Dear Sir,

We would like to inform you that production operations of the Company's Bulk Drugs Plant located at Alathur, Tamil Nadu have been disrupted from 2nd December 2015, due to flooding at the factory premises caused by heavy rains in Chennai.

We have now recommenced the operations in a phased manner. However, the Sterile Manufacturing Section would need to be verified for Sterility and this would take a few more days for becoming fully operational.

The natural calamity is adequately covered under the Insurance Policy of the Company.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

L Chandrasekar
Executive VP – Finance & Secretary
