Dear Sir,

Re: Clarification for News item appearing in www.indianexpress.com - June 21, 2018

With reference to your email dated 21.06.2018 on the captioned matter, we wish to submit as under:

- A news item "Nagpur: Dena Bank incurs loss of Rs. 5 Crore" was appearing on 21.06.2018 in www.indianexpress.com, Nagpur Edition.
- DCP, Crime Branch, Nagpur on the basis of some anonymous complaint received by them was pursuing with the Bank officials to lodge FIR / Complaint pertaining to some accounts as mentioned in the complaint received by them and also copy of the related documents.
- The contents of the news item were not correct as fraud has been reported in 2 accounts only amounting to Rs. 5 Crores.
- Accordingly the matter was taken up with the DCP, Crime Branch, Nagpur by our Bank officials and it was clarified to him that fraud has been reported in only 2 accounts and remaining 17 accounts are NPA in the normal course as per RBI Guidelines due to default by borrowers and Bank has already initiated recovery / legal action against borrower and the same is in progress.
- DCP having accepted the Bank's clarification and advised the ZO officials to get the clarification published in the News Paper in this regard.
- Accordingly, Indian Express – Nagpur edition published the clarification from Zonal Manager, Nagpur on 21.06.2018 along with the statement of DCP, Crime Branch, Nagpur.
- The article will not have any material impact on the Bank.
