Dear Mr. Pathak,

This has reference to your e-mail dated 8th September, 2014. Our para-wise comments are as under:

(1) Comments on the above news article:

Smartchem Technologies Limited (STL), wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, India's leading manufacturer of mining chemicals, as a part of its forward integration initiative, has incorporated "Platinum Blasting Services Pty Ltd." (Platinum) as its overseas venture for Mining Services in Brisbane, Australia.

Platinum is a joint venture with local Australian partners, who have vast experience in providing value added blasting services and operation expertise to the mining and explosives industries in Australia. STL will hold 65% while the local partners will hold 35% in the joint venture.

(2) What is the material impact of this article on the Company:

There will not be any direct material impact on the Company since Platinum is a subsidiary of STL. However, since it is step down subsidiary of the Company, the operations of Platinum will be reflected in the consolidated financial statements of the Company.

(3) Any other relevant disclosure in this context

This overseas venture shall provide value added services to the mining and explosives industry in Australia and be an integral part of the Australian mining industry.

We request you to kindly take this information on your record.

Yours faithfully,
For Deepak Fertilisers
And Petrochemicals Corporation Limited
