Dear Sir/Madam,

Sub.: Our clarification under applicable regulation of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 with respect to the email from one of the mainstream media

This is to inform you that the Company has today received an email from one of the mainstream media seeking clarification from the Company with regard to potential majority stake sale of the Company to a party. In this regard, the Company has clarified the said mainstream media that this is a rumour / speculation and has categorically denied the knowledge about information of such stake sale to any party.

With a view to prevent any misinformation and ensure full transparency, we hereby in good faith wish to clarify that the Company is not aware of any such potential majority stake sale of equity shares of the Company by any shareholder(s) and no such shareholder(s) has approached the Company or expressed his/their intention to sell any shares held by him/them in the Company.

We request you to take note of this clarification and disregard any misleading information that may have been circulated in the media.

Thanking you,
Yours faithfully,

For Shriram Finance Limited
