AI disinvestment: GoM holds first meeting

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, July 21

A GROUP of ministers (GoM) appointed by the Union Cabinet to look into disinvestment of Air India held its first meeting here on Friday.

The ministers who attended the meeting included finance minister Arun Jaitley, civil aviation minister Ashok Gajapathi Raju, Railway Minister Suresh Prabhu, Union minister with independent charge for power and coal, Piyush Goyal.

The fifth minister part of the GoM, minister for Road Transport and Highways, Nitin Gadkari, was not present.

"We can't hide anything from people but when we come to a stage where it is worth saying something, we will tell you," Raju told reporters after the meeting. Secretary, ministry of civil aviation, R N Choubey declined to comment on the specifics, saying,

"It is a market sensitive issue."

The Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs late last month gave its in-principle approval for disinvestment of Air India. It constituted an Air India Specific Ad-hoc Mechanism (AISAM), or a group of ministers, headed by Jaitley to look into five terms of references.

The mandate of the AISAM is to look into the treatment of Air India's debt, hiving off of certain assets to a shell company, de-merger and strategic disinvestment of three profit-making subsidiaries, quantum of disinvestment and the universe of bidders.

Air India, which has a debt burden of more than ₹52,000 crore, is staying afloat on taxpayers' money. The previous UPA government had extended a bailout package worth little over ₹30,000 crore to the national carrier for a ten-year period starting from 2012.

To meet requirements, the company or its controlling shareholders must sell a 10.85% stake, worth about ₹4,900 crore ($762 million) based on the current share price, according to data compiled by Bloomberg.

Asale would extend a rebound in Indian equity offerings, which have raised 822 billion rupees this year, almost three times as much as during the same 2016 period, data compiled by Bloomberg show. The firm said Wednesday its board will meet this month to consider how to achieve the float target.
