CVC: Disciplinary action can be taken against corrupt govt staff along with court cases

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, September 3

NECESSARY DISCIPLINARY ACTION against corrupt government employees can be taken along with criminal proceedings, the Central Vigilance Commission (CVC) has said.

The commission, while examining some disciplinary cases, has noticed that simultaneous action of prosecution and initiation of departmental proceedings are unduly delayed by departments/organisations by keeping them in abeyance on the ground that the matter is under trial in court. "Such an approach in finalising disciplinary matters is a matter of serious concern and is also not a correct approach," it said in a recent directive to banks, insurance companies and all other central government organisations.

The CVC said disciplinary authority of an organisation needs to ensure that the simultaneous departmental proceedings are undertaken against employees facing a criminal trial.

Citing a verdict by Supreme Court, the probity watchdog said, "There is no bar in conducting simultaneous criminal and departmental proceedings."

It said a view as to whether simultaneous disciplinary proceedings are to be initiated by the competent authorities at the time of considering the request for grant of sanction for prosecution itself.

"The Commission would, therefore, advise all concerned administrative authorities that in cases

Citing a verdict by the Supreme Court, the probity watchdog said there is no bar on simultaneous criminal and departmental proceedings where it is appropriate to initiate disciplinary proceedings along with criminal prosecution, the disciplinary proceedings must be initiated simultaneously," the CVC said.

The probity watchdog has recommended probe on various high-profile corruption cases involving officials of public-sector banks and Central government departments among others.
