NEWS RELEASE

Nucleus Software to display its next-generation Lending solutions at the West Africa International Retail Banking Dialogue 2015

New Delhi, India, July 02, 2015 — Nucleus Software, the leading provider of lending and transaction banking solutions to the global financial services industry, today announced that it is the Thought Leadership Sponsor for the "West Africa International Retail Banking Dialogue 2015" organised by The Asian Banker in Lagos, Nigeria on July 9, 2015.

At the event, Mr. Percy Thaver, Head & Vice President, Sales, Nucleus Software will present a session on "Enhancing technology infrastructure to expand the banks scope and enhance customer experience across delivery channels". During the session, he will illustrate how banks who adopt the right systems and processes are able to grow their businesses successfully while ensuring a consistent superior level of customer service across all touch points. The session will also share insights on how data integration from multi-channels and analytics can be used for greater customer centricity and segmentation.

Commenting on the event Mr. Thaver, said, "For over a decade, Nucleus Software has been helping more than 15 customers in Africa providing them with new technology solutions to compete effectively and meet changing customer demands. We are proud to be participating in the West Africa International Retail Banking Dialogue to engage with local retail bankers and share our business knowledge to help them deliver better customer service and improved success rates."

Nucleus Software will demonstrate its complete product suite including FinnOne Neo™ lending solution, the latest version of its recently named best-selling lending software in the world for the 7th year running, Integrated transaction banking product solution, FinnAxia™ and Mobility Solutions at the event.

About Asian Banker - West Africa International Retail Banking Dialogue 2015
