₹130,000 crore and NHB refinanced the banks and other financial institutions to the tune of ₹14,300 crore.

"This year, we have set a target to disburse ₹17,500 crore," said RV Verma, chairman and managing director, NHB, at the inaugural ceremony of the NHB's Regional Representative Office here recently.

HR Khan, deputy governor, Reserve Bank of India and Injeti Srinivas, development commissioner and additional chief secretary, housing and urban development department (H&UD), Odisha were also present at the ceremony.

Verma rued the fact about the outstanding retail housing loans of public sector banks in Odisha being less than one per cent (about 0.7 per cent) of their total credit. The outstanding housing loan at the national level stands at around ₹700,000 crore and Odisha's share is only ₹5,000 crore, he added.

Speaking on the occasion, Srinivas said, about 100 acres of land has been identified at

City housing project bags Crisil five-star rating

The Acropolis residential project of city-based developer Acrux Realcon Pvt Ltd has been given the five-star rating by Crisil, a leading rating agency. The project, coming up at Gothapatana on the city's outskirts, is the first such project in the state to bag the five-star rating. Crisil under its Crisil Real Estate Star Ratings (CREST), rates real estate projects with seven-star rating being the highest. So far, the rating agency has rated around 220 projects in the country and about 35 projects have been given five-star ratings. Rahul Swain, director, Acrux Realcon Ltd said, "Built at a total cost of around ₹120 crore, the project will have 1,062 housing units and the first phase delivery to the customers will be made in
