CPM team meets EC, recommends electoral reforms

New Delhi: The CPI(M) suggested moving to a partial proportional representation system during a meeting with the EC on Saturday while also expressing concern over proposals on the delimitation exercise and holding simultaneous polls.

The Left party was the third to be called for a meeting with the Election Commission (EC), which is holding discussions with national and state parties to get a better understanding of their concerns after Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar took charge.

The CPI(M) delegation included its general secretary MA Baby, Polit Bureau member Nilotpal Basu and Central Secretariat member Muralidharan.

The Left party also expressed concern over the process of selection of the election commissioners, including the chief election commissioner. "We submitted a very detailed understanding of the CPI(M) on various issues. Certain issues are related to modifications in the electoral process such as proportional representation, which we have demanded... This is not within the purview of the Election Commission." Baby said after the meeting.

The proportional representation system gives representation not just on the basis of seats won by a political party but also counts its vote share percentage. The Left party, in its submission to the EC, said the first-past-the-post system was proving to be increasingly outmoded in reflecting popular opinion, with increasing disconnect between the popular votes polled by parties and the number of seats they secured in legislatures.

Citing the 2014 Lok Sabha polls as an example, it said the BJP won 282 seats with a 31 per cent vote share while the Congress managed only 44 with a share of 19.3 per cent.

In the 2024 poll, BJP secured 240 seats with 36.56% of the votes while Congress -- with a mere rise of 1.89% to 21.9%, won an additional 55 seats compared to 2014.

Heatwave scorches Odisha

Bhubaneswar: Heatwave conditions scorched Odisha on Saturday with 16 places recording temperatures above 40°C, officials said. State capital Bhubaneswar recorded 40.2 degrees Celsius, the first time the mercury crossed the 40 degrees mark this summer, they said.

Sambalpur in the western part of the state was the hottest place, recording 42.7°C, they added. Sambalpur was closely followed by Hirakud, which recorded 41.7°C, and Jharsuguda at 41.6°C. The IMD said the state is likely to experience heatwave conditions till May 14.
