Karnataka Bank Founders' Day celebration is scheduled to be held on Thursday, 18th February 2016 and Dr. Duvvuri Subbarao, Former Governor of Reserve Bank of India and Distinguished Visiting Fellow at the National University of Singapore will deliver the Founders' Day Lecture. Dr. Duvvuri Subbarao will talk on "Leading the Reserve Bank of India: Challenges and Dilemmas". The programme will be followed by Musical Concert by Vidwan Shri V K Raman, on the flute, accompanied by Vidwan Shri Mysore V Srikanth, on the violin, Vidwan Shri Patri Satish Kumar, on the Mridangam and Vidwan Shri V Suresh, on the Ghatam. The programme will commence at 04.30 pm in the Bank's auditorium on the 4th floor of the Head Office Building at Mahaveera Circle, Kankanady, Mangaluru and will be presided by Shri Ananthakrishna, Chairman of the Bank. There will be live broadcast of the programme by All India Radio, Mangaluru and live telecast by 'Namma Kudla" TV Channel.

Founded on 18th February 1924, Karnataka Bank, which has completed 92 years of purposeful banking and service to the nation is now stepping into its 93rd year and is emerging as preferred Bank of millions of customers, with its presence in 21 states and 2 union territories, with 713 branches and 1210 ATMs across India.

Bank has also planned certain CSR initiatives to widen the scope of Founders' Day celebration. "Bank has been consistently supporting various initiatives of social relevance in the field of education, sanitation, drinking water, health care, environment protection, promotion of heritage and culture and so on. As we celebrate our Founders' Day on 18-02-2016 we are happy to announce a few of our CSR initiatives namely, installing traffic barricades in Mangaluru city roads to regulate the high traffic, installing solar lighting system at Kadri Park, Mangaluru and donating a Home Care Vehicle to M/s Pain and Palliative Care Society, Thrissur District, Kerala", said Shri P Jayarama Bhat, MD & CEO of the Bank.
