Dear Sirs,

This is with reference to a media report titled "UltraTech wins copy right infringement case against Everest" regarding which you have sought a clarification from the Company.

At the outset, we wish to clarify that the matter as reported relates to infringement of trademark and not a copyright infringement.

As you would have noted, Everest Industries had been using a mark deceptively similar to our well known registered trademark "UltraTech", thereby causing infringement of our trade mark.

The Company at all times takes adequate steps to protect its assets, tangible as well as intangible. This action of the Company was in its normal course of business, aimed at protecting its brand/goodwill and therefore did not necessitate a disclosure in terms of the provisions of Regulations 30 of the Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements Regulations 2015.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully
For UltraTech Cement Limited
