Dear Sir/Madam,

Sub: Disclosure under Regulation 30 of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ('Listing Regulations')

We would like to inform you that today (i.e. January 28, 2026 at 5:41 p.m.), the Company was made aware that a designated person of the Company inadvertently sent an email to an outsider containing the password protected unaudited draft financial results of the Company for the quarter and nine months ended December 31, 2025, while attempting to send it to the statutory auditors of the Company. The password to access the draft results was not included in the above email sent inadvertently to the outsider.

Please note that the above financial results are yet to be reviewed, finalized and approved and are subject to changes during the ongoing audit. In the interest of time and as a matter of good corporate governance practice, the Company is apprising the stock exchanges and the market of this incident under Regulation 30 of the Listing Regulations.

Stakeholders / investors are advised not to rely on any information regarding the financial results of the Company unless it has been disclosed by the Company pursuant to the processes set out under law. Any person making an investment decision based on this information will do so at their own risk. Please also note that the Company has initiated steps to take necessary action in this regard.

This intimation is also being uploaded on Company's website and can be accessed at www.infoedge.in.

This is for your information and records.

Yours faithfully,

For Info Edge (India) Limited
