f.	Reason for the delay:	We respectfully submit as under: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The communication/order issued by the CGST authorities was received by the Company during the period 26 December 2025 to 31 December 2025. Upon receipt, the same was taken up for examination in accordance with the Company's internal governance and reporting framework.</li> <li>2. In line with Regulation 30 read with Part A of Schedule III of the SEBI LODR Regulations, the Industry Standards on Regulation 30, and the SEBI Master Circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/PoD2/CIR/P/0155 dated 11 November 2024, the Company undertook a prima facie assessment of materiality, including verification of the tax, interest and penalty components, examination of the underlying factual background relating to overseas project execution undertaken by the Company in its capacity as Project Management Consultant (PMC), and consultation with tax advisors and concerned functional departments.</li> <li>3. The Company evaluated the disclosure requirements having regard to the principles set out under the Industry Standards, including whether the matter was in relation to the listed entity and had an impact on its financial position, operations or reputation, and the stage at which the information attained the character of a disclosable event.</li> <li>4. In accordance with paragraph 10.1 of the Industry Standards, the timelines for disclosure are to be reckoned from the point at which an officer of the listed entity becomes aware of the occurrence of a material event through credible and verifiable channels, after completion of such assessment.</li> <li>5. Further, paragraph 10.2 of the Industry Standards expressly recognises that a reasonable time taken for completion of a prima facie assessment of materiality for certain relevant events (such as orders, fraud, winding-up petitions, action initiated, claims made against a listed entity, etc.) constitutes a valid and recognised basis under the regulatory framework, and the present matter falls within the scope of such assessment.</li> <li>6. Upon completion of the aforesaid prima facie assessment of materiality and collation of requisite particulars in the prescribed format, the Company made the disclosure to the Stock Exchanges on 20 January 2026, together with detailed information as required under Para A of Part A of Schedule III.</li> <li>7. The Company has, in the said disclosure, clearly stated that it is in the process of initiating appropriate appellate remedies against the order and that, based on the current assessment, it does not anticipate any material impact on its financial position, operations or other business activities.</li> </ol>
-----------	------------------------------	---

	The disclosure has been made in compliance with Regulation 30 of the SEBI LODR Regulations, read with the Industry Standards and the SEBI Master Circular, and there has been no suppression, withholding or omission of any material information at any stage. Without prejudice to the above, and in compliance with the Exchange's advisory, the Company is submitting a fresh Corporate Announcement, making reference to the earlier disclosure and providing the present clarification for the sake of completeness and transparency.
