Confident Group Founder Roy Dies by Suicide

An I-T team was at the group's office when he allegedly shot himself

Our Bureau

Bengaluru: Confident Group founder-chairman Chiriankandath Joseph Roy ended his life at the real estate group's corporate office in Bengaluru Friday.

His colleagues rushed the 57-year-old to a private hospital after finding him lying in a pool of blood with gunshot wounds. He was declared dead later.

An income tax team from Kerala was at the Confident Group office when he allegedly shot himself, said people in the know.

The Kerala wing of the Income Tax Department has been probing the Confident Group for some time. Tax officials had conducted a round of searches in December and recorded Roy's statement. The team returned Friday as part of the ongoing investigation, the people said.

Bengaluru police commissioner Seemant Kumar Singh, who visited the place, said the police were investigating the case.

Widely known as CJ Roy, he hailed from Kerala. He is survived by his wife, a son and a daughter.

After working at American technology company Hewlett-Packard, Roy started the real estate business two decades back. He led the Confident Group from a regional developer into a diversified conglomerate with a significant land bank and footprints in India and the UAE. He also produced movies.

Roy never came across as someone who would take such an extreme step, said people who knew him closely. He always moved with security and carried a personal pistol, they said.

What was more shocking was he shot himself when an income tax team was in his office, said a real estate industry executive. "While we talk about ease of doing business, frequent raids by various departments have led to mounting pressure on developers," he said.

US SEC Fraud Case Against Adani Can Proceed After Procedural Matter Resolved

Group says plea filed by Gautam and Sagar Adani seeking time to challenge SEC plaint

New York: The US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) has arranged to serve Gautam Adani with a civil fraud lawsuit, allowing the regulator's case to proceed.

In a Friday filing in the Brooklyn, New York federal court, the SEC and US-based lawyers for Adani and his nephew Sagar Adani said the lawyers agreed to accept the SEC's legal papers, eliminating the need for US District Judge Nicholas Garaufis to rule on how the defendants should be served. If the judge approves the resolution, the Adanis will have 90 days to respond to the SEC's complaint, which could include requests for a dismissal.

The SEC charged the Adanis in November 2024 with violating US securities law by orchestrating a scheme to pay or promise to pay hundreds of millions of dollars in bribes to Indian government officials to benefit Adani Green Energy, where both are executives and directors.

In a late evening statement on Friday, the Adani Group said the counsels for Gautam Adani and Sagar Adani had accepted the papers, and filed a joint application with the concerned court that will allow the SEC matter to progress while giving time to the defendants to file a motion to dismiss the SEC complaint or file their defense within 90 days.

The Adanis have not been charged with any violation of bribery or corruption laws, the statement said, adding that Adani Green Energy is not a party to the proceedings, and no charges have been brought against it.—Agencies
