Annexure A

Name(s) of the opposing party	The Assistant Commissioner, Commercial Tax, Raipur Chhattisgarh.
Court/ Tribunal/Agency where litigation is filed	The Company will file an appeal against the said Order and demand before the Chhattisgarh High Court.
Brief details of dispute/litigation	The Demand Order seeks to impose entry tax on the movement of mixture of limestone and other inputs inside the factory at 10% even though the appropriate entry tax at 1% has been paid and accepted during assessments. There are 4 different demands for FY 2016-17 raising the demand of entry tax of Rs.3,49,29,507/- with includes tax, interest and penalty.
Expected financial implications, if any, due to compensation, penalty etc	The Demand Order will not sustain as it is barred by limitation and arbitrarily imposed against the facts and practices accepted by the Tax Authorities. The demand has been raised u/s 49(1) of CG VAT Act which does not allow any order prejudicial to the assessee. It will have no major financial impact on the Company. We believe that this demand will not survive the writ petition before the Chhattisgarh High Court where we will challenge this demand.
