidated financial statements of which we are the independent auditors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal financial controls that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

A company's internal financial control with reference to consolidated financial statements is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. INHERENT LIMITATIONS OF INTERNAL FINANCIAL CONTROLS WITH REFERENCE TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls with reference to consolidated financial statements to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control with reference to consolidated financial statements may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

Mahindra Lifespace Developers Limited ('the Parent Company') is a limited Group incorporated in India. Its Corporate Identification Number is (CIN) L45200MH1999PLC118949. The equity shares of the Parent Company are listed on the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) and National Stock Exchange (NSE). Its parent and ultimate holding Company is Mahindra & Mahindra Limited.

The addresses of its registered office is disclosed in the introduction to the annual report. The Parent Company along with its subsidiary (together referred to as "the Group") and its associate and joint venture companies are engaged in the development of residential projects and large formats developments such as integrated cities and industrial clusters.

2. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 Statement of compliance & basis of preparation and presentation

The Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with the Indian Accounting Standards ('Ind AS') as per the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 as amended and notified under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 (the 'Act') and other relevant provisions of the Act. The aforesaid financial statements have been approved by the Group's Board of Directors and authorised for issue in the meeting held on 25th April, 2025.

Basis of measurement

These Consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair values at the end of each reporting period, as explained in the accounting policies below:

Historical Cost: Assets are recorded at the amount of cash or cash equivalents paid or the fair value of the other consideration given to acquire them at the time of their acquisition. Liabilities are recorded at the amount of proceeds received in exchange for the obligation, or in some circumstances (for example, income taxes), at the amounts of cash or cash equivalents expected to be paid to satisfy the liability in the normal course of business.

Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

2.2 Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Group and entities (including structured entities) controlled by the Group and its subsidiaries.

Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. Subsidiaries are consolidated on a line-by-line basis from the date the control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases. The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group. Changes in the Group's interest in subsidiaries that do not result in a loss of control are accounted as equity transactions. The carrying amount of the Group's interests and the non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their relative interests in the subsidiaries. Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognised directly in equity and attributed to owners of the Group.

Inter-Group transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between Group are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. These financial statements are prepared by applying uniform accounting policies in use at the group.

Associates

Associates are the entities over which the Group has significant influence. Investment in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting, after initially being recognised at cost.

Joint Arrangements

A joint venture is a joint arrangement whereby the Group has the rights to the net assets of the arrangement. The results, assets and liabilities of a joint venture are accounted using the equity method of accounting. Where the Group's activities are conducted through joint operations (i.e. the parties have rights to the assets and obligation for liabilities relating to the arrangement), the Group recognises its share of assets, liabilities, income and expenses of such joint operations incurred jointly along with its share of income from the sale of output and any liability and expenses incurred in relation to the joint operations.

2.3 Measurement of Fair Values

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. In measuring the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the asset or liability if market participants would take those characteristics into account when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Fair value for measurement and/or disclosure purposes in these consolidated financial statements is determined on such basis, except for share-based payment transactions that are within the scope of Ind AS 102 – "Share based Payments", leasing transactions within the scope of Ind AS 116, "Leases" and measurements that have some similarities to fair value but are not fair value, such as net realisable value in Ind AS 2 - Inventories or value in use in Ind AS 36 – "Impairment of Assets".

In addition, for financial reporting purposes, fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2, or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described as follows:

- Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Group can access at the measurement date;
- Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1, that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3: Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

2.4 Revenue Recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable. Revenue is reduced for estimated customer returns, rebates and other similar allowances.

2.4.1 Revenue from Projects

i. The Group develops and sells residential and commercial properties. Revenue from contracts is recognised when control over the property has been transferred to the customer. An enforceable right to payment does not arise until the development of the property is completed. Therefore, revenue is recognised at a point in time as per IND AS 115 when (a) the seller has transferred to the buyer all significant risks and rewards of ownership and the seller retains no effective control of the real estate unit to a degree usually associated with ownership, (b) The seller has effectively handed over possession of the real estate unit to the buyer forming part of the transaction; (c) No significant uncertainty exists regarding the amount of consideration that will be derived from real estate unit sales; and (d) It is not unreasonable to expect ultimate collection of revenue from buyers. The revenue is measured at the transaction price agreed under the contract.

ii. The Group invoices the customers for construction contracts based on achieving performance-related milestones.

iii. For certain contracts involving the sale of property under development, the Group offers deferred payment schemes to its customers. The Group adjusts the transaction price for the effects of the significant financing component.

iv. Costs to obtain contracts ("Contract costs") relate to fees paid for obtaining property sales contracts. Such costs are recognised as assets when incurred and amortised upon

v. Contract assets is the Group's right to consideration in exchange for goods or services that the Group has transferred to a customer when that right is conditioned on something other than the passage of time.

vi. The Group recognizes revenue at a point in time in each reporting period considering the estimates like reasonableness of collections from customers, disputes with the customer which may result in the cancellation of the contract, which are reassessed periodically by the management. The effect of these changes to estimates is recognised in the period when changes are determined. Accordingly any revenues attributable to such changes and the corresponding Cost of Goods Sold ("COGS") previously recognised are reversed and reduced from the current year's Revenue and COGS respectively.

2.4.2 Revenue from Sale of land and other rights

Revenue from Sale of land and other rights is generally a single performance obligation and the Group has determined that this is satisfied at the point in time when control transfers as per the terms of the contract entered into with the buyers, which generally are with the firmity of the sale contracts / agreements. The determination of transfer of control did not change upon the adoption of Ind AS 115 - Revenue from Contracts with Customers.

2.4.3 Revenue from Project Management fees

Revenue from Project Management Fees and Rental Income are recognized on accrual basis as per the terms and conditions of relevant agreements.

2.4.4 Land Lease Premium

Land lease premium is recognized as income upon creation of leasehold rights in favour of the lessee or upon an agreement to create leasehold rights with handing over of possession.

Property lease rentals, income from operation & maintenance charges and water charges are recognized on an accrual basis as per terms of the agreement with the lessees.

2.4.5 Dividend and interest income

Dividend income from investments in shares is recognized when right to receive is established, which is generally when shareholders approve the dividend.

Dividend income from investment in mutual funds is recognised when the unit holder's right to receive payment has been established.

Interest income from a financial asset is recognised when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, which is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to that asset's net carrying amount on initial recognition.

2.5 Current versus non-current classification

The operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents.

Based on the nature of activity carried out by the Group and the period between the procurement and realisation in cash and cash equivalents, the Group has ascertained its operating cycle as 3 to 5 years for Current - Non-Current classification of assets & liabilities.

The Group presents assets and liabilities in the balance sheet based on current/ non-current classification.

An asset is classified as current when it is:

— Expected to be realised or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle

— Held primarily for trading

— Cash or cash equivalent unless restricted from being exchanged or used to settle a liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

The Group classifies all other assets as non-current.

A liability is classified as current when:

— It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle

— It is held primarily for trading

— It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period, or

— There is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

The Group classifies all other liabilities as non-current.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified as non-current assets and liabilities.

Borrowings are classified as current if they are due to be settled within 12 months after the reporting period.

2.6 Leasing

2.6.1 The Group as a Lessor

Leases for which the Group is a lessor are classified as finance or operating leases. Whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset to the lessee, the contract is classified as a finance lease. All other leases are classified as operating leases.

Rental income from operating leases is generally recognised on a straight-line basis over the term of the relevant lease. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The respective leased assets are presented in the balance sheet based on their nature. The Group did not need to make any adjustments to the accounting for assets held as a lessor.

2.6.2 The Group as a Lessee

The Group recognises right-of-use asset representing its right to use the underlying asset for the lease term and a corresponding lease liability at the lease commencement date i.e. the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group. The cost of the right-of-use asset measured at inception shall comprise of the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received, plus any initial direct costs incurred and an estimate of costs to be incurred by the lessee in dismantling and removing the underlying asset or restoring the underlying asset or site on which it is located. The right-of-use assets is subsequently measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation, accumulated impairment losses, if any and adjusted for any remeasurement of the lease liability. The right-of-use assets is depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of right-of-use asset or the end of the lease term. The estimated useful lives of right-of use assets are determined on the same basis as those of property, plant and equipment. Right-of-use assets are tested for impairment whenever there is any indication that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. Impairment loss, if any, is recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

The Group measures the lease liability at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date of the lease. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the Group uses incremental borrowing rate. For leases with reasonably similar characteristics, the Group, on a lease by lease basis, may adopt either the incremental borrowing rate specific to the lease or the incremental borrowing rate for the portfolio as a whole. The lease payments shall include fixed payments, variable lease payments, residual value guarantees, exercise price of a purchase option where the Group is reasonably certain to exercise that option and payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the lessee exercising an option to terminate the lease. The lease liability is subsequently remeasured by increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability, reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made and remeasuring the carrying amount to reflect any reassessment or lease modifications or to reflect revised in-substance fixed lease payments. Where the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset is reduced to zero and there is a further reduction in the measurement of the lease liability, the Group recognises any remaining amount of the re-measurement in statement of profit and loss.

The Group has elected not to apply the requirements of Ind AS 116 Leases to short-term leases of all assets that, at the commencement date, have a lease term of 12 months or less and leases for which the underlying asset is of low value. The lease payments associated with these leases are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

2.7 Foreign exchange transactions and translation

Transactions in foreign currencies i.e. other than the Group's functional currency are recognised at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions. At the end of each reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated using the closing rate prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items measured at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was measured. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on translating monetary items at rates different from those at which they were translated on initial recognition during the period or in previous financial statements shall be recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise except for:

- Exchange differences on foreign currency borrowings relating to assets under construction for future productive use, which are included in the cost of those assets when they are regarded as an adjustment to interest costs on those foreign currency borrowings; and

- Exchange differences on transactions entered to hedge certain foreign currency risks.

2.8 Employee Benefits

2.8.1 Defined contribution plans

The Group's contribution to provident fund and superannuation fund is considered as defined contribution plan and is charged as an expense in profit and loss based on the amount of contribution required to be made. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contributions have been paid.

2.8.2 Defined benefit plan

Defined benefit gratuity plan is wholly or partly funded by contributions by the Group. The liability or assets recognised in the Balance Sheet in respect of defined benefit gratuity plan is the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period less the fair value of the plan assets. The defined benefit obligation is calculated by actuaries using an actuarial technique, the projected unit credit method.

The present value of the defined benefit obligation is determined by discounting the estimated future cash outflows with reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation.

Net interest on the net defined benefit liability (asset) is the change during the period in the net defined benefit liability (asset) that arises from the passage of time. The net interest cost is calculated applying the discount rate to the net balance of the defined benefit obligation and the fair value of plan assets. This cost is included in the employee benefit expenses in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.8.3 Remeasurement gains/losses

Remeasurement of defined benefit plans, comprising of actuarial gains or losses, return on plan assets excluding interest income are recognised immediately in balance sheet with corresponding debit or credit to other comprehensive income. They are included in Retained Earnings in the Statement of Changes in Equity and in the Balance Sheet.

Remeasurement of the net defined benefit liability (asset) recognised in other comprehensive income shall not be reclassified to profit or loss in a subsequent period.

Remeasurement gains or losses on long term compensated absences that are classified as other long term benefits are recognised in profit or loss.

2.8.4 Short-term and other long-term employee benefits:

The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees are recognised during the year when the employees render the service. These benefits include performance incentive and compensated absences which are expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service.

The cost of short-term compensated absences is accounted as under:

(a) in case of accumulated compensated absences, when employees render the services that increase their entitlement of future compensated absences; and

(b) in case of non-accumulating compensated absences, when the absences occur.

Compensated absences which are not expected to occur within twelve months after the end of the period in which the employee renders the related service are recognised as a liability at the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees upto the end of the reporting period using the projected unit credit method. The benefits are discounted using the market yields at the end of the reporting period that have terms approximating to the terms of the related obligation. Remeasurements as a result of experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in Statement of Profit and Loss.

2.8.5 Employee Stock Option Scheme

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date. The fair value determined at the grant date of the equity-settled share-based payments is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of equity instruments that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity.

At the end of each reporting period the Group revises its estimate of the No. of equity instruments expected to vest. The impact of revision of the original estimate, if any, is recognised in profit or loss such that the cumulative expense reflects the revised estimate with the corresponding adjustments to the equity settled.

2.9 Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the Balance sheet comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.10 Earnings per share

The Group reports basic and diluted earnings per share in accordance with Ind AS - 33 on 'Earnings per Share'. Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit or loss attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Parent Company for the year by the weighted average number of Equity shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit or loss attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Parent Company for the year by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year as adjusted for the effects of all diluted potential equity shares except where the results are anti- dilutive.

2.11 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until substantially all the activities necessary to prepare the qualifying assets for its intended use or sale are complete.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

2.12 Income Taxes

Income Tax expense represents the sum of tax currently payable and deferred tax

2.12.1 Current tax

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted, at the reporting date. Current tax items are recognised in correlation to the underlying transaction either in OCI or directly in Equity.

2.12.2 Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences and unused tax losses only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset realised, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.12.3 Current and deferred tax for the year

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss, except when they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case, the current and deferred tax are also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity respectively.

2.13 Property, plant and equipment

Land and buildings held for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes, are stated in the balance sheet at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Freehold land is not depreciated.

Properties in the course of construction for production, supply or administrative purposes are carried at cost, less any recognised impairment loss.

Cost includes professional fees and, for qualifying assets, borrowing costs capitalised in accordance with the Group's accounting policy. Such properties are classified to the appropriate categories of property, plant and equipment when completed and ready for intended use. Depreciation of these assets, on the same basis as other property assets, commences when the assets are ready for their intended use.

Fixtures and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of assets (other than freehold land and properties under construction) less their residual values over their useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

Assets held under finance leases are depreciated over their expected useful lives on the same basis as owned assets. However, when there is no reasonable certainty that ownership will be obtained by the end of the lease term, assets are depreciated over the shorter of the lease term and their useful lives.

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

Depreciation on tangible fixed assets has been provided on pro-rata basis, on the straight-line method as per the useful life prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013 except for certain assets as indicated below:

Lease hold improvements are amortised over the period of lease/estimated period of lease.

Vehicles used by employees are depreciated over the period of 48 months considering this period as the useful life of the vehicle for the Group.

Sales office and the sample flat/ show unit cost at site is amortised over 5 years or the duration of the project (as estimated by management) whichever is lower.

Computers, computer equipment's and furniture and fixtures are depreciated over the period of 1 year to 10 years.

Plant and equipment's are depreciated over the period of 1 year to 7 years.

Fixed Assets held for disposal are valued at estimated net realizable value.

2.14 Intangible Assets other than goodwill

2.14.1 Intangible assets acquired separately

Intangible assets with finite useful lives that are acquired separately are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation is recognised on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful life and amortisation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate being accounted for on a prospective basis.

2.14.2 Derecognition of Intangible assets

An intangible asset is derecognised on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains or losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset, measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised.

2.14.3 Useful lives of Intangible assets

Estimated useful lives of the intangible assets are as follows:

Computer Software	5 years

2.15 Goodwill

Goodwill is initially recognised as the excess of the acquirer's interest in the net fair value of the identifiable net assets of the acquired business. Subsequent to initial measurement, goodwill is measured at cost less accumulated impairment, if any. Goodwill is allocated to cash generating unit which is expected to benefit from the business combination.

2.16 Impairment of tangible and intangible assets other than Goodwill

At the end of each reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its tangible and intangible assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount, which is the higher of the value in use or fair value less cost to sell, of the asset or cash generating unit, as the case may be, is estimated and the impairment loss (if any) is recognised and the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. When a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be identified, corporate assets are also allocated to individual cash-generating units, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash-generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be identified.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and intangible assets not yet available for use are tested for impairment at least annually, and whenever there is an indication that the asset may be impaired.

When an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

2.17 Cost of Construction/Development

Cost of Construction/Development (including cost of land) incurred is charged to the statement of profit and loss proportionate to project area sold. Costs incurred for projects which have not received Occupancy/Completion Certificate is carried over as construction work-in-progress. Costs incurred for projects which have received Occupancy/ Completion Certificate is carried over as Completed Properties.

2.18 Assets held for sale

Non-current assets or disposal groups are classified as held for sale if its carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use. To classify as held for sale, the asset must be available for immediate sale in its present condition, its sale must be highly probable and is marketed for sale at a price that is reasonable in relation to its current fair value. The Group must also be committed to the sale, which should be expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification. Non-current assets and disposal groups classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying value and fair value less costs to sell.

2.19 Inventories

Raw materials are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined based on a weighted average basis.

Stock of units in completed projects and construction work-in-progress are valued at lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost includes land cost, materials, contract works, direct expenses and allocated interest & manpower costs and expenses incidental to the projects undertaken by the Group.

2.20 Dividend Distribution

Dividends paid (including income tax thereon) is recognized in the period in which the interim dividends are approved by the Board of Directors, or in respect of the final dividend when approved by shareholders.

2.21 Provisions and contingent liabilities

2.21.1 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Group will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

The amount recognised as a provision is the best estimate of the consideration required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period, taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation. When a provision is measured using the cash flows estimated to settle the present obligation, its carrying amount is the present value of those cash flows (when the effect of the time value of money is material).

When some or all of the economic benefits required to settle a provision are expected to be recovered from a third party, a receivable is recognised as an asset if it is virtually certain that reimbursement will be received and the amount of the receivable can be measured reliably.

Provisions and contingent liabilities are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date.

2.21.2 Onerous contracts

Present obligations arising under onerous contracts are recognised and measured as provisions. An onerous contract is considered to exist where the Group has a contract under which the unavoidable costs of meeting the obligations under the contract exceed the economic benefits expected to be received from the contract.

2.21.3 Contingent liabilities

Contingent liability is disclosed in case of:

a) a present obligation arising from past events, when it is not probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation; and

b) a present obligation arising from past events, when no reliable estimate is possible.

2.22 Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instruments.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss) are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised immediately in profit or loss. However, trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are measured at transaction price.

2.22.1 Classification and subsequent measurement

2.22.1.1 Financial assets

All regular way purchases or sales of financial assets are recognised and derecognised on a trade date basis. Regular way purchases or sales are purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace. All recognised financial assets are subsequently measured at either amortised cost or fair value depending on their respective classification.

On initial recognition, a financial asset is classified as - measured at:

— Amortised cost; or

— Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI) - debt investment; or

— Fair Value through Other Comprehensive Income (FVTOCI) - equity investment; or

— Fair Value Through Profit or Loss (FVTPL)

Financial assets are not reclassified subsequent to their initial recognition, except if and in the period the Group changes its business model for managing financial assets.

All financial assets not classified as measured at amortised cost or FVTOCI are measured at FVTPL.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured at amortised cost using effective interest method.

The amortised cost is reduced by impairment losses. Interest income, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Any gain and loss on derecognition is recognised in profit or loss.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a debt instrument and of allocating interest income over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts (including all fees and points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the debt instrument, or, where appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Debt investment at FVTOCI are subsequently measured at fair value. Interest income under effective interest method, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Other net gains and losses are recognised in Other Comprehensive Income (OCI). On derecognition, gains and losses accumulated in OCI are reclassified to profit or loss.

For equity investments, the Group makes an election on an instrument-by-instrument basis to designate equity investments as measured at FVTOCI. These elected investments are measured at fair value with gains and losses arising from changes in fair value recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in the reserves. The cumulative gain or loss is not reclassified to profit or loss on disposal of the investments. These investments in equity are not held for trading. Instead, they are held for medium or long-term strategic purpose.

Equity investments that are not designated as measured at FVTOCI are designated as measured at FVTPL and subsequent changes in fair value are recognised in profit or loss.

Financial assets at FVTPL are subsequently measured at fair value. Net gains and losses, including any interest or dividend income, are recognised in profit or loss.

2.22.1.2 Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Debt and equity instruments issued by the Group are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of an entity after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Group is recognised at the proceeds received, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are classified as measured at amortised cost or FVTPL. A financial liability is classified as at FVTPL if it is classified as held-for-trading or it is a derivative (that does not meet hedge accounting requirements) or it is designated as such on initial recognition. Other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Interest expense and foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is also recognised in profit or loss.

2.22.2 Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows in a transaction in which substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred or in which the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership and does not retain control of the financial asset.

If the Group enters into transactions whereby it transfers assets recognised on its balance sheet, but retains either all or substantially all of the risks and rewards of the transferred assets, the transferred assets are not derecognised.

2.22.3 Offsetting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the balance sheet when, and only when, the Group currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the amounts and it intends either to settle them on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.22.4 Impairment of financial assets

The Group applies the expected credit loss (ECL) model for recognising impairment loss on financial assets. With respect to trade receivables, the Group measures the loss allowance at an amount equal to lifetime expected credit losses.

Loss allowances for financial assets measured at amortised cost are deducted from the gross carrying amount of the assets. For debt securities at FVTOCI, the loss allowance is recognised in OCI and is not reduced from the carrying amount of the financial asset in the balance sheet.

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write- off. However, financial assets that are written off could still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. Any recoveries made are recognised in profit or loss.

2.22.5 Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognizes financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. An exchange between with a lender of debt instruments with substantially different terms is accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability. Similarly, a substantial modification of the terms of an existing financial liability (whether or not attributable to the financial difficulty of the debtor) is accounted for as an extinguishment of the original financial liability and the recognition of a new financial liability. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and/or payable is recognised in profit or loss.

2.23 Business combinations

The Group accounts for its business combinations under acquisition method of accounting. The acquirer's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities that meet the condition for recognition are recognised at their fair values at the acquisition date. The difference between the fair value of the purchase consideration paid together with non-controlling interest on acquisition date and the fair value of net assets acquired is recognised as goodwill or capital reserve on acquisition. The excess of the sum of the consideration transferred, the amount of any non-controlling interests in the acquiree, and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree (if any) over the net of the acquisition-date amounts of the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed is recognized as goodwill. Any shortfall is recognised as capital reserve on consolidation.

In case of a bargain purchase, before recognising gain in respect thereof, the Group determines whether there exists clear evidence of underlying reasons for classifying the business combination as a bargain purchase. Thereafter, the Group reassesses whether it has correctly identified all of the assets acquired and all of the liabilities assumed and recognises any additional asset or liabilities that are identified in that reassessment. The Group then reviews the procedures used to measure the amounts that Ind AS requires for the purposes of calculating the bargain purchase. If the gain remains after this reassessment and review, the Group recognises it in other comprehensive income and accumulates the same in equity as capital reserve. This gain is attributed to the acquirer. If there does not exist clear evidence of the underlying reasons for classifying the business combination as a bargain purchase, the Group recognises the gain, after reassessing and reviewing (as described above), directly in equity as capital reserve.

The interest in non-controlling interest is initially measured at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. The choice of measurement basis is made on an acquisition by acquisition basis. Subsequent to initial acquisition, the carrying amount of non-controlling interest is the amount of those interest in initial recognition plus the non-controlling interest's share of subsequent changes in equity of subsidiaries.

When the consideration transferred by the Group in business combination includes assets or liabilities resulting in a contingent consideration arrangement, the contingent consideration is measured at its acquisition date fair value and included as a part of the consideration transferred in a business combination. Changes in the fair value of the contingent consideration that qualify as measurement period adjustments, are adjusted retrospectively, with corresponding adjustments against goodwill or capital reserve as the case may be.

Measurement period adjustments are adjustments that arise from additional information during the 'measurement period' (which cannot exceed one year from the acquisition date) about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date.

The subsequent accounting for changes in the fair value of the contingent consideration that do not qualify as the measurement period adjustments depends on how the contingent consideration is classified. Contingent consideration that is classified as equity is not remeasured at subsequent reporting dates and its subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity. Contingent consideration that is classified as an asset or a liability is remeasured at fair value at subsequent reporting dates with the corresponding gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss.

When a business combination is achieved in stages, the Group's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to its acquisition-date fair value and the resulting gain or loss, if any, is recognised in profit or loss. Amounts arising from interests in the acquiree prior to the acquisition date that have previously been recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss where such treatment would be appropriate if that interest were disposed of.

If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the reporting period in which the combination occurs, the Group reports provisional amount for the items for which the accounting is incomplete. Those provisional amount are adjusted during the measurement period, or additional assets or liabilities are recognised, to reflect new information obtained about facts and circumstances that existed at the acquisition date that, if known, would have affected the amount recognised at that date.

2.23.1 Business Combination under common control

Business Combination under common control are accounted as per Appendix C in Ind AS 103 - Business combinations, at carrying amount of assets and liabilities acquired and any excess of consideration issued over the net assets acquired is recognised as capital reserve on common control business combination.

2.23.2 Acquisition of interest in associate and joint venture

Acquisition of interest in an associate or a joint venture, is initially recognised at cost. Any excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the investee is regarded as goodwill, which is included in the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of the investment, after reassessment, is recognised in equity as capital reserve in the period in which the investment is acquired.

2.24 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the Chief Operating Decision Maker. The Board of Directors of the respective group companies assess the financial performance and position of the Group and makes strategic decisions. The Board of Directors, which have been identified as being the Chief Operating Decision Maker, consists of the key managerial personnel and the directors who are in charge of the corporate planning (refer note 38 of financial statement).

3. USE OF ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, which are described in note 2, the management is required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgements based on estimates and assumptions, which have the significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements:

A. Useful lives of property, plant and equipment, Investment Property and Intangible Asset

The Group reviews the useful life of Property, Plant and Equipment, Investment Property and Intangible Asset at the end of each reporting period. This re-assessment may result in change in depreciation expense in future periods.

B. Fair value measurements and valuation processes

Some of the Group's assets and liabilities are measured at fair value for financial reporting purposes. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Group uses market-observable data to the extent it is available. Where Level 1 inputs are not available, the Group engages third party valuers, where required, to perform the valuation. Information about the valuation techniques and inputs used in determining the fair value of various assets, liabilities and share based payments are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

C. Actuarial Valuation

The determination of Group's liability towards defined benefit obligation to employees is made through independent actuarial valuation including determination of amounts to be recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss and in other comprehensive income. Such valuation depends upon assumptions determined after taking into account inflation, seniority, promotion and other relevant factors such as supply and demand factors in the employment market. Information about such valuation is provided in notes to the financial statements.

D. Taxes

Deferred tax assets are recognised for temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the losses can be utilised. Significant management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred tax assets that can be recognised, based upon the likely timing and the level of future taxable profits together with future tax planning strategies.

E. Determination of the timing of revenue recognition on the sale of completed and under development property

The Group has evaluated and generally concluded that the recognition of revenue over the period of time criteria are not met owing to non-enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date and, therefore, recognises revenue at a point in time. The Group has further evaluated and concluded that based on the analysis of the rights and obligations under the terms of the contracts relating to the sale of property, the revenue is to be recognised at a point in time when control transfers which coincides with receipt of Occupation Certificate.

F. Determination of performance obligations

With respect to the sale of property, the Group has evaluated and concluded that the goods and services transferred in each contract constitute a single performance obligation. In particular, the promised goods and services in contracts for the sale of property is to undertake development of property and obtaining the Occupation Certificate. Generally, the Group is responsible for all these goods and servicesand the overall management of the project. Although these goods and services are capable of being distinct, the Group accounts for them as a single performance obligation because they are not distinct in the context of the contract.

Financial Risk Management Framework

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk. In order to manage the aforementioned risks, the Group operates a risk management policy and a program that performs close monitoring of and responding to each risk factor.

CREDIT RISK

(i) Credit risk management

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Group. Credit risk arises from trade receivables, cash and cash equivalents, mutual Funds & other financial assets.

Trade Receivables:

The Group's trade receivables include receivables on sale of residential flats and rent receivable. As per the Group's flat handover policy, a flat is handed over to a customer only upon payment of entire amount of consideration. The rent receivables are secured by security deposits obtained under the lease agreement. Thus, the Group is not exposed to any credit risk on receivables from sale of residential flats and rent receivables.

The concentration of credit risk is limited due to the fact that the customer base is large. The Group determines the allowances for expected credit losses based on historical loss experience adjusted to reflect current and estimated future economic conditions. Basis this assessment, the allowances for expected credit losses trade receivables as at 31st March, 2025 is considered adequate.

Cash and Cash Equivalents, Mutual Funds & Other Financial Assets

For banks and financial institutions, only high rated banks/institutions are accepted. The Group holds cash and cash equivalents with bank and financial institution counterparties, which are having highest safety ratings based on ratings published by various credit rating agencies. The Group considers that its cash and cash equivalents have low credit risk based on external credit ratings of the counterparties.

The Group's determines the allowance for expected credit losses based on historical loss experience adjusted to reflect current and estimated future economic conditions. Basis this assessment, the allowance for doubtful trade receivables as at 31st March, 2025 is considered adequate.

The Group holds mutual funds with financial institution counterparties, which are having highest safety ratings based on ratings published by various credit rating agencies. The Group considers that its mutual funds have low credit risk based on external credit ratings of the counterparties.

For Other Financial Assets, the Group assesses and manages credit risk based on reasonable and supportive forward looking information. Other financial assets are considered to be low credit risk exposure assets.

LIQUIDITY RISK

(i) Liquidity risk management

Ultimate responsibility for liquidity risk management rests with the board of directors, which has established an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the Group's short-term, medium-term and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The Group manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate reserves, banking facilities and reserve borrowing facilities, by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows, and by matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

(ii) Maturities of financial liabilities

The following tables detail the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its non-derivative financial liabilities with agreed repayment periods. The amount disclosed in the tables have been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. The tables include both interest and principal cash flows.

MARKET RISK

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk such as equity price risk. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters, while optimising the return. All such transactions are carried out within the guidelines set by the Board of Directors.

Future specific market movements cannot be normally predicted with reasonable accuracy.

Currency Risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the fair value or the future cash flows of an exposure will fluctuate because of changes in the foreign exchange rate. The Group undertakes few transactions denominated in foreign currencies only for availing certain services. Hence Foreign currency risk is not significant in comparison to company's operations.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's debt obligations with floating interest rates. The Group manages its interest rate risk by having a balanced portfolio of fixed and floating rate loans and borrowings.

Interest rate sensitivity

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates on that portion of loans and borrowings affected. With all other variables held constant, the Group's loss before tax is affected through the impact on floating rate borrowings, as follows:

From the current year, considering similar and interconnected nature of the services and products and associated risk and returns, the Chief Operating Decision Maker has started allocating resource and assessing the performance of the operating segment i.e., construction and development of real estate projects as a single operating segment, which has resulted in change in segment disclosure compared to earlier year.

Considering that there is only one reportable segment, there are no additional disclosures to be provided under Ind AS 108 - Segment information, other than to the extent already provided in these financial statements.

39. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

(a) Defined Contribution Plan

The Group's contribution to Provident Fund and Superannuation Fund aggregating ₹ 579.86 lakhs (2024 : ₹ 451.46 lakhs) has been recognised in the Statement of Profit or Loss under the head Employee Benefits Expense.

(b) Defined Benefit Plans:

Gratuity

The Group operates a gratuity plan covering qualifying employees. The benefit payable is the greater of the amount calculated as per the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 or the Group scheme applicable to the employee. The benefit vests upon completion of five years of continuous service and once vested it is payable to employees on retirement or on termination of employment. In case of death while in service, the gratuity is payable irrespective of vesting. The Group makes annual contribution to the group gratuity scheme administered by the Life Insurance Corporation of India through its Gratuity Trust Fund.

Through its defined benefit plans the Group is exposed to a number of risks, the most significant of which are detailed below:

Investment risk

The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated using a discount rate which is determined by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds.

Interest risk

A decrease in the bond interest rate will increase the plan liability; however, this will be partially offset by an increase in the return on the plan's debt investments.

Longevity risk

The present value of defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the best estimate of the mortality of plan participants both during and after their employment. An increase in the life expectancy of the plan participants will increase the plan's liability.

Salary risk

The present value of the defined benefit plan liability is calculated by reference to the future salaries of plan participants. As such, an increase in the salary of the plan participants will increase the plan's liability.

The significant actuarial assumptions used for the purposes of the actuarial valuations were as follows:

	Valuation as at
	31st March, 2025	31st March, 2024
Discount rate(s)	6.71%	7.18%

The sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to changes in the weighted principal assumptions is:

(₹ In lakhs)

Principal Assumptions	Year	Changes in assumption	Impact on defined benefit obligation
			Increase in assumption	Decrease in assumption
Discount rate	2025	1.00%	(31.91)	24.16
	2024	1.00%	(22.87)	24.33
Salary growth rate	2025	1.00%	33.07	(22.16)
	2024	1.00%	23.76	(22.32)

The above sensitivity analyses are based on a change in an assumption while holding all other assumptions constant. In practice this is unlikely to occur, and changes in some of the assumptions may be correlated. When calculating the sensitivity of the defined benefit obligation to significant actuarial assumptions the same method (present value of the defined benefit obligation calculated with the projected unit credit method at the end of the reporting period) has been applied as when calculating the defined benefit liability recognised in the Balance sheet.

A Story Behind the Name: Damyanti, The Princess

By Mittal Bhalla

In every name lies a story. And in the name "Damyanti," there lives a legacy.

To my family, Damyanti is more than my grandmother. She's a matriarch, a mentor, and a symbol of strength. Born in undivided India in Karachi in 1937, my grandmother's early life was one of comfort and luxury. "My parents even paid 10 paise per morsel I ate to ensure I stayed healthy," she would often quote light-heartedly, recalling her indulgent childhood.

At just 10, India- Pakistan partition uprooted Damyanti– my grandmother from her world of silks and gratification, thrusting her on a journey of survival. "When life pushes you to the brink, you'll find strength you never knew existed," she would tell us, her grandchildren.

From escaping war-torn Karachi to rebuilding life in Gujarat, her resilience was fierce and unwavering. Today, at 88, she is unstoppable. Every morning, she reads the newspaper cover-to-cover, keeping herself abreast with politics and global business. In keeping with my area of work and interest, she often engages in discussions, a recent one was her views on Tesla's India plans and the challenges it might bring to Mahindra and Tata Motors.

"Age is just a number," she quips. "I live by curiosity, not calendar years."

Damyanti's story is a living example of resilience and grace that connects three generations, me-her granddaughter, her daughter, and herself. Her story is a tribute and personification of Mahindra Lifespaces' people-first approach that took the occasion of Women's Day to recognise her legacy of: courage, strength and grace.

From Single Mother to Family Backbone

By Geetha Rajendran

Some women wear their strength silently. Others raise homes with it.

Susila Damodharan, my mother-in-law, is both. Married at 15 and embraced motherhood at the tender young age of 16. She found herself shouldering the responsibility of a parent single-handedly, as her husband pursued a career abroad. Professional commitments restricted his visits to meet the family to once every four years. Going back 40 years ago, the family had limited communication, and this impacted the bond the children could build with their father.

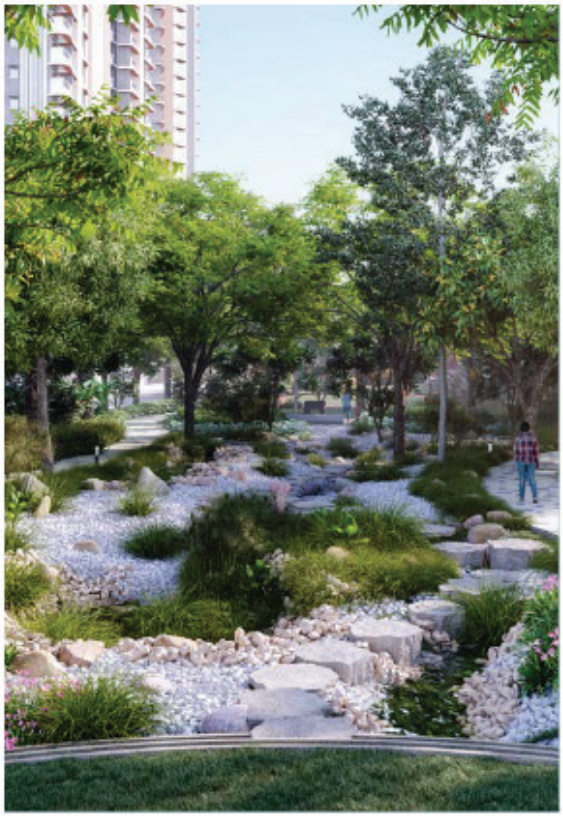

"Her strength wasn't loud—it was steady," Geetha says. "She didn't ask for help, she became it."

My mother-in-law ensured her children got the best education and went over and beyond to help support their aspirations and desires.
A ninth standard drop-out, Sushila secured the family's future by constructing a 12,000 sq.ft. home. She mastered MEP and civil works during the process and, to this day; handles any issues that may arise herself. To raising her children with dignity and ambition, Susila built not just a 12,000 sq. ft. home—but a legacy. Today, her sons are accomplished professionals, and her wisdom continues to be the guiding light of the family.

What stands out most is her clarity. "She always knew the value of education and encouraged every woman around her to rise—starting with me."

Susila's story reflects the quiet leadership Mahindra Lifespaces celebrates—a voice of compassion, courage, and consistency.
