L&T Infotech acquired Pune-based ISRC

Mumbai/Pune (India), October 28, 2014: With an aim to enhance focus on core business, L&T Infotech, a global provider of information technology services and solutions, and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the USD 14.3 billion Larsen & Toubro (L&T), has completed the acquisition of Information Systems Resource Centre Pvt. Ltd. (ISRC). ISRC was a subsidiary of Otis Elevator Co., which is a part of UTC Building & Industrial Systems, a unit of United Technologies Corp.

On this occasion Mr. V.K. Magapu, Managing Director, L&T Infotech said, "As a major IT supplier, L&T Infotech plans to leverage the technology capability and experience of ISRC in order to enhance its value-add to UTC."

Mr. Omar Fathi, Vice President, Information Technology, UTC Building & Industrial Systems said, "This allows UTC Building & Industrial Systems' IT organization to focus on supporting the company's core businesses while allowing ISRC and its employees to grow and serve its customers under the new ownership."

L&T Infotech has two key vendor facilities in Mumbai serving UTC Building & Industrial Systems, as well as a team of professionals serving various divisions of UTC.

L&T Infotech is comprised of 20,000 IT professional across the globe. This acquisition will bring a number of learning and career growth opportunities for the ISRC employees including opportunities for technical skill enhancement and exposure to new technologies.
