MEDIA RELEASE

TRAI Says RJIL Tariff Plans compliant with prevailing regulations

Free Voice and Data benefits under JIO WELCOME OFFER to continue till 31st December 2016

Mumbai, 20th October 2016: Reliance Jio Infocomm Limited ("RJIL") has received communication from Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) stating that the tariff plans offered by it are fully compliant with regulatory norms of IUC compliance, non-predatory and non-discriminatory. This clearly establishes the fact that all the tariffs offered by RJIL are in compliance with the prevailing regulations. A key feature of RJIL's tariff packs is free voice calling for Local, STD and National roaming for all times.

As per RJIL's filing with the TRAI, the JIO WELCOME OFFER ("JWO") will be available to all the customers for subscription till 3rd December 2016. RJIL wishes to reconfirm that JWO benefits of free unlimited voice and data will continue to be available to all subscribers till 31st December 2016.

The consumers, who cannot subscribe to the RJIL services till 3rd December 2016 will continue getting opportunities to avail new offers and tariff plans from RJIL.RJIL aspires to provide the experience of Jio Digital life to all Indians and to achieve this it will continue coming up with more consumer friendly offers and plans to enhance the consumer experience.
