TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

JALANDHAR, OCTOBER 30
Dr Daljit Singh Cheema and Surjit Singh Rakhra of the SAD today met former SGPC chief Bibi Jagir Kaur in Kapurthala in the wake of her recent statements against the prevalent culture in the party.

Dr Cheema and Rakhra conveyed her the party's sentiments and urged her to follow the party line.

Cheema said, "Further talks will continue. We had a discussion in a very positive atmosphere with her. We deem it our duty to discuss things with the senior leader and to understand her view point. That's all I can say at the moment." Bibi Jagir Kaur said, "As far as my decision on contesting the poll is concerned, I had already discussed the issue with the SGPC president Harjinder Singh Dhami. I have told them (SAD leaders) that let Dhami take a decision."

Sikh bodies seek 'visa on arrival' for pilgrims

SAKA PANJA SAHIB CENTENARY Say political differences affecting movement of jathas

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

AMRITSAR, OCTOBER 30
Liberalised visa policy, upkeep of the Sikh shrines and resumption of train service between India and Pakistan were the main issues raised during the centenary of Shaheedi Saka (martyrdom massacre) Panja Sahib at Gurdwara Sri Panja Sahib in Hasan Abdal in Pakistan today.

The samagam was jointly organised by the Pakistan Sikh Gurdwara Management Committee (PSGPC) and Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee (SGPC). Akal Takht's officiating jathedar Giani Harpreet Singh said post-Partition, many gurdhams (Sikh shrines), including Gurdwara Panja Sahib, went to Pakistan, towards which the Sikh community had deep reverence and devotion.

He emphasised that the Sikh shrines and institutions need to be strengthened. He believed that the political differences among the neigh-

Sikh dignitaries at Gurdwara Panja Sahib in Pakistan on Sunday.

ABOUT THE INCIDENT

- A special "ardas" was held at Hasan Abdal railway station, where the incident took place on October 30, 1922
- Around 200 volunteers had blocked the rail track as they wanted to serve langar to the Sikh detainees
- The train was brought to a screeching halt, but not before mowing down at least 11 volunteers
- Bhai Karam Singh and Bhai Partap Singh succumbed and were declared martyrs

bouring nations affected the movement of Sikh jathas. "I urge both the governments to initiate on-arrival visas to the Sikhs who aspire to visit the shrines on either side, without any inconvenience," he said.

He also raised the issue of train service between India and Pakistan being suspended from 2020 onwards. "Train was the most affordable mode of transport for pilgrims. The service should be resumed," he said.

SGPC chief Harjinder Singh Dhami said the Sikhs would continue to follow the footsteps of Shaheed Bhai Karam Singh and Shaheed Bhai Pratap Singh.

Dhami appealed to allow open pilgrimage to the Sikh shrines. He also mentioned about the denial of visas to Sikh personalities who aspired to attend the centenary congregation.

He proposed that the Sikh preachers and raagi jathas must be given multiple visas, so that they could have easy access to the Sikh shrines in Pakistan.

Out of 157 applications submitted by the SGPC, 40 were rejected by Pakistan this time. It was only after the SGPC's adamant stand that 14 more members were granted visas at the eleventh hour, which included raagis of the

FEROZEPUR, OCTOBER 30

After a purported audio clip of Cabinet Minister Fauja Singh Sarari and his "friend-turned-foe" Tarsem Lal Kapoor went viral creating a furore in the state politics, their daughters have now reportedly locked horns on social media.

While the minister's daughter Simranjit Sarari was seen defending her father, his former OSD's daughter Sherry Kapoor lamented that the people were apparently unhappy with the style of functioning of the minister and workers were leaving them.

Simranjit said there were some "opportunists" people who had come forward for their vested interests and "vanished" at the time of crisis. "It's for the masses to decide our working style. People are always supreme," said Simranjit, adding that they were working selflessly for the

Amrit Sanchar to focus on 'de-addiction' of youth

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

AMRITSAR, OCTOBER 30

Amritpal Singh, head of Waris Punjab De, which was founded by late Punjabi actor Deep Sidhu, said Amrit Sanchar will result in de-addiction of youngsters and the entire state will be free from drugs.

Amritpal participated in the event organised by the Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee (SGPC) at Akal Takht today.

On his call, a large number of Sikh youth gathered at Akal Takht to take part in the Amrit Sanchar. A couple of youngsters escorting him were seen carrying rifles.

Addressing the media, he said similar events were being held across the state. He flayed those stating that his actions would bring back the period of 1980s in the state.

He said there was no other issue in the state but to free it from the "shackles of slavery". He asked farm leader Rakesh Tikait not to interfere in the affairs of Punjab and social media influencer Vicky Thomas to stay away from the Sikh issues.

COURTESY MEET Balwant Singh Ramoowalia calls on Vice-President Jagdeep Dhankhar.

Lying low till dust settles down

Gurdaspur: Very few men have the virtue to withstand the highest bidder. The rest just buckle in at the sight of the moolah. Officers engaged in making a quick buck were clearly unnerved when news spread that a couple of IAS officers, often referred to as "men of impeccable integrity", left the shores of the country after the Vigilance sleuths turned on the heat. The recent arrest of a few ex-ministers has also proved that these sleuths are in no mood to relent. The consensus among senior officers now is to lie low till the dust settles down. One bureaucrat even went to the extent of saying, "Honest officers are not scared. It is just reminding certain that 'Jaisee kamee, waisee bharni'."

All's well that ends well

Batala: Three years ago when more than two dozen people died following a blast at an illegal firecracker unit, the administration had gone all out to ensure an encore does not happen. However, businessmen dealing in firecrackers did not listen. The lure of the lucre was too powerful for them to see reason. Business went on as usual, following which the city sat on a powder keg this Diwali season. Residents in general and SDM Shayari Bhandrai in particular heaved a sigh of relief when the last of the firecrackers went off sans any untoward incident. As they say, all's well that ends well!

Espousing the cause of Punjabis

Chandigarh: Member of Rajya Sabha Vikramjit Singh Sahney seems to be taking his job very seriously. From doing social work through his NGO to meeting diplomats for espousing the cause of Punjabis abroad- Sahney sure is trying to be the "Punjab da Puttar", especially as his detractors had earlier accused the ruling Aam Aadmi Party of selecting non-Punjabis (Sahney is settled in New Delhi) for nomination of the Upper House.

Beware of scammers

Amritsar: A resident hired the costliest cook for preparing dinner and morning tea. The victim paid Rs 48,000 in advance for the cook he hired through an online agency. "The scammer did prepare dinner for us on the very first day and served tea the next morning. Ever since then, we have not seen him," said the victim. "Going to the police will require time and resources. I have already learnt my lesson," he said. For those who are curious, the cook had cooked 'masra di dal' for dinner.

CM house residents' bane

Sangrur: The rented accommodation of Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann on Patiala Road at Dream Land colony has become a bane of residents. Protesters block Sangrur-Patiala Road without thinking even once that the CM does not come here frequently. Apart from farmers, government and contractual staff protest here repeatedly. All the requests of Sangrur administration that "CM does not stay here" fall on deaf ears. "The house will continue to attract protesters. If residents want to get rid of agitators, they should convince the CM to vacate this rented accommodation," said a protester.
