

Micro Technologies inducts Mr.N.Gopalaswami ex- CEC and GOI Home Secretary on its Advisory Board

Micro Technologies (India) Ltd. announced the appointment of Mr. N. Gopalaswami, former Chief Election Commissioner of India and ex – Home Secretary, GOI on the advisory board of the company. Mr. Gopalaswami was an IAS officer was the Chief Election Commissioner of India for the last election. He held various top level posts including that of the Managing Director, Gujarat Communication and Electronics Limited; as member (administration and purchase) in the Gujarat Electricity Board; secretary to Government (science & technology and technical education) and Secretary, Department of Revenue and Secretary General in the National Human Rights Commission. He was also an International Election Observer in USA (2004), in Mauritius (2005), Nepal (2008) and Bhutan (2008).

His exceptional experience and innovative vision are a perfect fit for our advisory board, which is testament to Micro Technologies's vision, market position and growth in the developed Security pr.

Micro Home Security Systems, now also available at the Airtel Shoppe in Lanka

Micro Technologies counterpart at Sri Lanka, it has tied-up with one of the fastest growing telecom company, Airtel to showcase its Home security products in the Airtel priority shops in the areas of Colombo, Kandy and Galle. Airtel would not only give support to market, promote and distribute Micro HSS.

