Traffic moves freely after vehicles were let without toll in Vasai, Navi Mumbai on Wednesday

TN RAGHUNATHA ■ MUMBAI

Close on the heels of a similar decision taken by the Union Surface Transport Ministry for national highways, the Maharashtra Government on Wednesday evening announced the suspension toll collection on all the State highways till the midnight of November 11, in a bid to provide relief to the beleaguered vehicle owners and operators.

"The decision to suspend toll collection till the midnight of Friday will also provide relief to people arriving in Mumbai from various suburbs and other places through various entry points," an official spokesperson said.

In another relief to Mumbaikars, the Maharashtra Government directed the management Mumbai Metro to accept the de-monetised currency notes of the denomination of ₹500 and ₹1,000 for the sale of railway tickets during the next couple days. The directive followed complaints from commuters that they were facing inconvenience due to inadequate number of notes of the denomination ₹100 and less.

In a televised address, Maharashtra Chief Minister Devendra Fadnis said, "People—especially the elderly and housewives that do not lose any money, the Centre's decision to de-monetise the currencies of ₹1,000 and ₹500 will be a relief to them. There is no need for people to get panicked at the prospect of losing their money because of the de-monetisation, as the de-monetisation is only for exchanging the old ₹500 and ₹1,000 notes for ₹1,000 and ₹500 notes. I request people to create commotion while seeking exchange of currency notes for ₹1,000 and ₹500. Let all welcome and support the Centre's decision to fight black money."

Let all welcome and support the Centre's decision to fight black money," the Chief Minister said.
