Sub - Resignation Letter - Req.

Respected Sir,

As discussed in the first week of February 25, due to personal and health problems, I am submitting my resignation from my position of Executive Director.

I kindly request you to consider this as my formal resignation letter, and accept my resignation and relieve me by the end of February 2025 as discussed and agreed.

At this point of time, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the management for the invaluable opportunities and trust placed in me over the past three decades.

Thank you very much for your support and guidance throughout my career in the organization.

I look forward to staying in touch and wish the organization continued success in the future.

Yours faithfully,

(A. Nasara Reddy)
